To The Thousands of Visitors Expected To Attend "Golden Weed Jubilee"

To Honor Gov. J. C. B. Ehringhaus And Others

All Warehousemen And Representative Farmers To Join In Celebration

Program Starts With Address of Governor At 7:30 P. M. Friday

Everything Now Being Put Into Shape for Occasion of Honoring Our Governor and Others Instrumental in Securing High Prices For Golden Weed; Celebration is Being Sponsored by Tobacco Markets of The Eastern Carolina Bright Belt

Farmville is now busily engaged in making final preparations for a much anticipated event, not the entire history is, as the custom is here, in the promotion of any project attempted with real enthusiasm, but the spirit of enthusiasm and untiring determination in making the Golden Weed Jubilee, which will be held here by the fourteen tobacco markets of the Eastern Carolina Bright Leaf Belt today, Friday, Nov. 9th, the most enjoyable occasion of its history.

The affair is rightly named, for this is to be a jubilation in every sense of the word, Governor J. C. B. Ehringhaus and the committee of tobacco growers and warehousemen who accompanied him to the conference with agricultural administration officials in Washington, D. C., to be honored by thousands of people from all sections of the State, for their diligent and determinable fight for adequate tobacco prices for the present crop of tobacco.

State Being Complimented

Incidentally,

The State of North Carolina is being complimented in the selection of Governor Ehringhaus as the guest of honor, and the Governor is to be given the honor of delivering the principal address of the occasion, which will be broadcast over a state-wide radio hook-up, at 7:30 o'clock Friday evening. Governor Ehringhaus has been a consistent friend of the tobacco farmer, and has given unstintedly of his time and energy in behalf of the tobacco growers of the State, and has been largely responsible for the calling of the conference in Washington, which resulted in the present high prices for the golden weed.

Many Prominent Visitors

Many prominent visitors will be present and participate in the program, including Governor Ehringhaus, Governor Clyde R. Hoey, Governor Elect J. Melville Broughton, Governor Ehringhaus' staff, Commissioner of Agriculture W. A. Graham, Chairman Bruce Etheridge of the State Board of Agriculture, Chairman Frank Parker of the State Highway Commission, Chairman Ben Cameron of the State Prison Board, Chairman Frank Grist of the State Board of Conservation and Development, Chairman Frank Nash of the State Board of Education, Chairman Frank Page of the State Utilities Commission, Chairman Dan Gasque of the State Board of Charities and Public Welfare, Chairman Ben Lacy of the State Board of Elections, Chairman Ed Harrington of the State Board of Equalization, Chairman Ed Rankin of the State Board of Assessment, Chairman Ed Cannon of the State Board of Motor Vehicles, Chairman Ed Maready of the State Board of Paroles, Chairman Ed Scheidt of the State Board of Public Buildings and Grounds, Chairman Ed Hudson of the State Board of Public Welfare, Chairman Ed Cox of the State Board of Public Welfare, Chairman Ed Cox of the State Board of Public Welfare, Chairman Ed Cox
