FRIDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1928

You Are Invited.

You are invited to the celebration on November 2nd. This is an invitation to every one who is interested in the Tyson Reunion and D. A. R. celebration on November 2nd, whether you are a descendant or not. Only a few invitations were mailed so take this as your invitation. This is a community affair. Come and bring basket and let's show our visitors what real hospitality is.

Thanksgiving Turkeys Are Much Surprised

The turkeys of this community are very much surprised not to say shocked to find themselves already cooped and being stuffed this early in the season. They are gobbling their protest and are much disturbed over this premature Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 4, when they will be served by the Episcopal Auxiliary.

Near Serious Accident

A serious accident was miraculously avoided on Wednesday afternoon when little E. C. Barbee was knocked down on Main street by a car on her way from school. The car passed over her body without it being touched by the wheels. Her twin brother joined her in frightened yells but aside from the scare and a few bruises she was picked up little the worse for the experience.

Basket Picnic For The Tyson Reunion

On November 3 Farmville will be hostess to a great number of guests. There will be a basket picnic dinner served. It is our privilege to maintain this community's reputation for warm hearted hospitality and generous welcome. As chairman of the hostess committee for this occasion, I graciously urge every citizen to exert themselves in the act of lavish entertainment. Everybody prepare a basket.

Progressive Bridge Club Meets

Mrs. E. C. Beaman delightfully entertained the Progressive Bridge club at the home of Mrs. A. S. Bynum, on Thursday afternoon. Bowls and baskets of French meringues were used as decorations. After several progressions, deviled crabs, potato salad, rosettes, hot rolls and coffee were served.

Col. McAllister Chapter D. A. R. Meets

The regular monthly meeting of the Col. Alexander McAllister chapter of the D. A. R. was held at the home of Mrs. J. I. Morgan on Saturday afternoon. The beautiful home was made even more lovely by the artistic arrangement of dahlias and chrysanthemums. Mrs. W. B. Murphy, of Snow Hill, regent of the chapter, presided, and during the business session offered two prizes, one to be given to the member planning the largest number of trees by Armistice Day, and the other offered for inscriptions on tombstones of Revolutionary soldiers in this community.

Mrs. B. H. Mosley, of Greenville, was elected secretary at this time. A selection on the life of Mrs. Benjamin Harrison, the first president of the D. A. R., was read by Mrs. W. C. Adams and Mrs. Chas. O'H. Laughlin. Reports of the battlefields of France by the General Government.

Mrs. J. Robinson, of Ayden, told of an interesting incident that happened to her near Smiths during the Revolutionary war.

"Beau Geste" Here Next Week

The screen version of one of the most popular romantic action novels in recent years, "Beau Geste," will make its first appearance on Thursday and Friday, November 3 and 4 at The Trio Theatre.

mystery and adventure in the French Foreign Legion with the theme of the devotion of three brothers powerfully depicted, has been transferred to the screen by Paramount on a scale never surpassed by any previous production.

For the filming of this novel, Director Herbert Brenon led an army of 2000 men into the Great American Desert for three months during which the exterior scenes were made. The camp was built in a sand basin 90 miles from any habitation and the entire company worked straight through without a day's rest, from 5:30 each morning till sunset.

Brenon took his company to Burlingame, California, a 900 mile trip, for a few cranks of the camera.

No obstacle was permitted to stand in the way of making it as fine as possible. The director was given the selection of any player in motion pictures. Months were spent in preparation, and more months to filming. Hundreds of the West's finest riders were brought together as were 1600 of the world's fastest horses and 50 camels.

The smallest part in the picture was filled with the same care that was given to casting the featured roles.

Ronald Colman plays the title part, that of the eldest of the three brothers who each leave home without telling the others, to enlist in the French Foreign Legion under assumed names in order to shield each other from the blame for the theft of a famous sapphire. Neil Hamilton and Ralph Forbes enact the other brothers.

The brave defense by 40 mountaineers of a lonely fort in the Sahara when it is attacked by countless hordes of mounted desert warriors, Tonaregs, brings the story to its climax. It also causes Noah Beery, as the brutal adjutant, "the cruellest heart and bravest soldier" in the Legion, to reach the pinnacle of his notable career.

Other prominent players in "Beau Geste" include Alice Joyce, Mary Brian, William Powell, Norman Trevor and Victor McLaglan.
