MRS. MOLLIE HOLLOMAN LAIN TO REST IN FARMVILLE

Mrs. Mollie Holoman, widow of the late Stephen Holoman, highly esteemed and well known in this section of the county, was buried in Forest Hill cemetery here Monday afternoon at 3:30. Funeral services were conducted from the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. C. Moore of Fountain, by Rev. J. C. Moye, of the Snow Hill Free Will Baptist church, of which she had been a member since girlhood.

Mrs. Holoman, who was 62 years of age, and had been in ill health for several years, suffered a stroke of paralysis on Saturday, to which she succumbed late Sunday afternoon. She was a native of Greene county, the daughter of Rennie and Julia Shackelford. Married in 1884, she moved to this section and in the intervening years lived a life of devoted service to her large family. Noted for her kind heart, generosity, and ready sympathy, she found time to respond to calls outside her home and served her community for years in the capacity of adviser, friend and nurse.

Surviving her are five daughters: Mrs. J. E. Sink of Lexington, Mrs. G. E. Allen, Mrs. E. L. Russell, of Farmville, Mrs. W. C. Moore and Miss Nellie Holoman of Fountain; five sons; David, Fort, Davis, Panama, Ray, Greenville; Arthur, Saratoga; Albert and Jarvis Holoman, of Farmville; two sisters, Mrs. Jesse Shackelford, Saratoga, Mrs. R. M. C. Moore of Walstonburg, and a brother, W. I. Shackelford, of Walstonburg.

JOE E. JEFFERSON DIES AT AGE OF 49 YEARS

Joe E. Jefferson, 49 years of age, son of the late Robert and Caroline Jefferson, a well known and industrious farmer of the Fountain section, died at his home near the suburbs of that place on Sunday afternoon at 6:30 following an attack of pneumonia.

Elder Amos Crisp of Pinetops, Primitive Baptist preacher, had charge of the last rites, which were held at 1:30 Monday afternoon at the home, interment being made in the Fountain cemetery.

Surviving are his wife, who was formerly Miss Bessie Bell, a sister of L. R. Bell, local tobacco warehouseman, and nine children, three sisters; Mrs. Lizzie Lewis and Mrs. Rebecca Wooten, of Macleodfield, and Mrs. K. T. Thigpen of Fountain, and four brothers; Lum, Lee, Henry and Wright Jefferson, all of the Fountain section.

BISHOP DARST PREACHES IN FARMVILLE

Taking as his text and theme the words of Jesus, spoken to His disciples, as they, on one occasion, insisted that He eat, "I have meat to eat that ye know not of," John 4:32, St. Rev. Thos. C. Darst, Bishop of the Diocese of East Carolina, brought a message of high hope, which depends not on temporal things, to the large congregation which heard him on his annual visit here last Sunday.

The Bishop in his labors of a national scope, travels extensively and few people are able to get a more comprehensive view of the world with present conditions in this country than he, and he speaks with full knowledge and authority.

At a parish dinner, held earlier in the evening, and of which nearly sixty people were present, Bishop Darst outlined a program designed by him to fit the needs of this hour of stress and uncertainty, and destined to revive that confidence and "Faith of our fathers, living still."

The ancient and holy rite of Confirmation was administered to eight persons. Dr. Frank Dean, of Wilmington, pastor-in-charge, conducted the service of evening prayer and presented the class for confirmation.

More sweet potatoes, more pumpkin melons and more trimly patches in Clay County this fall than ever before is the way County Agent E. D. Bowditch reports one feature of success in the local live-at-home campaign.

Using the extension service furnished for tobacco facilities, O. F. Hillman of Council, Bladen County, produced 1,200 pounds of leaf in one acre and sold it for $212.12. He used the best of the crop of 900 pounds in the fall and there he will use the same

BAPTIST MEETING CLOSURE

The series of meetings being held in the Missionary Baptist church here during the past two weeks, came to a close on Sunday night, having been very successful, view both from the angle of attendance and in the interest manifested by members of the various churches, and by the community at large.

Rev. J. L. Hodges, pastor of the Tabernacle Baptist church, New Bern, brought Gospel messages twice each day, of courage and confidence to Christians, and of conviction and repentance to the sinner. Rev. Ford A. Burns, local pastor, conducted the revival services.

The Alleghany County Mutual Farmers Exchange has recently purchased 2,000 bags of cottonseed meal for its members to feed cattle this winter and plans to purchase another 1,000 bags shortly.

One hundred 4-H club members of Caldwell County have planted 2,500 black walnut trees so far this winter.
