Board of Elections Sets Up Machinery for Spe-Now Available cial Election July 6

Greenville, June 7.-Elections of ficials for the special election to be held on July 6 for the purpose of determining whether or not Pitt county is to establish a liquor store system as provided under an act of the last General Assembly were named at a meeting of the Pitt County County Agent E. F. Arnold reports Board of Elections here yesterday.

The election was authorized by the Board of Commissioners at a meeting here the first of the week and every registered voter in county will be given an opportunity of voting on the question. ilar elections will be held in 17 other counties of the eastern part the state to see if they, like Pitt, said by some interested people, will of the various farmers with the govdesire legalized liquor.

Although considerable opposition was expressed to the calling of the election when the commissioners took the matter under consideration at their monthly meeting here the first of the week, the question was also given strong support, and the outcome of the battle of ballots is being watched with interest. REFORM - For years prison officials and welfare agencies have advocated a worthwhile parole system in North Carolina, one which would provide the opportunity for parole of every prisoner-whether such prisoner could employ an attorney or had influential friends. The plan advocated will provide supervision to keep the prisoner on the "straight and narrow." Such a system may be in the making as the outcome of the strenous efforts of Representative Thomas E.
