Success And The Modern Girl.

Painted lips, short skirts, bobbed hair, jazz and flaming youth, Is his a true definition of the modern girl? They may appear this to mere onlookers, but there is a purpose and an aim behind this.

There are theusands of girls who stay at home five nights a week doing Geometry, French and Classic subjects, and then on Saturday or Sunday have no boy friend to take them out. There are also girls of another group with which the public comes in contact. Today is not a hundred years ago; girls have the choice of their own profession. They are told by their parents to choose that life work in which along will be most successful. With this before us, we have to be more independent than our grandmothers were at our age. The modernagiel realizes her rest and is preparing herself to fulfill it. This is not the extreme flapper or gold-digger, but the average modern girl. There are girls who drink, smoke and curse, but these are not average modern girls. No doubt, if we asked modern girls their aim in nn life, we'd get answers like the following: "My sole aim is to be a devoted wife, to become a teacher, a secretary, a musician, or to have a home." Many writers of the world say the modern youth is not intelligent, but only flippant. All the world is wondering "what will become of the modern girl ?" The modern girl wishes you would not worry and gives you assurance that we will not destroy the future world.

When one out of probably a hundred goes wrong, we'd like to ask, "Why drag them down, why not en-
