BALLROOM DANCING: Mrs. Carraway announces the opening of a class in ballroom dancing for pupils 8 to 20 years. Charges for a course of 5 lessons will be $4.00. Mrs. Carraway began dancing lessons at the age of 3 years, and has recently had instruction in class work under Mrs. John Youngblood, of Tarboro. Call 71-W for further information.

"Social charm" says Lucille March, "is more important to a girl than the study of geometry." This critic and lecturer on the great American dancing school states that the best time to start ballroom dancing instruction is at about 9 or 10 years. "Because," she says, "children at this age usually are not interested in the study of geometry."

Club Year Opened In Sept.

Initial fall meetings of many of the patriotic and study clubs were held this week, after disbanding during the summer months, and in the next week or two all of the various organizations here, will be functioning again. The Garden and card clubs continue to meet through July and August.

Fall flowers and autumn foliage were used by the various hostesses of the clubs listed here, with harmonizing effects.

Garden Club

A display of their finest specimens of zinnias and dahlias, by the members of the Garden Club, featured the meeting, held on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. M. Wheelless. Mrs. T. E. Joyner presided.

A study of bulbs—when and how to plant them, was conducted by Misses Tabitha DeViscanti and Bettie Joyner, the program being brought to a delightful close by a visit to the garden of the hostess, scene of gorgeous autumn bloom. Miss Margaret Walter assisted the hostess in serving a salad course.

Merry Matrons

Mrs. J. I. Morgan delightfully entertained the Merry Matrons on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. J. W. Lovelace presided and announced the program, consisting of two interesting papers by Mrs. B. O. Turnage and Mrs. Jno. T. Thorne, relating to Women of the Confederacy. The club voted at this time to make a contribution towards furnishing the new Domestic Science cottage.

An ice course was followed by cheese biscuits and black coffee.

Music-Art Department

The Music and Art Department met on Tuesday evening with Misses Emma Dale and Vivian Case as hostesses. Miss Mary K. Jerome presided and outlined the study of the year, which will deal with musicians, painters, sculptors and poets of the old classic and modern groups; a music memory contest will be sponsored in the school and a choral festival will be held in the spring.

The program of the evening was developed with a paper by Mrs. W. J. Raspberry on, "The Origin of Music," with musical selections illustrating the various periods. A delectable salad course was served after adjournment.

Farmville Literary Club

"Seeing Europe Through The Eyes Of One Of Our Own Members," was the subject, as announced by Miss Annie Perkins, president of the Literary Club, at the meeting on Wednesday afternoon, when presenting Miss Edna Robinson, who made a two months tour of Europe during the summer. Illustrating her account with pictures, Miss Robinson told of her voyage from New York to Naples, her visit to the Vatican and audience with the Pope, together with the most interesting places visited in Italy, Switzerland, Germany, France, England and Scotland. A group of delightful Italian, French and English songs, by Miss Mary K. Jerome, brought the program to a close.

Refreshments consisting of a moulded salad, cheese biscuits, chicken salad sandwiches, Saratoga chips, pickles, Japanese fruit cake and iced fruit punch were served by the hostess, assisted by her sister, Miss Bettie Joyner, Mrs. Henrietta Williamson and Mrs. Mary M. Patterson.

Literary-Art Department

Mrs. W. J. Raspberry and Mrs. J. W. Bass were joint hostesses to the Literary-Art department of the Woman's club on Wednesday afternoon, with Mrs. Henrietta M. Williamson, newly elected president, presiding. Two new members, Mrs. F. W. Satterwhite and Mrs. Plato Monk, were extended a cordial welcome by the chairman, who also appointed Mrs. A. Q. Roebuck as head of the book committee.

An account of her recent travels abroad was given by Miss Janie Davis, and instrumental and vocal music were rendered by Miss Eugenia Gray, Miss Mary K. Jerome and Mrs. J. Sterling Gates.

Refreshing fruit juice was served as the guests arrived by Mrs. R. O. Lang and Miss Georgia Howard, and the hostesses were assisted in serving an ice course at the conclusion of the program, by Mrs. John T. Bynum and Mrs. George W. Davis.

American Legion Auxiliary

An interesting meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary was held on Thursday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. W. A. Barrett, with Mrs. Elbert Joyner as joint hostess.

During the business session Mrs. O. G. Spell presented the National and State citations, together with the place on the honor roll, won by this group last year; the Auxiliary voted to provide clothing and books for deceased veteran's children, and playing cards were reported as contributed by the Contract Club, to be sent by this group to Otan.

Mrs. R. Leroy Rollins was elected to the office of president, to succeed Mrs. A. W. Bobbitt, whose untiring efforts towards progress of the local organization and promotion of the

during her administration, have met with signal success.

Mrs. J. W. Parker and Mrs. Dameron Fields were welcomed as new members at this time.

The program was featured by a selection read by Mrs. M. V. Horton, relative to the National Convention to be held in Miami, in October.

A delicious sweet course was served after adjournment.

Joint Hostesses At Cards

Mrs. A. W. Bobbitt and Mrs. Ben Vernon were gracious hostesses at one of the loveliest parties of the early autumn social season on Thursday evening, entertaining friends for eight tables of contract. Novel tallies were used and tables bore attractive appointments. The award for high score, a double deck of cards, went to Mrs. M. V. Horton and the second prize, a lovely relish dish, was won by Mrs. J. Y. Monk. A delectable salad course was served as cards were laid aside.

Parent-Teacher Association

The September meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association, was held in Parkins Hall Friday afternoon, with fifty-nine in attendance. Mrs. Mary M. Patterson presided in the absence of the president, Mrs. J. M. Hobgood.

The invocation was pronounced by Rev. H. M. Wilson, and an introduction of the new members of the faculty was made by Supt. R. E. Boyd. Miss Alice Coggins discussed the plans of the Home Economics cottage and appealed to the Association for aid in the furnishing of the various rooms. The attendance prize for the afternoon was won by grade 9A, Miss K. Boatwright, teacher.

Mayor John B. Lewis, speaker for the afternoon, gave a comprehensive exposition of the proposed new Constitution of the State, relative to the public schools of North Carolina. Vocal selections were rendered by Miss Mary K. Jerome, accompanied by Mrs. Haywood Smith.

Club Party

Mrs. B. Streeter Sheppard delightfully entertained the Progressive Bridge Club of four tables and additional friends for a like number, on Thursday afternoon at her home on Walnut street, Miss Tabitha DeViscanti and Mrs. Jack Smith assisted in receiving and passing the attractive tally cards, which bore the colors of pink and green, effectively carried in other table appointments and refreshments.

Mrs. G. S. Vought was winner of the club prize, a set of eight hand carved coasters, and Mrs. R. H. Lindsay, scoring high for visitors, received a novel container filled with flowers. A delicious frozen salad course was served by Mrs. J. M. Christman, Mrs. Sam Lore, Mrs. Ada Wood and Miss Martha Cobb.

Woman's Club Holds Special Meeting

An event, anticipated each year by Farmville clubwomen, is the annual meeting of the Woman's Club, which ushers in the new club year, with a program offering many enjoyable features.

This meeting was held on Saturday afternoon, at 3:30, with Mrs. A. C. Monk and Mrs. F. M. Davis as joint hostesses, at the home of Mrs. Monk.

Mrs. A. Q. Roebuck presided. Forty members were present.

Brief reports of the year's work were made by the department chairmen: Mrs. T. E. Joyner, Gardening; Miss Mary K. Jerome, music; Mrs. I. E. Satterfield, the Literary-Art group, in the absence of Mrs. Henrietta M. Williamson. Mrs. G. S. Vought, sponsor, and Miss Elizabeth Davis, president of the Junior Woman's Club, told of Junior activities. The members of this group were special guests of this time.

The membership chairman, Mrs. D. E. Oglesby, reported four new members; Mrs. A. H. Stevens, Mrs. Robert Rouse, Mrs. J. H. Paylor and Miss Mary K. Jerome, the latter being present and taking part in the musical program.

Mrs. B. G. Campbell, of Plymouth, chairman of the 15 District, was present and addressed the various departments, touching on the various phases of club work, and urging a greater activity along the line of literary extension, welfare, American citizenship, and adult schools for illiterates. Congratulations were extended Farmville, which together with Plymouth, are the only clubs in the State with a federated Woman's Club, Junior Woman's Club and Literary Club, by the District chairman, who also complimented the Juniors on their proposed study of Parliamentary law.

After adjournment a drawing contest resulted in the winning of a home cooked cake by Mrs. T. E. Joyner. Refreshments were served in the dining room. The table being centered with a bowl of mixed flowers in shades of yellow, which was flanked by green candles, the yellow and green colors being further carried in the less, served by Mrs. F. M. Davis, seated at the table, the angel cake, served by Mrs. A. C. Monk and Mrs. Mary M. Patterson, and the mince and nuts, which were prepared by Miss Elizabeth Davis, Mrs. J. W. Bass and Mrs. W. J.
