SMITH ANNOUNCES FOR MAYOR STATES ISSUES OF CAMPAIGN

Elsewhere in this paper I have announced my Candidacy for Mayor. I do so supporting a platform of rigid economy and strict law enforcement, two things fundamentally necessary to the future progress of our town. The community finds itself in the most depressed condition in two generations, and every indication is, that recovery will be very slow, and can be hastened only by an administration which will eliminate all waste and extravagance and which will adopt sounder economic principles. There may be those who contend that the town is in good financial condition but no town in better shape than the people who make up its citizenship. Relief from high taxes in State, county and town can come only by a cut in expenditures.

I favor a clean administration, I condemn every phase of corruption, and believe in an interpretation of the law in spirit as well as to the letter.

When the books are opened for registration every eligible voter should register and should vote; the right to vote is not a privilege but a duty and should be considered as such.

Your vote and your support in the forthcoming primary will be very much appreciated.

LAST RITES FOR REDMOND FORBES HELD SUNDAY, P.M.

Funeral services for Redmond Forbes, familiarly known as "Red", colored citizen, age 65 years, were conducted from the Free Will Baptist church Sunday afternoon by Rev. Horton, pastor, and burial took place in a cemetery near Marlboro.

Red was highly respected and esteemed for his faithful nature, sunny disposition, and honesty, by black and white alike. He served in the T. L. Turnage family for 25 years before entering the service of J. W. Parker, where he remained until ill health, caused by heart trouble forced him to retire several months ago, having served the latter family most faithfully for 17 years.

GARDEN CLUB

The Garden Club held an interesting and helpful meeting on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. M. Wheelless, Miss Tabitha DeVisconti presiding. Plans for the celebration of Arbor Day, the local mosquito campaign, and Clean-Up Week were discussed. Upon motion the club decided to order walnuts from the Mt. Vernon estate for planting by the members.

An article from the North Carolina Bulletin, "Every Club Will Observe 200th Anniversary of George Washington By Planting Trees," by Mrs. John D. Roberson, chairman of Conservation, was read by Miss DeVisconti, and a election, "Garden Reminders for the South," was read from a garden magazine by Mrs. T. E. Joyner.

"After I was married, I found myself in a weak run-down condition. I suffered a great deal with my back, which was so weak it hurt me to get up or when I would stand on my feet. I fell off in weight."

"A friend of mine, seeing how bad I felt, advised me to take Gardul, which I did. By the time I had taken two bottles, I felt stronger and better than I had in a long time."
