PARENT-TEACHER MEETING

Dr. J. W. Harrell was the principal speaker at the October Parent-Teacher meeting held this week, taking as his theme the importance of making worth while citizens of the Youth of today, and his subject, "Our Task." There were 150 members and visitors present.

Mrs. T. E. Joyner presided over a business period in which resolutions of respect to a loyal member, Mrs. Annie Phillips Lang, were read and adopted. This session followed a series of living pictures, illustrating the "Important Events in a Girl's Life," presented by pupils of the 11th grade, Mrs. Leroy Rollins teacher. A group of songs was sung by Miss Margaret Whittington of Snow Hill, coloratura singer, with piano accompaniment by Mrs. Hayward Smith. The First grade, Miss Annie Perkins teacher, received the attendance prize for the month.

ROTARY CLUB SEEKS RELIEF ASSOCIATION FOR FARMVILLE

In line with its watchword of "Service," and seeing the need of organized relief work in this community, the Rotary Club's program at its meeting this week dealt entirely with the present situation of unemployment and dire need which will be felt here this winter. A number of representative citizens were special guests of the club at this time.

D. E. Oglesby, president, welcomed the visitors, and turned the program over to R. A. Joyner, who introduced the speakers for the evening. Rev. S. B. Denny, of Wilson, ex-chairman of the Wilson Relief Association, and his secretary, Mrs. Jennette Granger. These experienced and efficient workers in the field of relief discussed the formation of the Wilson Association, its endeavors and accomplishments, and offered their aid in organizing Farmville along the same line.

J. W. Holmes and John T. Thorne, the latter chairman of the social service committee, spoke at length on the conditions to be expected here this winter, and the club voted to call a mass meeting of the citizens of the town, and appointed a committee to set a date and advertise the meeting, for the purpose of organizing a relief association.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT ADOPTED AT PARENT-TEACHER MEETING FRIDAY

Whereas, Almighty God called into His presence on September 12, 1930, one of our most beloved members, Mrs. Annie Lang, we, the Parent-Teacher Association of the Farmville School, while we see God's hand in all things and bow in submission to His will, wish to offer a tribute of love and respect to her memory; therefore be it resolved:

First: That we are thankful to our Heavenly Father for her life of service, for the sympathy and counsel which she so willingly gave to all bereaved or perplexed hearts, for her presence at all meetings of this organization and of her unwavering interest in all its activities.

Second: That we hereby record our appreciation of her, not only as a servant of the community, but as an upright citizen, a loyal friend and neighbor, a loving Mother.

Third: That we extend our sympathy to the bereaved loved ones and commend them to the God of all grace, who "bindeth up the broken-hearted."

Fourth: That a page in the minute book of the Association be inscribed to her memory, in which these resolutions will be recorded, and that a copy be furnished to the family and a copy to the Farmville Enterprise for publication.

"And you shall shortly know" that lengthened breath Is not the greatest gift God sends His friend, And that, sometimes, the subtle pall of death Comes to the fairest boon His love can send. If we could push ajar the gates of life, And - and within, and all God's working see, We could interpret all this doubt and strife, And for each mystery find there a key."

GYPSIES OVERRUN STALD OLD SHELBY

County Recorder Cheerfully Permits Them To Try Their Own Cases.

Shelby, Oct. 29.—The glamor that is Romany came today to Shelby, staid old town the state's governor calls home, because, it was charged, a Gypsy princess had been kidnapped.

Hundreds of Gypsies, their automobiles bearing licenses of many states, thronged the quiet streets yesterday and today.

This afternoon a Gypsy court, to whom County Recorder Horace Kennedy declared authority to hear manifold charges that grew out of the reported elopement of Princess "Baby" Mitchell, 14, with Wanda Everett, of another faction, convened in Woodland near Shelby.

The story of the difficulties newspapermen managed to piece together was a complicated and confused one.

Two factions of the Upper Romany tribe, the Mitchells and the Everetts, apparently are involved. Ruling over both is John King Mitchell, resident of Charlotte, and father of the princess, who bears the title of "Register and Recorder."

Sons of Mitchell operated a booth at the Cleveland county fair last week. Their sister was with them.

Friday night the dusky beauty of fourteen years fled with Everett, though the man was already married.

The Mitchells swore out a warrant charging Everett with "hold up, assault and kidnapping." The sum of $500, they said, had been taken from them by the elopers.

Everett, taken in Kings Mountain, promptly countered with a warrant charging George Mitchell with an attack upon Everett's wife.

The woman issued a denial and Mitchell was released. Everett took out still another warrant charging the Mitchells with theft of $500 in gold and diamonds from him.

Members of the two factions, informed of the difficulty, began pouring into Shelby. Other charges were brought. Local police grew weary of making arrests. Recorder Kennedy despaired of rendering justice. The jail was full; a score of others had made bond.

It was with relief, therefore, that he accepted "King" Mitchell's offer to decide the many charges in Gypsy tribunal.

So this afternoon the Gypsy hosts repaired to their encampments there to settle the difficulties in their own way.

County Recorder Cheerfully Permits Them To Try Their Own Cases.

The Court of Honor of the Farmville Troop of Boy Scouts held in the City Hall on Monday evening, at which Field Secretary Stuckey, of Wilson, was present, members were given special honors as follows: Ernest Barrett was awarded the Life badge, having earned 12 merit badges; Carl Beaman, Eli Joyner, and Cecil Thorne were promoted to first class scouts; three merit badges were awarded David Oglesby, Jr., and one presented to Charles Rountree.

The Court of Honor is composed of Herbert Stuckey, D. E. Oglesby, B. S. Smith, and Rev. Ford A. Burns, who is local Scout Master. Much interest is being manifested by the scout master, and by Leslie Smith, chairman of the Troop committee, and the organization is growing rapidly here and progressing along all lines. In an endeavor to promote scouting these leaders have held meetings in Fountain recently with the purpose in view of organizing a troop. Other members of the committee include B. S. Smith and W. A. McAdams.

D. E. Oglesby, chairman of the finance committee is completing plans to raise from this community the necessary quota to carry on scouting here.

SAMPSON COUNTY MAN KILLED ON WAY TO FARMVILLE

A telephone message to relatives here Thursday morning advised them of the death of Graham Weeks of Sampson County, whose home is near Clinton. Mr. Weeks, an employee of Monk's Warehouse here, was returning from his home, sometime during Wednesday night, when he ran into a truck parked on the highway near Goldsboro, and died soon after being carried to a hospital in that city, of injuries sustained in the wreck.

TO BEGIN SERIES OF MEETINGS

A revival meeting, to be conducted by Rev. J. L. Hodges, pastor of the Tabernacle Baptist church, New Bern, is to begin in the local Baptist church Sunday evening, November 2nd. Rev. Hodges, who is recognized as one of the most powerful speakers in this part of the State has conducted many successful meetings in North Carolina and other States and will no doubt be received with enthusiasm here.

Dr. S. H. Wainwright, who for forty years has been a professor in Japanese colleges, has been awarded the Order of the Rising Sun.

BURSTING HEADACHES
Dizzy Spells

Miss Cora Moehler, of 601 North New Orleans Ave., Brinkley, Ark., writes: "I was so constipated until I was just sick. I could not stand to take strong medicine, so I decided I would take Black-Draught, and I found it to be all right. I would have such dizzy spells, and such bursting headaches, until I could hardly go. But after taking a few doses of Black-Draught, I would feel just fine. It is a good medicine, and I recommend it to all who suffer as I did. It is very easy to recommend a medicine that has done as much for me as Black-Draught has done."

"I have been in bad health for the past 15 years and for the past 8 years I haven't been able to do any of my house work. In fact, most of that time I was hardly able to stand on my feet.

MRS. THOMAS ESTES
"I gradually fell off in weight from 135 down to 62 pounds and was nothing but skin and bones. I had no appetite and the little food I did eat just had to be forced down; then I would suffer agony from it with gripping pains in the pit of my stomach, in my right side and in the small of my back. My heart would get so weak and would flutter so fast at times it would frighten me. I would have terrible smothering spells and would have to gasp for breath. My circulation was bad. I would feel chilly at times, and again great beads of sweat would stand out over my forehead, and I would get blind and dizzy too.

"Yes, I suffered from chronic constipation for years and also had a very bad, inactive liver. Often times I had bilious attacks which would make me deathly ill. During the past five years I don't believe I had a single night of good restful sleep. My nervous system was surely a wreck. I couldn't stand for strangers or even my neighbors to come into my house. Nothing in the way of medicine or treatments ever did me any good. In fact, my condition was so bad none of my neighbors thought I would ever get well.

"Finally I decided to try Sargon. I've taken 15 bottles of Sargon and about 7 bottles of the Pills. Well, it just acted like a miracle in my case. I actually gained 68 pounds in weight. As I said before, I only weighed 62 pounds when I started on it and now I weigh 125 pounds, and I feel just like a woman made all over again. I have regained all my strength and energy and am doing all my house work. I can hardly wait from one meal to another.

"The Sargon Pills have cured me of bilious attacks and constipation. They are so wonderful I now feel like I would like to tell the whole world about Sargon and the Pills. My friends and neighbors are all talking about my wonderful recovery and I will praise Sargon as long as I live. I believe it has saved my life."

The above remarkable statement was made recently by Mrs. Thomas Estes, 68 Georgia Ave., Atlanta, Ga. (adv) Wholesale Drug Co., Agents.

Your Patronage Will Be Greatly Appreciated

Thankful for Friendships!

TODAY, the greatest joy at Thanksgiving comes from the thought of friendships, fostered through the years.

Turkey and football, mince pies and gourd hunts—these are far from the original feast at which Pilgrims and Indians sat down together to envision peace and wild turkey and corn bread. But the spirit of Thanksgiving remains the same—homecomings and family dinners and visits are tributes to friendships.

We are glad today because of the friendship of so many of our neighbors, and because of the value of our service to them.

May you, too, have a joyous Thanksgiving.

SERVICE, SAFETY

Onward and Upward
by O. Lawrence Hawthorne

I wish more men somehow would learn
The value of a great ideal.
I wish that all of us could feel
The earnestness and faith that burn
Within the heart of him who holds
A worthy purpose for his guide.
For him the gates of joy stand wide
And genuine success unfolds.

To him there is but one demand
Upon his labor and his thought;
He counts that progress dearly bought
Which values most the gain at hand,
And so obscures all higher goals.
He knows that only as men climb
Toward things exalted and sublime
Will fortune richly bless their souls.
