NATURE'S MIRACLE

I paid a dime for a package of seeds. And the clerk teased them out with a flip. "We've got 'em assorted for every man's needs" He said, with a smile on his lip. "Peanuts and poppies and asters and peas! Ten cents a package! And just as you please!" Now seeds are just dimes to the man in the store. And the dimes are things that he needs! And I've been to buy them in seasons before. But have thought of them merely as seeds! But it flashed through my mind as I took them this time. "You've purchased a miracle here for a dime!" You've a dime's worth of power which no man can create. You've a dime's worth of life in your hand! You've a dime's worth of mystery, destiny, fate, which the wisest cannot understand. In this bright little package, now isn't it odd? You've a dime's worth of something known only to God. —Edgar A. Gossett

THE GARDEN CLUB MEETS

The second meeting of the Garden Club was held at the home of Mrs. J. M. Holcomb on Wednesday afternoon. After calling the meeting to order, the president, Miss Tabitha DeVincent, reviewed the purpose and object of a Garden Club. A contest for beautifying the town will be sponsored by this group, which will include the improvement of grounds around homes, churches, filling stations and the planting of vacant lots. Special attention will be given to vacant lots by a committee with Mrs. R. A. Field as its head. Meetings of this club will be held on second and fourth Wednesdays during the spring months. The reading of a poem by Miss Annie Tyler, of Farmville, entitled, "Spring is Coming," by Mrs. E. S. Tandy, an article on annuals by Burbanck, read by Mrs. A. C. Hodges; and Edgar Gossett's "Nature's Miracle," read by Mrs. Holcomb made up an interesting program. A roundtable discussion of spring planting proved most helpful to members starting a garden.

CHORAL CLUB MEETS

The regular monthly meeting of the Choral Club, of the Music Department of the Woman's Club, was held at the home of the president, Mrs. J. W. Joyner on Tuesday evening. Mrs. Nages and Miss Vivian Case, who were in charge of the program on Schubert, read papers on his life, and interesting recitals of his career were read by the other members present. Two piano numbers by Miss Frances Pitt added much to the program. Exercises from the Federation Musical Bulletin were given by the president. During a business session the club decided to ask Mrs. Carr Cox Lucas, of Greensboro, for a concert in the fall in addition to being a singer of solo. Mrs. Jones is president of the South Atlantic division of music clubs. A division of this department was also formed upon with the meeting of the Music Department in the afternoon and the choral group meeting in the evening.

MONTHLY MEETING

Mrs. and Mrs. Lark Morris were hosts of a dinner party at their residence in the Hotel Apartments, Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Dora McCallum, of San Antonio, Tex., The table was spread with a lovely dinner and complimented with a bowl of exquisite apple blossoms.

ART DEPARTMENT TO MEET

The Literary and Art Department of the Woman's Club will meet Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock with Mrs. T. W. Lang.

HONOR MRS. FERREE

Miss Lucy Ann Flanagan entertained very charmingly at a bridge party at her home on Belcher street, Tuesday evening, in honor of Mrs. R. S. Ferree, of Ashboro, who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Bert Taylor. Lovely flowers suggestive of the early spring season were tastefully arranged in the living room where tables were placed for the game. Mrs. C. T. Dixon won top score prize, a deck of cards. The honor guest received cards also, and Mrs. Gene Hines, a recent bride, was remembered with an exquisite handkerchief. A chicken salad course was served.

DINNER PARTY

Mrs. Dora Keel and Mrs. Madeline Bountree entertained at dinner Tuesday evening at 6:30 in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Bert McCullom of San Antonio, Tex. The centerpiece was a bowl of exquisite apple blossoms. Covers were laid for eight and a course dinner was served. Other guests besides Mr. and Mrs. McCullom were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Askew and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Joyner.

MRS. HORTON HOSTESS

The Merry Matrons Club was delightfully entertained by Mrs. J. Loyd Horton on Tuesday afternoon. The home was lovely with its arrangement of daffodils, pussy willow and Japanese quince. In a short business session Mrs. M. V. Jones was elected president and Mrs. H. W. Turnage vice-president. The program on "Recent Southern Verse" followed with an interesting paper on two poets of Kentucky, Elizabeth Mattox Roberts and Caley Young Rice, by Mrs. Horton, who also read selections from their verses. During a social period, ham, stuffed tomatoes, pickles, cheese straws, hot rolls and coffee were served. Among the special guests of the hostess was Mrs. Bert McCullom, of San Antonio, Tex., who was formerly Miss Guilla Askew of this place.

JEALOUS HUSBAND SUED FOR SUPPORT

Wife Says She Was Put Out For Receiving Love Letter From Former Sweetheart. Charlotte, February 29.—Mrs. Ruth Jackson, of this city, in a suit filed in Mecklenburg Superior Court today, demanding support for her self and child from her husband, complained in her suit that her husband cast her in to the street, with babe in arms and only $2.00 in her purse, because he found a love letter to her from an old school mate. The old school mate had called upon her, a purely perfunctory visit, three days before, a visit that lasted only 30 minutes, and she said she was greatly surprised on last Saturday to receive a letter from the young man. The couple have been separated twice before, she said, but later adjusted their differences.

ASHEVILLE COUPLE ARE MARRIED SECOND TIME

Asheville, February 29.—Mrs. Charles M. Brown, widow of a prominent Asheville and Florida real estate man, and her first husband, William C. Walde, have been married the second time. It was announced here today. The wedding took place in New York, December 24. Mr. and Mrs. Walde, childhood sweethearts, were married the first time in New York in 1901. They were divorced in 1918. The following year she married Charles M. Brown who died last October. The reunited couple will make their home in Asheville.

IT'S HARD TO SEE HOW EVEN A GROUND-BIRD WOULD PREDICT THE KIND OF WEATHER WE'RE HAVING

Most people who talk about a weather place being in the home really mean it is in the kitchen.

On the opening day of Congress 1,100 bills were introduced, and this will give them something to talk a lot for a while.

MISS DALE ENTERTAINS

On Sunday, February 25, Miss Emma Dale delightfully entertained in honor of her mother's seventy-sixth birthday. The guest included Mrs. Dale's son, Mr. B. T. Dale, wife, son and wife's mother, Mrs. Moore of the Lizzie section, her four sisters, Mrs. Mary V. Case, of Farmville, Mrs. P. L. Carr and Mrs. Emma F. Jones of the Lizzie section, Mrs. J. A. Exum and husband of Snow Hill, Miss Vivian Case and Mr. and Mrs. J. Herbert Smith of Farmville. The birthday dinner was quite a surprise to Mrs. Dale who naturally thought she was having quite a bit of unexpected company. She entertained her guest in the living room while the sumptuous repart was being spread. At 1 o'clock they were ushered into the dining room. Mr. J. A. Exum gave thanks after which all partook of one of the most tempting spreads imaginable. The afternoon was spent in conversation of "Ye Olden Times" and music by Mrs. J. Herbert Smith, Mrs. B. T. Dale, and several solos by Miss Vivian Case. At four the guest began to depart. All gave evidence of having spent a very enjoyable day and wishing Mrs. Dale many more happy birthdays. The only thing to mar the pleasure of the occasion was the absence of one daughter, Miss Alice Dale of Goldsboro, who by reason of unavoidable circumstances was unable to be present.

DOODSVILLE BRIEFS

Farm work progressing slowly but mostly satisfactory. Tobacco plants showing up very well that is if they are not weeds "you know they do like that some times" I can see three new tobacco barns going up, and hear of others, so you see we are going to do like every body else I hear of going to make all we can and see if we can't flood the market one more time, but if we don't maybe Georgia or Southern states will.

Mrs. Bettie Moore of Farmville and Mrs. Annie Whitehurst of Greenville have been at the bedside of their brother, Cornelius Joyner who is very sick at their brother Calvin Joyner's, we extend our sympathy to him and hope he may soon recover. Mrs. Pattie E. Joyner of Greenville spent several days in our midst of late. Miss Mary Joyce of Farmville and Mrs. Marjorie Tyson of Greenville gave us a talk also. We have had several cases of Measles and colds among our kiddies but are better. Miss Mary M. Fulford of Raleigh accompanied by one of her girl friends and Mr. C. Madril went Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Henrietta Fulford.

HOPE ABANDONED FOR MISSING NAVY AVIATORS

(Continued from page one) controls when his plane took off. Another pilot reported today was the finding of a big oil spot on the surface of the water in Manjock Bay, several fms was sent to the scene by Rear Admiral R. E. Coontz, Commandant of the Fifth Naval District, who is personally supervising the search for the missing fliers. It was said, however, that the spot was floating with the tide and could have been carried to where it was found from most any place in the bay, since the plane is supposed to have gone down.

SPRING MAY HAIT MEASLES SPREAD

(Continued from page one) Measles thrives best in the winter. Last year, when there was a measles epidemic of smaller proportions, the disease dropped heavily in April and May, but by the end of November it had come back again. The total of 52,882 cases of measles reported during 1927 was unusually high, being the greatest total since the epidemic of 1924 when there were over 24,000 cases reported. This year, however, both of these totals will be surpassed within another ten days, according to present indications.

DRYS MAY HOLD ON WET DEMOCRAT

(Continued from page one) are agreed that any amount of alcohol is an intoxicant, and any amount of alcohol affects the user. He thought it "ridiculous" for Senator Copeland to assert that the New York State police officers are doing more to enforce the Volstead Act than Federal prohibition officers. "We are also assured by Senator Copeland that Smith does not want the return of the outlawed saloon; he only wants 3-1-2 per cent beer. Smith and his supporters would get beer and win first, and then as they did in Quebec, Canada, after about five years of kindergarten work in the beer and win business, their little beer and wine joints would grow up into full-fledged saloons. "Senator Copeland knows whereof he speaks. According to the published reports of the Charlotte address, he correctly reports Al Smith as occupying the same stand on this matter and advocating the same modifications and amendments and changes that the outlawed liquor interests want. "Smith is their candidate; he speaks their language; he supports their contentions; he would appoint their kind of cabinet officials, judges, district attorneys, prohibition administrators and agents."

NOTICE OF SUMMONS AND WARRANT OF ATTACHMENT

North Carolina Pitt County Mrs. C. R. Townsend vs. J. C. Holderby, Murrell Holderby and wife, Lillie Holderby. The defendants above named and each of them, will take notice that an action entitled as above has been commenced by the plaintiff against them in the Superior Court of Pitt County for the purpose of obtaining judgment against them for alienation of the affections of plaintiff's husband from her. Just Tottling, So Weak

"I was in a bad state of health and was going through a critical time of my life," says Mrs. Ella Scarborough, R. F. D. 5, Dothan, Ala. "Several different things were recommended to me, but I did not get any real relief until I began to take Cardui. "It was just as weak as could be. My legs were shaky, and often I would just totter around the house. I finally got so bad that I was in bed several weeks. "It was then that I began to take Cardui. I kept it up for quite a while, and at last I regained my health. Cardui was certainly a friend to me in these of need. "My health is splendid now, and I seldom have to use medicine, but I gladly say a word about Cardui whenever I find a friend going through the same suffering which I endured. For sale by all druggists.

TAKE CARDUI A PURELY VEGETABLE TONIC

The drooping, weeping willow tree bows over the grave of James McFee. He went to Chicago on a bus. Now, I ask you confidentially, is this just? After seeing how some of them look it is easy to understand why children don't believe in Santa Claus. "Well, I've had to tell Muriel, haven't I?" "We'd you think it'd be difficult to keep your engagement to Muriel a secret?"
