CLASS ENJOYS REUNION

Members of class '30, of the Farmville high school, gathered for a reunion on Thursday afternoon at 6:00 at the municipal pool, where swimming preceded a delightful barbecue supper, served in the adjacent outdoor picnic pavilion.

The president of the class, Harold Hardy, of Norfolk, Va., presided, and extended greetings during an enjoyable hour spent in recalling the four years preceding graduation and tracing present activities of the various members, thirteen of the original sixteen being in attendance. Mrs. A. B. Walters, grade mother, spoke informally and husbands of several members were recognized and made short talks.
