HONORS MRS. ROYSTER

Mrs. Sallie K. Horton charmingly entertained at a contract party on Friday afternoon in compliment to Mrs. T. D. Royster, of Durham, house guest of Mrs. W. S. Royster on Home Ave. Tallies and other table appointments were suggestive of the approaching Spring season, and sprays of early flowering shrubs were used in profusion.

When cards were laid aside the high score prize, a novel dish of pickles, was awarded Mrs. W. S. Royster and the honor guest was presented with a card table cover.

A fruit salad course with a variety of sandwiches, pickles, saltines, coffee and candies were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. M. V. Horton and Mrs. Harry Lang.

JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB

Misses Rachel and Hazel Monk were hostesses to the Junior Woman's Club on Saturday afternoon, entertaining at their home on Contentnea street.

Results of the ticket sale for the President's Birthday Ball, held in Greenville, and which was sponsored by this group, was announced as satisfactory and the clubmembers agreed to cooperate with other organizations here in building a community house.

The President, Miss Lucy Johnston, urged a greater manifestation of interest in the local Girl Scouts movement, also sponsored by the Club, and appointed the following committees; Ways and Means; Misses Elizabeth Fields, Frances Joyner, and Mrs. W. A. Pollard, Jr., Nominating; Mrs. W. A. Pollard, Jr., Miss Frances Joyner, Mrs. Mac Carraway.

The program was a continuation of the study of books of travel, with the history and most interesting points in Egypt being discussed by Mrs. Mac Carraway and Miss Priscilla Baker.

A delicious salad course was served after adjournment.

LITERARY CLUB

Excellent papers, presented by Miss Edna Robinson and Mrs. G. S. Vought at the regular meeting of the Literary Club on Wednesday afternoon, gave to the members a renewed interest in Italy, imparting as they did valuable information on the political and social conditions of that country, picturing the cities of Venice, Genoa, Cremona and Florence, with special emphasis on Rome, its history and legends, together with observations regarding its paintings and sculpture.

In the business session, held prior to the program, a nominating committee, composed of Mrs. W. M. Willis, Mrs. R. E. Boyd and Mrs. G. S. Vought, was appointed by the president, Miss Annie Perkins.

After adjournment a delightful salad course was served by the hostess, Mrs. J. Y. Monk.

RESOLUTION OF RESPECT

Whereas, The Major Benjamin May Chapter, D. A. R., and North Carolina has sustained a bereavement in the passing of Miss Daphne King Carraway of Wilson, N. C., and, Whereas, Miss Carraway was recognized nationally as a gifted teacher, lecturer, and reader of unusual merit, and, Whereas, She expressed the Art of Beautiful Living in a radiant Christian character, a rare altitude of culture, and all of the lovely graces that bespeak true aristocracy of spirit, and, Whereas, Her nobility of soul drew to her a wide circle of real friends, and, Whereas, The Major Benjamin May Chapter wishes to express love, admiration, and sorrow in the loss of this devoted and talented member, Be it resolved, That we, as true believers, accept God's Providence in the knowledge that all things work together for good, at the same time, claiming His glorious promise of Immortality, and, That the memory of her remarkable personality be always cherished as a standard of excellence for the members of this Chapter and those who knew her, and, That we extend to the members of her family our deep sympathy, and, That copies of these resolutions be sent to the family, be filed in the Chapter records, and sent to the Farmville Enterprise, the News and Observer, and the Wilson Times.

Mrs. T. C. Turnage, Regent.
Mrs. Joel Moye, Recording Sec.
Mrs. B. S. Sheppard, Historian.

RESOLUTION OF RESPECT

Whereas, The Major Benjamin May Chapter, D. A. R., and the entire Community realize that in the death of Miss Addie May Bynum, one has "crossed the bar," who will be deeply missed, because of her beautiful courage, her fine sincerity, intense loyalty, and benevolent soul, and, Whereas, She symbolized the sorely needed type of Christian womanhood, the solidarity of American family greatness, and, Whereas, Her life was a splendid testimonial and standard to those of us yet awaiting the summons, and, Whereas, The Major Benjamin May Chapter keenly feels the loss of such a worthy member, Be it resolved, That we extend to her family deep sympathy in this mutual bereavement, and, That we keep alive her memory by bearing forward the lofty ideals and the principles of strong family relationship, which she daily exemplified, and, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family; a copy be filed in the Chapter records, and that a copy be sent to the Farmville Enterprise, the News and Observer, and Wilson Times.

(Signed)
Mrs. T. C. Turnage, Regent.
Mrs. Joel Moye, Recording Sec.
Mrs. B. S. Sheppard, Historian.

TOURNAMENT SERIES ENDS

The tournament series of auction games, being played by the Progressive Bridge Club, of four tables, for the past several weeks, came to a close on Thursday afternoon at a meeting held at the home of Mrs. Jack Smith, at which time Mrs. R. O. Lang was declared winner and the honoree at a social affair, the nature of which has not been announced, after Easter. Mrs. Lang has won previous honors in the Club in this connection.

A delightful salad course was served at the conclusion of six thrilling progressions. Those sharing with the members in the pleasures of the afternoon were; Mrs. C. T. Dixon, Mrs. S. V. Lore, Mrs. B. S. Sheppard and Mrs. Robert Lee Smith.

COMPLIMENTING MRS. HARRY COOK

Mt. Olive—Mrs. Floyd Andrews was hostess at a lovely party on Wednesday afternoon of last week, honoring Mrs. Harry Cook, who before her recent marriage, was Miss Louise Smith, of Farmville.

Three tables were arranged for contract, the bridal motif being effectively emphasized in table appointments, and in the refreshments. Mrs. A. M. McCuiston, holder of high score was awarded a pretty handkerchief, and to Mrs. Cook, the hostess gave a bridge set.

An added feature to this delightful party was the reading by Mrs. James Davis of a clever article, "Advice to Brides."

Refreshments consisted of a confectioned salad course with coffee and cookies.

Guests included Mrs. Harry Cook, Mrs. Ralph Warren, Mrs. James Davis, Mrs. Eugene Hines, Mrs. Walter Cherry, Mrs. C. C. Flowers, Mrs. G. Lee Best, Mrs. E. E. Mitchell, Mrs. Dodney Andrews, Mrs. Theron Hines, Mrs. A. M. McCuiston, and Miss Evangeline Taylor.
