MINISTRIAL ASSOCIATION TO MEET ON MONDAY

The Farmville Ministerial Association will meet Monday morning, January 8, at 10:00 o'clock in the study of Rev. H. L. Hendricks.

NOTE OF APPRECIATION

We wish to sincerely thank our friends for the many kind acts and expressions of sympathy tendered us during the recent illness and death of our beloved husband and brother, H. C. Cobb.

Mrs. H. C. Cobb, Mrs. S. H. Bundy, Mrs. W. L. Matthews, Bruce and Glenn Cobb.

MISS PATTERSON ENTERTAINS

Miss Cora Lee Patterson charmingly entertained a number of friends at her country home near town on Thursday evening. The living rooms, library and halls were artistically decorated in red berries and evergreens.

Upon arrival the guests were served punch by Mrs. M. C. Williamson and Miss Hazel Bass, candies and salted nuts being passed by the young brother of the hostess, George A. Patterson.

Games and dancing furnished amusement until a late hour when fruit gelatine, topped with cream, and cake were served. About thirty guests shared in the gracious hospitality of Miss Patterson.

LITERARY CLUB MEETS

In papers relative to Central Europe, Miss Annie Perkins and Miss Edna Robinson painted vivid word pictures and gave interesting points of the histories of Bavaria, Austria, Hungary, Czech-Slovakia and Jugoslavia on Wednesday afternoon, at the Literary Club meeting held at the home of Mrs. G. M. Holden with Mrs. P. E. Jones as hostess.

An amendment to the laws governing the passing of books was made during the business session; the results of the Tuberculosis Christmas seal sale was announced, with $20 turned in and individual contributions to the Sallie Southall Cotten Loan Fund were made at this time. A delicious sweet course was served after adjournment.

REV. BECKWITH ACCEPTS CALL TO HILLSBORO

The many friends of Rev. J. Q. Beckwith, Jr., will be interested to learn that he has received a call to St. Matthew's Parish, Hillsboro, N. C., and will regret to know that he has accepted the rectorship, and will move his family to this new field the first of February.

Rev. and Mrs. Beckwith came to Farmville following their marriage in June 1930, and have served the parish efficiently and well, making many friends outside the church in addition to those of their own congregation.

Mr. Beckwith has been especially interested in young people and in Sunday School organization since making his residence here, having done much outstanding work in this branch of the church work. He has been a member of the local Ministerial Association from the beginning of his rectorship here and is secretary of the Rotary Club.

ANNOUNCEMENT - Miss Maybelle Allen, R. N., wishes to announce that she is now located in Farmville at the home of Mrs. H. C. Cobb on Centennial street, and will be available for bedside duty.

NEW RESOLUTIONS FOR OLD

There was more than a spice of wisdom in the Roman's choice of Janus the two-headed, to stand sentinel at the commencement of the year, all ways looking backward and forward at the same time, evaluating the past and gauging the future. A fit symbol for everybody this god Janus, who can look back and gauge the future by what he sees there, has the finer chance of making of the future what he desires. And whose future is not filled to the utmost with good desires? If we are filled with true enthusiasm we will put into effect some of those good desires that come rushing into our minds each New Year. I often think the many new resolutions some people make in January makes it one filled with brightest hope of all the twelve months. It is good to make resolutions in January, good to indulge in a little homely philosophy, and to come to an understanding with oneself. It is hard to do this every day for the month of January but if we try real hard we can do it. Then we find why fine resolutions are never kept.

Our fine resolutions broken and forgotten strewn each day of the past. How much better then to make none of the (fine) but endeavor honestly to strive, and be contented with striving. Harder? Yes, mabe; but remember the direct route to any objective, more often than not is the hardest; more broken resolutions are scattered on it than on any other path to success. So let this year be different. Take a real good look at the past and try to realize what was really wrong with it. And then do not make your resolutions so fine they will be too fine to last.—Minnie Savage Warren.

THE FARMVILLE HIGH SCHOOL RESUMES WORK

The Farmville High School resumed its work Monday, January 1, after the Christmas holidays of about two weeks. The third month was completed one week before school closed on Tuesday, December 19. At that time the average enrollment and attendance was as follows: Enrollment—High School, 166.2; Elementary grades, 536.6; total 702.8. Attendance—High School, 161.6 or 97.3 per cent; Elementary grades 502.6 or 93.7 per cent; total 664.2 or 94.4 per cent. A number of pupils have moved to other districts during the short vacation, but this loss has been offset by new pupils, who have moved into our district. The parents should be congratulated upon keeping their children in school in the way they have, and Mr. Boyd, superintendent, would like to urge all parents to cooperate 100 per cent in trying to keep our attendance high during this, the second semester.

The mid-term examinations will be held January 17, 18 and 19.

D. A. R. CHAPTER RECEIVES LETTER OF CONGRATULATION FROM PRESIDENT GENERAL

Holyoke, Massachusetts, December 5, 1933.

My dear Mrs. Turnage:

I have been intensely interested in your letter and the copy of The Farmville Enterprise enclosed, giving such splendid accounts of the part the Major Benjamin May Chapter had in helping to save the day for Tobacco Growers of North Carolina in Farmville.

It was a wonderful idea to have sponsored the Ball, when you had such distinguished speakers present and addressing the gathering. I congratulate the Chapter on this fine piece of patriotism.

Such times as the present call forth our earnest and active cooperation, and it is commendable in the Chapter to have come to the rescue when matters were so serious in its section of the country. Please say to each Officer and member how proud I am of their marvelous work.

Thank you so much for writing me as you have.

Sincerely yours, EDITH G. MAGNA Mrs. Russell William Magna, President General, N.S.D.A.R. Mrs. T. C. Turnage, Regent, Major Benjamin May Chapter, D.A.R., Farmville, North Carolina.

Laundry Lessons

KEEPING WOOLENS WOOLLY

WOOL, since it is an animal fiber, is very sensitive to extremes of temperature, rubbing and harsh soap. Great care should be taken in washing woollen garments in order to prevent fading, shrinking or stretching.

Washing Suggestions

- 1. Prepare tepid or cool suds, using mild, pure, white soap or flakes. Do not take a chance on home-made soap. A little borax will soften very hard water. 2. Put garment into the suds and wash quickly by gently swirling and squeezing suds through it, repeating in fresh suds if necessary. Do not rub. 3. Squeeze suds out without wringing and put garment through several lukewarm rinsings. Squeeze as dry as possible, without twisting. 4. Spread, knitted garment on bath towel and pull into shape according to original measurements taken before washing. Place another towel between front and back of garment if there is any trimming or contrasting color. Garments made of woven material may safely be hung up. Dry in warm place; never place on a radiator or before a fire. *Small garments such as children's sweaters and adults wool hose, will keep in better shape if dried over forms.

Wake Up Your Liver Bile Without Calomel

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel your stomach and bowels aren't moving, and you feel a lot of gas, mucus, water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it! They only move the bowels and a sure movement doesn't give you the energy, the reason, the vigor, the alertness that you need. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Get them up to your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, this often breaks out in pimples. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned. It takes these great old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable essence, and when it comes to making the bile flow freely. Don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Beware of imitations. 25¢ at drug stores. ©1931 G. M. Co.
