Corn-Hog Program
Adds To Income

North Carolina producers of corn and hogs are failing to share in liberal benefit payments by not taking more interest in the corn-hog adjustment program.

W. W. Shay, swine extension specialist at State College, says that only 1,327 contracts have been signed in 14 counties to date. This is an average of about 95 contracts to the county, yet the facts show that there are an average of 468 farms in these 14 counties reporting some hogs grown.

Shay finds further that there are 41,189 farms in the whole State where some hogs are grown. This is an average of 412 farms to each of the 100 counties.

"If only 50 farms in each of these 100 counties would sign for a reduction of as much as seven head of pigs per farm, the income in benefit payments would amount to approximately one-half a million dollars this year," Shay says. "A farmer can sign to reduce by as much as one pig and get $15 for the animal; yet, many of our growers who are selling hogs are required to pay the processing tax and are not protecting themselves by joining in on the reduction program."

Only two counties have completed their sign-up campaigns to date. Mr. Shay believes there are a large number of farmers who would like to have a part in the program if they knew about it. He has one contract from a man who is reducing his hogs by 164 head under the base period of 1932 and 1933 and will get a benefit payment amounting to $2,460.

In addition, corn production may be curtailed and the grower will be paid 30 cents a bushel according to the past production of the land.

Mr. Shay states that the sign-up campaign will be closed on May 1 and he is hopeful that more North Carolina farmers will take an interest in the program before it is too late.

FIDELIS CLASS HONORS TEACHERS

The Fidelis Class of the Baptist Sunday School, entertained on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. J. M. Wheelless, honoring the teachers, who are members of this group. Miss Alice Coggins of the Domestic Science department is class president.

The Wheelless home presented an inviting and attractive appearance with its shaded lights and beautiful flowers.

Fortune telling by Mrs. John D. Holmes and J. R. Shearin, in costumes, afforded much merriment and a flower contest, in which Miss Christelle Lucas and Mr. Shearin were winners, proved enjoyable. Mrs. Holmes, impersonating the black laundress of "dem Baptist teachers," arrived in time to return to each one a lovely handkerchief, which had been lost by them in "de wash." Music for the occasion was furnished by a male quartette, composed of John and Elbert Holmes, Francis Pratt and Rev. L. R. Ennis.

A delicious salad course was served at the close of the evening.

MERRY MATRONS

The Merry Matrons, met at the home of Mrs. W. Leslie Smith Tuesday afternoon, when she was hostess to members and several other guests. Spring flowers were in artistic arrangement in the living rooms.

The subject for the afternoon's program was "Matthew Fontaine Maury," which was developed in a splendid talk by the president, Mrs. J. W. Lovelace. The hour of meeting was changed at this time from 8:30 to 4:00 o'clock.

A delicious frozen salad course was served after adjournment. Additional guests of the hostess included: Mrs. L. E. Satterfield, Mrs. Z. M. Whitehurst, Mrs. S. A. Roebuck, Mrs. D. E. Oglesby, Mrs. Ed Warren, Mrs. Platte Monk, Mrs. A. W. and J. Branch Bonner.

NOTICE TO FLOWER GROWERS

The Garden Club will sponsor a Plant Exchange on the lawn of Miss Tabitha DeVisconti, on Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to bring plants, shrubs and bulbs and take part in the exchange.

MRS. T. E. JOYNER, Pres.
The Garden Club.

One hundred Hyde county hog growers have signed adjustment contracts to date and it is expected that 20 others will sign soon.

Dr. R. H. Wright
Dies In Hospital
At Greenville

Dr. G. R. Combs, pastor of Jarvis Memorial church, conducted the services, assisted by Dr. Frank Dean, rector of the Episcopal Church of Wilson, who was a close friend of Dr. Wright's, and Dr. Walter Patten, of Fayetteville, a former pastor. Dr. Combs read a selection from the Old Testament and Dr. Dean one from the New Testament. The Student Body sang the hymn, "Sun of My Soul," after which followed eulogistic remarks.

Prayer was offered by Rev. Walter Patten, the hymn "My Faith Looks Up to Thee" was by the Methodist Choir, after the benediction. During the recessional, twelve college girls, representing the college organizations, passed the flowers to the honorary pall bearers as they filed out. These were followed by the active pall bearers and the ministers. The services were concluded at the grave, in Greenwood cemetery, with the hymn "Abide With Me," by the choir.

Never has there been seen in Greenville such beautiful floral tributes, there were many handsome designs from all over the State, from many organizations, official groups, clubs and societies, as well as a great many relatives and friends. The Student Body sent the school seal with the college colors, purple and gold, worked out in lavender and yellow flowers. The Alumnae Association also had the college colors represented.

The regular marshals of the college and ten young men of the college acted as ushers.

The business houses of Greenville were closed during the funeral services as a mark of respect to one of its leading citizens.

All members of the immediate family were present: Mrs. Robert H. Wright, Dr. and Mrs. Robert H. Wright, Jr., of Phoebus, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Don Cadman of Chappagua, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Derward Parker of Wilson; and William A. Wright, of Greenville.

Among relatives present were, Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Wright of Raleigh, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Wright, and daughter, of Wilmington, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Smith, of New Bern, Mrs. E. B. Thomas, of Maplewood, N. J., Mrs. Marianna Murphy, of Tomahawk, mother of Mrs. Wright, and Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Murphy, of Snow Hill.

Active Pall Bearers
S. T. White, R. G. Fitzgerald, L. R. Meadows, Dr. K. B. Pace, J. E. Winslow, J. C. Gaskins, H. P. McGinnis, E. G. Flanagan.

OBTAIN CHARTER

To whom this may concern: Having been questioned by friends and others, whom I have chanced to come in contact since the organization called the Septuagenarians came into being in 1931—as to its benefits and objectives, I beg to say, first: the secretary of the State, Stacy Wade, issued a charter of incorporation to the Septuagenarian Society, Inc., on April 14, 1934, under the laws of the State of North Carolina, for a period of 99 years duration, the principal officers to be in the town of Farmville, N. C., Pitt County.

Objectives are, first: To inculcate in the hearts of men, a reverence for the wisdom and forethought of our fathers in the establishment of a government, under whose constitution and laws we have been able to live for three score and ten years.

Second: To promote happiness and peace among ourselves in our declining years of existence, and as one common brotherhood, irrespective of politics and religion, to hand down to posterity our everlasting thoughts of love for God and our country.

Third: To point to those, who are not eligible on account of age, to join our Society, the solemn fact that they too must sooner or later tread the paths we have trod, and then as now we believe there can be only one essential for a useful and happy life, which we hold is based upon our cherished ideal of Love and Charity. (Space will not allow further details, so I will invite those further concerned to see our constitution and by-laws.)

Since the three years of operation of our Society, on our minutes and rolls to date 83 members, 37 men and 16 women are enrolled, and I further add we have photographs of them. Fifteen have died, three women and twelve men. The total number of years of life for these members show 4123 years, minimum average 78 1/8 years, women average 80 1/2, men average 76 3/4 years. I find that eight counties of North Carolina are represented in the group, and among the honorary members, Thomas Dixon, author, New York City, 70 years of age.

We have eight religious denominations represented, with four preachers of different denominations. Three political parties are represented. We have lawyers, doctors, school teachers, merchants, farmers, bankers, presidents and vice presidents, directors and stockholders. We have manufacturers, mechanics, musicians, carpenters, blacksmiths and artificers, legislators, learned and unlearned, rich and poor, and we can boast of having the first president of the first banking institution organized 1886, in Pitt county, and who has been from its organization in 1904 to the present day, president of the Bank of Farmville.

However, we do not wish to be too optimistic in this brief synopsis, but for the benefit of those concerned, our records show the names and faces of American civilization, of which we can conscientiously boast.

We have three veterans of the Civil War and one Spanish-American War veteran, who once were among the defenders of our country, when the war clouds of despair and jeopardy were unfurling their black and bloody flags over this fair land of ours.

Again thanking our municipality, our schools, our community and our editor for everything said or done in cooperation with this Society, I beg to remain, your humble servant,
WATT PARKER.

P. S.—We have four batchelors, no spinsters, eighteen widows, fourteen widowers, (somebody might get busy before June etc.) in our group. Seek and ye shall find, look and ye shall see, listen and ye shall hear, what man has done man can do.—W. P.

DARDEN-GAY

A marriage that came as a complete surprise to their many friends, was that of Miss Mae Frances Gay to Mr. Edgar Allen Poe Darden, the marriage taking place on Sunday evening in Emporia, Va., in the presence of a few intimate friends.

The bride, a petite blond of 16 years, is the daughter of Postmaster and Mrs. Walter L. Gay, of Farmville. Possessing an attractive personality and friendly disposition, she is very popular among the younger set here.

The groom, formerly of Windsor, Va., but now resides at Jackson, N. C., is in the employ of the North Carolina Highway Department.

Who is England's famous unseen hostess? Story of woman who entertains royalty and scores of guests, but never comes out of her seclusion. One of many entertaining features in the American Weekly, the magazine which comes with the BALTIMORE SUNDAY AMERICAN, issue of April 29.

"Pains Gone," Says
Lady, After She Had Taken CARDUI

In describing how her health improved after she had taken Cardui, Mrs. Ralph B. Courtney, of Wytheville, Va., said: "I was run-down and suffered from pain in my side. I wanted to feel well and get rid of the pain in my side, so I sent for Cardui and began taking it. By the time I had taken three bottles of Cardui, I was feeling much better. The pains had gone. I am very glad to recommend Cardui to other young women." . . . "Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician. At a bottle, at drug store."
