YES SIR, FOLKS, OUR BIG ANNUAL SALE IS GOING STRONG.

Opening day was satisfactory in every respect, and the buying public seems more than pleased with the liberal reductions we have made in all lines. Our customers have been coming from several counties, and all express surprise at the wonderful bargains. Now, folks, our manager bought large quantities of quality merchandise in order that he might give you more saving. Do not let this opportunity to buy the furniture you need at sale prices pass unnoticed. Now is the time to buy and pay up, and win the Ford and other prizes.

Watch for our page ad in this paper next week.

MRS. MARY GASKINS DIES HERE OF HEART FAILURE

Mrs. Mary B. Gaskins, who was on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Geo. S. Williams, on Pine street, was taken suddenly ill Tuesday night and died in a very short while thereafter of heart failure. She was 55 years old and was apparently in good heart before the attack.

The body was prepared for burial and the remains taken to Aurora on Wednesday afternoon where interment was made.

The remains were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Geo. S. Williams and Mrs. J. B. Gaskins, also a son.

MISS MARY ALBRITTON MARRIED THURSDAY TO MR. COOPER GRIZZARD

The country home of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Albritton near Farmville was the scene of a very pretty wedding Thursday afternoon at three o'clock, when their youngest daughter, Miss Mary Albritton, was married to Mr. Cooper Grizzard of Rosemary.

The living room was decorated in a simple, artistic way, long leaf pines, graceful ferns, baskets of white Chrysanthemums and cathedral candles in tall white holders forming a lovely setting for the ceremony. As the candles were being lighted by Ted and Martinholt, Albritton, brothers of the bride, Mrs. J. M. Hoggood played "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms," after which Elbert Holmes beautifully sang "Oh Promise Me." Then the music drifted into the thrilling strains of Lohengrin's wedding march and the bridal pair entered, preceded by Rev. G. H. Russell, of Snow Hill, pastor of the bride. Miss Albritton was attired in a light grey gown of crepe, with harmonizing accessories. Her flowers were an arm bouquet of Sweetheart roses and lilies of the valley. She was particularly pretty and winsome in her bridal attire, being of the striking brown-eyed blonde type. The ceremony was very impressive, the ring service being used, while "Traumerie" was softly played. Mendelssohn's Wedding March was used after the ceremony and the happy pair left immediately amidst the usual shower of rice, good wishes and old shoes. They will motor to Tampa, Fla., and other points in that state for two weeks after which time they will be at home in Rosemary, N. C. An informal reception was held after the wedding.

Mrs. Grizzard is one of the most loved young women of her community, and has always been active in school, community and church work. She was educated at Greensboro Women's College.

Mr. Grizzard is Cashier of the Roanoke Rapids Bank and is highly esteemed by a host of friends. Mrs. Mae Grizzard, Mrs. Harrison Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Pendleton Grizzard, of Rosemary, were among those present at the wedding.

FARMVILLE LITERARY CLUB MONOR HUSBANDS AT DINNER

Charming in every detail, was the elegant dinner tendered the husbands and other guests of the Farmville Literary Club on last Friday evening at seven o'clock. The Rotary rooms were elaborately decorated with Halloween black cats, spooks of every description, and the yellow lights were especially flattering as they shone upon the many handsomely gowned women and their escorts. Mrs. G. A. Jones, president of the club, presided, and seated with her and Mr. Jones, were the special guests of the club, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Cotten, Mrs. B. B. Slaughter, Mrs. J. M. Hoggood and Miss Edna Robinson. Mrs. J. W. Parker gave an amusing and interesting history of the club, in rhyme. Miss Perkins made a splendid talk on the Departmental Work of the Federation of Clubs. Mrs. J. W. Joyner delighted the diners with a lovely rendition of "Indian Love Call," from Rose-Marie. Mr. W. G. Sheppard was unusually fine in an address on Legislative Program of the N. C. F. W. C. Mrs. Hoggood, President of the Fifteenth District of N. C. Women's Clubs, told of how the District won the Cooper gavel last year, and solicited the interest and cooperation of all in the coming year's work. Then Mother Cotten, beloved by all of North Carolina, in true Cotten style, made the feature talk of the evening. Her sparkling wit, practical, common-sense illustrations, her love and real charity for all human beings, carried her message to the heart of every person present. Mrs. Cotten closed her talk with an original toast made of her own verse. The beautifully appointed four course dinner was served by the women of the Christian Church, the waitresses being particularly attractive in their white dresses, spook caps and aprons. The singing of the Club Women's Hymn, with Mrs. J. L. Shackelford at the piano, closed the evening's program.

The Helping Hand

Fall is here. The fruit of your season's labors is ready for harvest, ready to be gathered into safe places, for every pound of tobacco, every ounce of live stock is money. Pray for your toil and thought. Harvest time oft brings a bumper crop of woes and worries—these may grow so big they hamper the successful harvesting of the fruits and grains—if you let them! When you can't handle your products alone you hire help.

So let us suggest that when your financial worries are too heavy for you to harvest alone—that you let us give you a helping hand.

Pains disappeared

"SEVERAL years ago I was badly run-down," says Mrs. John Bunch, R. F. D. 3, Columbia, S. C. "I could not do any of my work. I was so weak I could not wash a dish. My back and sides hurt me at times dreadfully. I despaired several times until I finally got down in bed."
Then, explains Mrs. Bunch, she happened to read about Cardui, the woman's tonic, and decided to give it a thorough trial, the results of which are described below.
"It seemed to reach the cause of my trouble at once. I did not take it long before my appetite began to improve. I gained in weight from 114 pounds until now I weigh 128 pounds. I felt was able to be up around the house. I took up my household duties and was delighted with my returning strength."
"I now do all my own work. The pains in my sides and back have disappeared and I feel like a different person."
Cardui has been helping suffering women for nearly 60 years. Sold by all druggists.
