CELEBRATE BIRTHDAY

The Merry Matrons Club was most delightfully entertained on Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. J. M. Hobgood in celebration of its ninth birthday.

"Local Color in Recent Verse? was the subject of study for the afternoon with a paper by Mrs. R. A. Fields de picting the local color found in the lowlands, that of the mountains by Mrs. G. M. Holden, and that of the Virginia woods and rivers in a paper prepared by Mrs. W. Leslie Smith and read by Mrs. M. V. Jones. Mrs. J. W. Parker gave a history of the Club which was followed by delightful piano selections by Mrs. J. W. Joyner. A dance by Misses Frances Joyner and Penny Keel Lang, costumed as the Knave and Queen of Hearts, added variety to the program.

After refreshments consisting of creamed chicken, tomato salad, cheese straws, butered biscuit and coffee the gues's were invited into the dining room where the birthday cake gleaned in the candle light. In a centest Mrs. M. V. Jones succeeded in extinguishing more candles than did Mrs. G. M. Holden thus making the latter president for 1928. Delicious fruit by Mrs. W. J. Rasberry to the mempunch was served together with the bers of her Sunday School class on cake by Misses Joyner and Lang. Tuesday afternoon from 4-6. There were thirty-two guests present.
