BACKWARD, turn backward, O time in your flight—bring me an old-fashioned supper tonight; Buttermilk biscuits and blackberry jam, — Good country butter and sugar-cured ham. I would have doughnuts like Ma used to make, — Pass me the steak, Brother — pass me the steak!

Camel

The cigarette that makes smoking a genuine pleasure

You can smoke Camels all day long without thought but of the pleasure and refreshment that each one brings. That's the advantage of choice tobaccos and skilful blending.

No, indeed. Lawyer X—Isn't it disgraceful to hear a man singing like that coming out of the bar? Lawyer Y—Very. Our clients don't sing like that when they leave our offices.

ing as a nobleman, was arrested recently accused of marrying fifty women and getting a million dollars in money and jewelry from them. There is nothing to be said about that except that it is in the nature of a woman to trust men, unfortunately for women.

"Curls are coming back," says a professor of physiology, even "puff girls" and the "shingle" will pass. Common sense is with the bob. Romance with the puffed curl. You could not imagine Martha Washington with a bob.

No great thing is achieved without sacrifice. Those distressed by loss of life in flying may remember that the total number of deaths in trans-Atlantic flying is smaller than the number killed automobilizing on any fine Sunday. The thing is to keep on and conquer.

E. V. Miller, of Toronto, left brewery stock to seven Methodist ministers and Ontario Jockey Club shared to opponents of race track gambling. At the end of nine years, the proceeds of his estate go to the parents of the largest family born in the province during that time.

Methodist ministers, to get the $75,000 brewery stock, must draw the dividends and vote on the company's management, to see whether their salaries for money was greater than their principles.

The ministers, of course, will do what is necessary to collect the money, and use it for prohibition propaganda, thus thwarting Satan.

Leaving your money to the biggest family is dull. The mouse would beat any human being, the hand would beat a mouse, and the fanatic oyster, with her millions of young oysters each year would make the shark look like birth control.

Leaving money to poor parents who raise the best-ware of their children is better than a good deal. The money left to poor parents who raise the best-ware of their children is better than a good deal.

Our Practical Pattern No. 1115

Dressed for the Party The soft little cape collar, the dainty ribbon bows and the practical matching bloomers make this dress for the little tot. It's a dress the little girl will love to wear. It would be delightfully dainty, made of all white, with small all-over dots, with the bow at neck and pockets of satin ribbon.
