ENDEAVORS NOW HOLD ANNIVERSARY

The world-wide Christian Endeavor movement of young people is observing for eight days of this week the 47th anniversary of the founding of the first young people's society. The Christian Endeavor organization, which has spread to 100 countries and has an active membership of 4,000,000, began with one society of 25 members, organized under the leadership of Rev. Francis E. Clark, D. D., in Portland Maine. Dr. Clark continued to head the growing organization for nearly half a century. Shortly before Dr. Clark's death and at the founder's urgent request, Rev. Daniel A. Poling, D. D., of New York City, became president of the world-wide movement in which for years he had been prominent.

Thousands of churches of numerous Christian denominations observed last Sunday as denominational day, with Christian Endeavor, in charge of programs that will emphasize loyalty to church and denominations. In the week following, meetings of interdenominational Christian Endeavor unions in the cities and counties of the United States and Canada have been held, with addresses by the young people and by former Christian Endeavor members. It is estimated that 20,000,000 members of Christian churches have been at some time enrolled in a Christian Endeavor society. In many cities former members still retain a connection with the movement through alumni fellowships.

On the closing day of Christian Endeavor week, Sunday, February 5, numerous churches held a special evening service, in which the Christian Endeavor society affiliated with the church presented a program based on the present "Crusade with Christ," a newly inaugurated youth movement. The crusade is designed to aid the causes of youth evangelism, world peace, and Christian citizenship. Young people delivered declamations on these topics in the services of February 5, and winners of such declamation contests will be eligible for state and national oratorical contests. The general purpose of the observance was to focus attention on the world-wide service program of the Christian Endeavor societies, which also have important objectives for loyalty and assistance in the programs of their individual churches.

MRS. MCKEE LAID TO REST IN FARMVILLE

Mrs. Thomas R. McKee died at her home here Saturday morning at the age of 44 years. Her death followed an illness of three years duration. Before her marriage Mrs. McKee was Miss Donie Abrams of Greenville. Especially devoted to her home and children she will be greatly missed by her husband and the following children who survive her: three daughters, Louise, Mavis and Pennie Moore, and three sons, Thomas Jr., and twins James Morris and David Morrill. She is also survived by three sisters: Mrs. J. F. Smith, of Bethel, Mrs. W. T. Phelps of Greenville, and Mrs. T. A. Koch of Baltimore.

The funeral was conducted from the Disciples church by Rev. E. S. Tandy on Sunday afternoon and interment was made here.

E. C. T. C. ALUMNAE MEETS

A delightful social meeting of the E. C. T. C. Alumnae was held on Monday evening with Mrs. W. D. Bryan as hostess. Conversations and conversation were enjoyed and a rumbustious salad contest served at the close of the meeting. Mesdames G. M. Holden and S. A. Roubek were given a cordial welcome as new members by the president, Miss Rae Paul.

MRS. MORRIS HOSTESS

Mrs. Leth Morris was hostess to the Tuesday Afternoon Card Club this week. The living room was made most attractive with Valentine decorations.

After the game Miss Lida Tyson was presented with an exquisite handkerchief as winner of high score. Mrs. Morris served lemon fruit salad with Russian dressing followed by black coffee and cheese straws.

Mesdames J. Y. Monk, Sterling Gales, George Gales and Miss Ethel Pittman shared with the club members the pleasures of the afternoon.

PROGRESSIVE BRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. J. C. Spencer was hostess to the Progressive Bridge Club on Friday evening. Flowers and shaded lights made the living room most attractive. A number of progressive games were played and the evening was a most enjoyable one.

U. D. C. MEETING

The Rebecca Windbourne chapter of the U. D. C. met with Mrs. J. M. Holden on Friday afternoon. An artistic arrangement of Confederate flags, ivy, red roses and winter berries made the living room most attractive. Quite a good representation was present which enabled the president, Miss Annie Perkins, to dispose of several business matters of importance. Mrs. J. W. Parker gave a vivid description of Johnson's Island, a poem, "The Prisoners Lament" was given by Mrs. J. S. Hooker and a selection, "Escaped From Prison" read by Mrs. J. H. Darden. Mrs. Darden had a collection of old notes and papers signed in the days of the Confederacy which was most interesting. A contest prepared by the president on state cut outs proved both interesting and educational. Refreshments consisted of toasted sandwiches and coffee.

The average sweet young thing of Farmville is satisfied that every good looking young stranger has his eye on her. Nine times out of ten she is right.

FARMVILLE SCHOOL NOTES

 John Tyler was selling onions when suddenly he had a thought which would read so, so, "all the perfumes of Arabia, could not sweeten these little hands."

Howard Taylor: I have an idea. Jack Barrett: Impossible.

Roy K.: What is Blarney Castle? Mack C.: A certain girl in Ireland and everybody likes to kiss her.

Sophomore: What do you call a man who drives a car? Freshman: It depends on how close he runs to me.

John Jr. says he wouldn't mind riding over to Greenville any time. He has a space reserved on Five Points.

Zip: Do you love me? Zam: More than life. Zip: Will you do anything for me? Zam: Anything.

Zip: Well, you wait here and tell father that I've gone out with Bill. You see Father doesn't approve of Bill.

IS There A Musician in Your Home?

Among your children, sleeping in a tiny brain, may be the makings of another Paderewski, or a Spaulding, or a Martinelli. What method are you using to awaken and to develop that sleeping talent, that will prove a source of pride to you and your community and a source of livelihood when he or she reaches maturity?

There is Not One Chance in a Hundred

To discover this musical ability in your child unless he is reared in a home that is musical. The child must come constantly in contact with music. From this association will come a love for music and a desire to excel in some particular branch, as, piano, violin, voice or as orchestra leader. Our great musicians grew up in an atmosphere of music.

The Only Remedy is Radio

A radio in your home may save you hundreds of dollars. Over the radio we hear all kinds of music. This will provide a stimulus for the musical instinct in your boy or girl and help them to reach a decision. You will be more happy too. Radio is not a selfish gift but something that you and your whole family will enjoy.

Do Not Wait Another Day

Call us today and let us install one of the new Radios. We carry the R. C. A. and Atwater Kent line of radios and accessories.
