LITERARY CLUB

The Literary Club held its last meeting before adjourning for the summer at the home of Mrs. J. L. Shackelford, on Thursday afternoon at 3:30, with Mrs. J. W. Joyner, first vice president, presiding.

Current events were read in response to roll call and an excellent paper on Art was read by Mrs. Madeline Rountree. Miss Serene Turnage played a brilliant piano selection and vocal numbers were rendered by Master Edward Harris.

After the program the guests were invited into the garden for tea. Prizes, in a contest carrying the suggestion of the folklore program recently completed by this group, with a place on the names of the members, were won by Mrs. J. I. Morgan and Mrs. J. H. Darden.

Special guests of the hostess were Miss Fanny Gary, Miss Serene Turnage, Mrs. Frank Capps, of Raleigh; Mrs. I. E. Satterfield, Mrs. W. H. Nance, Mrs. Plato Monk, Mrs. J. B. Newton, Mrs. J. M. Wheless, Mrs. J. T. Thorne, Mrs. Bert Taylor, Mrs. D. R. Morgan and Mrs. B. O. Turnage.

MERRY MATRONS

The Merry Matrons held a delightful meeting on Tuesday afternoon of this week at the home of Mrs. A. C. Monk, with Mrs. J. M. Hobgood presiding.

Two splendid papers, the first on "William Alexander Graham," written by Mrs. B. S. Smith, and the second, "North Carolina's Oldest Town, Bath, and the Next, New Bern," by Mrs. W. Leslie Smith, together with two piano selections by Mrs. Haywood Smith, made up an excellent program.

Larkspur, roses and snapdragons were in artistic arrangement. A delectable salad course was served during a pleasant social hour. In addition to the club members, Mrs. Monk had as guests Miss Agnes Moore, Mrs. Haywood Smith, Mrs. Plato Monk, Mrs. A. W. Bobbitt and Mrs. J. L. Shackelford.

U. D. C.

Bringing to a close their activities for the summer months was a meeting of the members of the Rebecca Winbourne chapter, U. D. C., held on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. B. Walters.

The impressive ritual of the organization was led by the president, Mrs. J. W. Parker. Communications from the division's president, and chairman of Jefferson Davis Memorials, were read, and Mrs. G. M. Holden and her committee were commended for the Memorial Day program. This group has marked 16 graves of Confederate soldiers in the community. The president and historian were requested to complete blanks relative to the soldiers' records preserved by the chapter, to be sent to the Confederate Museum at Richmond this summer. The chapter also voted to present flags of the Confederacy to the local high school in the fall.

Interesting and timely papers were read by Mrs. J. Y. Monk on "Jefferson Davis," whose birthday was celebrated this month, and by Mrs. R. H. Knott on "The First Flags of the Confederacy," in observance of Flag Day. Members were requested to display flags to June 14-July 4.

The Walter home on Belcher street was lovely with spring flowers and delightful refreshments were served after adjournment.
