

LOCALS AND PERSONALS OF INTEREST TO Farmville and Surrounding Sections

Jno. T. Thorne was a Raleigh visitor the first of this week.

R. H. Patterson, of Wilson, was a business visitor in Farmville Tuesday.

Mrs. Everett, of Robersonville, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. S. A. Row- buck.

Several of our citizens attended the fair this week in Greenville and also in Raleigh.

Miss Susie Tyson, of near Green- ville, was the week end guest of Miss Rosalind Tyson.

Mrs. A. R. Winslow, of Winfall, is visiting her daughters, Mesdames, G. M. Atwater and W. D. Bryan, Jr.

Judge J. Loyd Horton and family, of Raleigh, spent the past week end in the city with relatives.

Mrs. Don Culpepper, of Wilson, is spending some time here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Baker.

Mrs. R. O. Lang has returned from a few days' stay in Raleigh, where she took her baby to a specialist for treatment.

According to reports, Johnnie and Harry had to be good little boys while away last week on account of certain promises made before leaving home.

Mayor and Mrs. M. V. Horton, ac- companied by Mrs. T. E. Keel, motored to Raleigh Wednesday, spending a few days in the Capital city this week with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Raspberry, Mrs. J. M. Wheelers, Mrs. A. B. Walter and George W. Davis attended the annual meeting of the Roanoke Baptist Asso- ciation held in Washington Tuesday.

Messrs. J. B. Joyner, E. O. Taylor, H. L. Lang and Dr. Paul E. Jones spent last Friday, Saturday and Sun- day in Washington, D. C., where they witnessed a portion of the World's se- ries of baseball. They report large and enthusiastic crowds.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Turnage motored to Raleigh Thursday where they took in the fair and also witnessed the foot ball game between Carolina and State College. The result was Carolina defeated State 17 to 0.

Walstonburg, Oct. 15th—Following the Yearly Meeting which took place on Saturday and Sunday, October 10th and 11th, Howell Swamp Free Will Baptist Church began its series of revival services. Rev. Mr. Poston, of South Carolina, is doing the preach- ing, and the church is taxed to capacity to take care of the crowds. In fact, Howell Swamp is running true to its reputation of having one of the liveliest old-time revivals which this section sees. Moreover, its revivals seem to revive; for each year a goodly num- ber are added to the membership thru these meetings. The good price of tobacco has also put the people into a very grateful and generous state of mind—all of which makes for the suc- cess of a revival, from man's view- point. Here's hoping that much last- ing good may result from the series of services.

If all the angels are women, the happier wants to know why it's called heaven.

Market has shown very little ac- tivity this week, with a bearish senti- ment pending the Mid October pub- lication of the crop report. It is the general opinion that grainings in next report will be unusually heavy com- pared with former years, however, further views are advanced that cot- ton will eventually regain some of the loss of a fortnight ago, resulting from the report of an enormous crop.

Market shows advance of 6 to 10 points to-day at 12 noon.

Middling 20 cents.

President's Address

A decidedly pleasing part of this company's entertainment centers in the character impersonations of Miss Floss Grosjean. This talented young woman, who is the director of the company, has won enthusiastic approval from audiences everywhere for her true to life character delineations.

The offerings of the artist enter- tainers, who compose the Grosjean Marimba - Xylophone company, are distinctive and decidedly worth while.

Too Far In Advance.

Second Convict—"I don't know. I am in for life."

Daughters, in accepting the pres- idency of your chapter for another year, I wish to say that I feel very inefficient in leading such a worthy and noble cause as we should consid- er our work of the U. D. C. You know that in unity there is strength, and since it takes each link of similar proportions to make a great chain, let us band ourselves together in enthus- iasm and loyalty, making this, the coming year, a banner one in this grand and glorious work of commemo- rating the deeds of our noble fore- fathers, who so valiantly fought for a cause that they believed to be right, and, too, we want to especially re- member the ones who are still living. Let us try to brighten their lives in the little acts of kindness that their few remaining years may be brighter and that the painful memories of the past may grow dim.

Your president is very willing, but weak, so please, each and every Daughter, do your part when called upon, and in so doing, lighten that which otherwise might seem a burden.
