WOMAN'S CLUB IS ORGANIZED HERE

Mrs. R. R. Cotten Delivered the Principal Address of the Day. Mrs. J. M. Hobgood Elected President. About 25 Joined at The Initial Meeting.

On Thursday afternoon a large number of representative women of Farmville met in the auditorium of the high school building and organized a woman's club with about 25 members. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. J. M. Hobgood. Mrs. R. R. Cotten and Miss Annie Perkins made strong talks concerning woman's club work. Mrs. Cotten especially emphasized the need of organized womanhood in all things, especially in the matter of upholding high and right ideals by taking advantage of their privilege to vote. She urged the women to know the men who are candidates for election this fall and to find out whether or not they intend to vote for the bills which are sponsored by the women's organizations, and then vote accordingly. The organization of the club was perfected with four departments—under consideration, Music, Art, American Citizenship and Public Welfare.

The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. J. M. Hobgood; honorary president, Mrs. Cotten; vice president, Mrs. W. M. Bryan; recording secretary, Mrs. John Hooker; corresponding secretary, Mrs. J. G. Spencer; treasurer, Miss Tabitha DeVisconti.

A membership committee was appointed and urged to get busy. A large membership is expected and the club intends to be a vital, helpful force in the various spheres in which it is sorely needed in the town.

DETOURS—A BAD ROAD BUILDER.

Women of the Fifteenth District of N. C. F. W. Co., will please read the following letter which was received by Mrs. J. M. Hobgood, president of the district:

Washington, N. C., Oct. 4.

Dear Mrs. Hobgood:

"I am in receipt of your letter asking for information relative to the roads to Belhaven, N. C., where your meeting will be held on October 14. I thoroughly agree with you that the detours are tedious and dusty and together with a rain would make them muddy. One thing I find in trying to construct better roads, are the troubles of detours. As has been said by some one, 'The Americans can construct a very good road, but that Frenchman, Detour, is about the worst road builder that we have in North Carolina.'

"The only detour you will have between Washington and Belhaven at that time will be by the way of Acre station, turning to your left on a dirt road, about seven and a half miles from Washington, following the detour signs until you get on the hard surface road to Belhaven. I shall give instructions to have the detour in the best possible shape on that day.

"Wishing for you a successful meeting of your district clubs,

Sincerely yours,

F. C. KUGLER."

It is hoped that none of the women will let that little detour frighten them and that there will be a large crowd present.

The Tuesday Afternoon Bridge club was entertained by Mrs. J. W. Joyner on Tuesday afternoon of this week. The living room and dining room were charming in their decorations of baskets of golden rod and three tables attractively arranged for bridge, all in autumn colors. After several progressions, Mrs. Alex Bynum held top score and was presented with a bottle of Houbright's perfume.

Mrs. Joyner, assisted by Mrs. W. E. Joyner and Mrs. C. T. Dixon, served congealed chicken with sandwiches and tea, carrying out the same autumn colors. Besides the club members Mrs. Joyner had as special guests Mrs. Gene Clayton, Mrs. Doggett, Mrs. Arthur Jordan, Mrs. Alex Bynum, Mrs. Gregory and Mrs. W. C. Askew.

The club meets next with Mrs. A. F. Joyner on Grimmsburg street on October 19th at three-thirty o'clock.

SALUTE TO THE TREES

Many a tree is found in the wood And every tree for its use is good; Some for the strength of the gnarled root, Some for the sweetness of flower or fruit; Some for shelter against the storm, And some to keep the hearthstone warm. Some for the roof, and some for the beam, And some for a boat to breast the stream; In the wealth of the wood since the world began The trees have offered their gifts to man.

But the glory of trees is more than their gifts; 'Tis a beautiful wonder of life that lifts From a wrinkled seed in an earth-bound clod, A column, an arch in the temple of God, A pillar of power, a dome of delight, A shrine of song, and a joy of sight, Their roots are the nurses of rivers in birth, Their leaves are alive with the breath of the earth; They shelter the dwellings of man, and they bend O'er his grave with the look of a loving friend.

I have camped in the whispering forests of pines, I have slept in the shadow of olives and vines, In the knees of an oak at the foot of a palm, I have found good rest and slumber's balm. And now, when the morning gilds the boughs Of the vaulted elm at the door of my house, I open the window and make salute: "God bless thy branches and feed thy roots, Thou hast lived before, live after me, Thou ancient, friendly, faithful tree."
