Establish Pool For Cotton Certificates

tion is under their allotment will be men throughout the State, to become ment Administration. The sale price by President Graham. has been set at four cents per pound "This plan of handling the excess certificates", says Charles A. Sheffield, assistant extension director at State College in charge of the cotton adjustment program in North Carolina, "does not mean that the Government will purchase such certificates but does mean that those who have more certificates than they have cotton to gin and sell may turn the excess certificates over to the manager of the national surplus cotton tax-exemption certificate pool who will handle them for producers under a trust agreement. The price of four cents per pound is approximately 70 percent of the tax of 5.67 cents per pound imposed There is reason for war, strikes and by the Bankhead Act on the ginning of cotton. Under the pool provisions, farmers who do not produce as much cotton as their allotment calls for will get some cash from excess certificates and those farmers who produce more than their allotments will be able to gin and sell some of their excess. Ernest L. Deal of Florence, Ala., has been designated manager of the pool. Prices Fixed For Excess

Certificates When the pool is closed, all funds on hand from the sale of the certificates, after deducting expenses, will be distributed among producers and There are a few good reasons for each producer will reveice his share in the proportion the poundage surrendered by him bears to the total poundage in the pool. In addition. each producer will be returned his pro rata share of the unsold surplus certificates, which may be used next year in the event the Bankhead Act is continued another season. The plan also includes provision for local sales of tax-exemption certificates in a county at the same price by individual farmers provided he sales are made through the office of the assistant in cotton adjustment in the county in which the certificates sold were distributed.

Farmers wishing to participate in the pool, either as sellers or buyers of certificates, should make arrangements through their county assistants in cotton adjustment.

Ten additional Lincolnton county farmers are planting alfalfa this fall: some for the first time, and others adding to a profitable acreage.

Tobacco sold on the Columbus county markets is still averaging about 25 cents a pound and everyone is happy, reports the county agent.

NOTICE TO TRESPASSERS

It has been brought to my attention on several occasions that a numare to be among the future citizens of our Town and State, pick the grapes and pecans of their neighbors, and others in the community, without asking; this is a petty form of stealing, which is very regrettable, not only for the immediate incident of Mrs. Arthur F.
