FOUNTAIN NEWS NOTES

Mrs. Lulu Rivers, of Durham, and Mrs. W. H. Pridden, of Elm City, spent Tuesday afternoon with Mrs.
 H. F. Owens.
 Miss Hilda Smith, of Farmville, spent last week end with Miss Sarah Lane.

Mrs. W. L. Godwyn is spending this week with her sister, Mrs. Frank Savage, at Leggetts.
 Mrs. R. A. Fountain spent Monday in Raleigh with her daughter, Miss Adley Louise, who is attending Peace Institute.

Mrs. J. W. Bass, of Farmville, spent Monday afternoon in Fountain.
 Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Horton, Miss Glenn Smith and Miss Burhead spent Sunday with Miss Smith's parents in Gates county.

Mezra Leslie Yalverton and R. E.
 Boyd spent Sunday afternoon in the city of Bethel.

Quite a number of Fountain people attended the Association at Old Sparta Sunday.

Dr. A. L. Wooten, of Raleigh, spent last week end with his sister, Mrs.
 W. D. Gaynor.

Mrs. F. L. Eagles spent Monday in Walstonburg with her sister, Mrs. W.
 E. Lang.

The friends of Mrs. J. W. Jefferson are very glad to know that she is much better after having had a severe case of acute indigestion.

A Group Conference of Albemarle Presbyterial had a meeting Tuesday, Oct. 6th, in Fountain Presbyterial Church. Mrs. W. W. Eagles, of Pine-tops, was leader and conducted the meeting in her usual charming manner. The program was very interesting as well as helpful. About 75 ladies from the different churches in the Presbyterial or in Group No. 2 were present. The ladies of Fountain Auxiliary served the visitors a salad course with iced tea and cream and cake.

Mrs. E. B. Beasley was hostess to The Woman's Club Wednesday afternoon from four till six. Upon arrival guests were served delicious punch.
 The meeting was called to order by President Mrs. J. M. Horton. The district meeting of the Club Women to be held at Bethaven, October 15th, was discussed and it was urged that as many as possible attend. Mrs. J.
 M. Hogwood, of Farmville, was present and made a very interesting talk.
 The hostess, assisted by Miss Nelle Owens, Mrs. Harry Johnson and Mrs.
 C. L. Owens, served block cream and cake. Attractive Halloween favors were on each plate. About 25 were present. The next meeting will be with Mrs. S. R. Brown.

Saturday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock, Mrs. W. L. Godwyn entertained WPA County Alliance of the Teachers College, Greenville. After an informal business meeting conducted by the President, Mrs. W. L. Godwyn, progressive bridge was played.
 Mrs. J. A. Meeker won highest score and was presented a box of lovely imported handkerchiefs. A sumptuous buffet supper was served by the hostesses, assisted by Mesdames Hardy Johnson, W. L. Goodwyn and Carl Gay. Especially invited guests were Misses Mary Sue Grove, Emily Stafford and Christine Smith.

A Guaranteed Remedy for Cuts, Burns, Bruises
 For cuts, burns, bruises, sores, etc. Hanford's Balsam of Myrrh has proved to be a valuable remedy.
 It is antiseptic and healing. When applied to an open wound or cut it leaves a thin protective coating which tends to keep out infection.
 When used as a liniment and well rubbed it is good for strains and sprains. The pains of rheumatism and lumbago have been relieved by this remarkable remedy.
 Sold at drug stores with a guarantee of satisfaction. Your money back if you are not pleased.

THE COUNTY FAIR

The following editorial from the Dearborn Independent, in glowing terms sets forth just how great an institution is the county fair and what it means to a community. What the Dearborn paper says of the county fair in general might well be applied to our own Pitt county fair, which opens in Greenville next Tuesday:

"The harvest moon, yellow as a new cheese, rides high in the heavens.
 The sun sinks in shrouded majesty, lighting a canopy of clouds banked in the west. A haunting mist softens the lines of the high board fence, the grand stand and the judges stand at the race track. The twin lights of hundreds of automobiles are gently blurred like stars beneath a filmy cloud. The evening breeze wafts the scent of new cut corn across the country. All is in readiness for tomorrow's county fair. For weeks the children and their parents have been looking forward to the event. The women folk have been canning fruit and making pickles for the exhibit.
 The men have fed and groomed the colt, the calf and the shorthorn. Tomorrow is the big day. In the households and in the fields and barns careful preparations have been made for the scheduled competitive events.
 Here, also, will be a great open forum for the discussion of the issues which interest the farmer folk. The astute campaigner for county office will be bustling about with the proverbial box of cigars under one arm, the other free to lift little Johnny Jones and his sister to his knee while he praises them to their parents.
 Properly done, this means two votes and maybe more. The display in the agricultural hall are properly arranged as well as the exhibits of new mechinery and other mechanical devices.
 The county fair is a great institution.
 Long may it live!"

GAS TAXES BREAK RECORD

Raleigh, Oct. 6.-All records for the collection of gasoline taxes in the state of North Carolina were broken during the month of September, according to figures on the books of the automobile bureau of the revenue department, which show collections of $727,972.99 in gasoline taxes. Other September collections by the bureau were license taxes, $291,528.55, and title registration fees, $12,117.

Total collections during September were $1,031,638.54 and the September collections put the first quarter of the present fiscal year more than one million dollars ahead of the first quarter of the past fiscal year in the collection of taxes applicable to the state highway fund.

A comparative summary showing collections of September, 1925, and September, 1926, follows

	1925	1926
License	$236,789	$291,828
Gas	386,769	727,972
Title	9,943	12,317
Total	$633,502	$1,031,638

Indigestion

bad spells relieved
 "NOTHING can take the place of Theodor's Black-Draught with us because we have never found anything at once so mild and so effective," says Mrs. Hugh Nichols, R. F. D. 4, Princeton, Ky.
 "When the children have spells of indigestion and upset stom-aches, I always straighten them out with a dose or two of Black-Draught."
 "Several times I have suffered with bad spells of indigestion myself and found I would soon get relief if I took a course of Black-Draught. I was troubled with a bad accumulation of gas and severe pains across my stomach and lower bowels. Now when I feel a spell of this kind coming on, I head it off by taking Black-Draught—a dose every night for a few nights will prevent the trouble and save me much pain and suffering."
 "My whole family uses Black-Draught for biliousness and constipation."
 "It is a splendid medicine."
 Sold everywhere. 25 cents.
