

AIN'T IT THE TRUTH

By A. S. CHAPIN

BUT IS THERE ANYTHING THE MATTER WITH JIMMY THAT AFTERNOON AS HE SLOPS AROUND ON A MUDDY FIELD CARRYING NOTHING FOR LAME LEGS OR A WEAK BACK OR A BUN HIP — IS THERE? — WELL WE SHOULD SAY NOT!

NOTICE OF SALE!

By virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain deed of trust, executed by J. T. Dixon and wife, Lila S. Dixon, to W. R. Willis, Trustee, The Citizens Bank, on the 21st day of March, 1923, duly recorded in the Registry of Pitt County, in Book U-14, at page 438, default having been made in the payment of the notes secured therein, the undersigned Trustee will sell at public sale, before the Court-house door in the Town of Greenville, N. C., to the highest bidder for CASH, on Friday, November 12th, 1926, at 12 o'clock Noon, the following described tracts of land, lying and being in the Town of Farmville, County of Pitt, State of North Carolina, and more fully described as follows:

FOUNTAIN NEWS NOTES

A group conference of the schools of this district was held at Fountain High School building on Monday. The Parent-Teachers Association served a very delightful chicken dinner with ice cream and cake. Immediately after lunch the visiting teachers voted on the room that was the most attractive. Mrs. J. A. Mercer's room receiving most votes. Dr. Futrell and Miss Feutras afterwards made a sanitary inspection of the school building and grounds, giving Fountain third place in the county, after having ranked next to bottom in the county at last inspection. They commented very favorably on the improvements, Miss Brogan adding that the school rooms were the most attractive in the county, with the exception of the model school in Greenville.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Killebrew announce the birth of a son on Oct. 23.
