Published in the interest of the people of Farmville and Pitt County by the FARMVILLE FURNITURE COMPANY
 T. E. Joyner, Maynard Thorne Editors

We have heard it said that dry weather scares a farmer to death but wet weather rains him. That is true to an extent and we know that it is dry. But did you know that we nearly always get the rain when we need it. Read the big book.

We express our regrets and sympathies to the many friends and relatives of Mr. H. C. Turnage who was buried Monday of this week.

Now that June is almost here the boys and girls will be coming home from college. Fix up the old place, paint it up, scrub it, put awnings on the porch and windows, give them an agreeable surprise to come home and find a new home and find a new savings from it.

 There's many an elderly man with a young looking figure who wouldn't want his wife to see him with it.
 The trade is going strong for Orthophonic Victrolas now. Altho they are a little hard to get right now, we manage to keep a few in stock. Come in and let us give you a demonstration. Priced at three hundred dollars.
