STATE PRESIDENT VISITS LOCAL AUXILIARY

Mrs. Edyth Price, of Charlotte, state president of the Spanish-American Auxiliary, attended the monthly meeting of the local group on Wednesday and addressed the members on the varied objectives of the state organization, outlining plans for the future months and comparing them with achievements during the past year.

Mrs. Annie Anderson and Mrs. Nonie Barrett were joint hostesses to the Auxiliary at the home of the former, and Mrs. P. T. Atkinson, Auxiliary president, presided over the business session, which followed the state president's address. Iced fruit juices, cake and salted nuts were served after adjournment. Mrs. Hubert Dixon and Mrs. W. W. Lewis were special guests of the hostesses at this time.

LITERARY CLUB

With Miss Edna Robinson as hostess, Wednesday afternoon, members of the Farmville Literary Club, in concluding a recent series of meetings, devoted to the study of Art, held a splendid program presented by Miss Tabitha DeVisconti and Mrs. J. H. Darden.

Miss DeVisconti recounted a recent and an interesting interview with Miss Mable Pugh, of New York and Morrisville, who has won a distinctive place among North Carolina artists, especially in the field of block printing. A collection of fine prints by this artist, secured by Miss DeVisconti for exhibition at this time, aroused much interest and enthusiasm among the members.

Mrs. Darden discussed the subject of the University's Art School. The program was concluded with a brief talk by Mrs. J. W. Joyner, relative to the exhibit of the work of North Carolina artists, sponsored recently by the Kinston Art Club, and which she attended.

Mrs. J. I. Morgan, in whose home the meeting was held, used tulips, iris and other bright blossoms to enhance the beauty of her home on Church street, and assisted the hostess in serving a sweet course, followed by cheese pastries and salted nuts.

Additional guests of the hostess included Mrs. R. H. Knott, Mrs. G. M. Holden, Mrs. Plato Monk and her sister, Mrs. Winston Smith, of Opelika, Ala.

MINUTES OF THE LOCAL ROTARY CLUB

The Farmville Rotary Club met last Tuesday evening at 6:45 in the Farmville High School building. After an enjoyable shad supper the business of the election of officers was in order. A motion was made, seconded and passed that the report of the nominating committee be accepted in its entirety. Upon motion the following officers were elected by acclamation: John Lewis, President; Manley Liles, Vice-President; Irvin Morgan, Secretary and Treasurer; Ed Nash Warren, Assistant Secretary and Treasurer; Board of Directors: Jim Joyner, George Davis, Bob Boyd, J. I. Morgan.

GLEE CLUB WINS FIRST POSITIONS IN CONTEST

Farmville's high school Glee Club members and director, Miss Vivian Case, are receiving congratulations upon the good showing made in the district music contest held in Greenville, Saturday, April 13, the soloist entrants, Helen Willis, soprano, and Elvira Tyson, alto, winning first places, with the club chorus boasting a top rating also.

Miss Ann Marie Jefferson, of Fountain, pupil of Mrs. Haywood Smith, a piano teacher of the Farmville school and club accompanist, was among the winners in instrumental contests.

These honors entitle the winners to enter the State Music Contest to be held at Greensboro, April 24.

Since finding ways for the group of 22 to get to Greensboro is quite a problem to promoters of the Club, Miss Case requests that any one who can assist in this way notify her at once.

W. S. Patterson of Stony Point, Alexander County, has some pine woods where 5,000 trees stand to the acre. He plans to thin part of this acreage to 500 trees per acre. The trees are about 40 years old.

The Balanced McCormick-Deering New 4

cultivates evenly

THE gang beams of the New 4 raise and lower horizontally. They are always level; thus all the shovels or hoes enter the ground at the same time and at an even depth unless you have them set differently.

The New 4 is a "balance frame" cultivator. When the gangs are raised by the master lever which is provided, the frame moves forward, and with it the driver, balancing the cultivator nicely.

The thorough success of the McCormick-Deering New 4 has undoubtedly made it the leading single row cultivator in the United States. We will be glad to show it to you.

ACROSTIC

Happiness is everywhere, for those who will;
 Every day and deed, produces some little thrill;
 Nothing sown; nothing made; nothing to keep;
 Richest rewards comes only to those who seek.

In life's journey, are many turns in the road;
 Every care we take on, increases our load;
 The joys, the smile, like roses sublime;
 Turns trouble into happiness Divine.

Anything we cherish, we never forget;
 Fond memories of Happiness, we never regret;
 United we stand; divided we fall;
 Like monuments, to heroisms call.

Faith, hope, removes the darkest clouds of despair;
 Our sorrows are like unto bubbles in the air;
 Rejoice, and be ye exceedingly glad;
 Do all the good you can and nothing bad.

Dedicated to Mrs. Henrietta Fulford on the occasion of her 57th anniversary, April 12, 1935.—By her friend, Watt Parker—75.

When the Bank Asks for A FINANCIAL STATEMENT

When you ask for a loan, and the banker asks you for a statement, do not resent this as implying doubt of your ability or assets; or as a meddlesome "nosing" into your private affairs.

Your banker, even though he may have known and done business with you for years, must still ask for a statement when you borrow money, because in that way only can he show his directors and the bank examiners that his loans are justified by facts and figures.

When your banker asks for a statement, he is not questioning you; he is following the rules of sound banking and justifying himself as a banker worthy of the name.
