As the guests arrived they were served iced punch by Mrs. R. A. Parker, Mrs. L. T. Pierce, Mrs. I. E. Satterfield and Mrs. O. G. Spell. Ices, cakes and salted nuts were served when cards were laid aside.

GARDEN DEPARTMENT

Mrs. Mary Moye Patterson was hostess to the Garden Club at her country home on Monday afternoon. Mrs. T. E. Joyner, under whose leadership during the past two years the club has grown in membership, activities and interest, presented the incoming chairman, Miss Bettie Joyner, who presided.

Taking as her theme note "Unselfishness" she made a splendid talk urging the members to make gardens and grow flowers for the enjoyment of everybody and to carry on the slogan of the club for a more beautiful town.

After the roll call and reading of the minutes of the last meeting by Mrs. Charles H. Mazingo, who has been the loyal and efficient secretary for several years, the following officers and chairmen were appointed by Miss Joyner: Vice Chairman, Mrs. T. E. Joyner; Secretary, Miss Tabitha M. DeVisconti; Program Committee, Mrs. B. Streeter Sheppard, Mrs. Haywood Smith, Mrs. John T. Thorne and Mrs. Mary Moye Patterson. Membership Committee, Mrs. Carlton Carr, Mrs. W. J. Raspberry and Mrs. J. M. Wheelless.

The major project will be to continue beautification of the Park around the swimming pool. The main object at present is to secure rustic seats to be placed there. The meetings during the summer will be held in gardens of the members.

Mrs. D. R. Morgan, president of the Woman's Club gave a short talk, offering her cooperation in the work of this department and Mrs. R. A. Parker told of the beauty of the wild flowers especially iris on a recent trip to Western Carolina. The program consisted of interesting and instructive talks on the Propagation of Holly by Mrs. T. E. Joyner.

The culture of iris by Mrs. Haywood Smith and timely suggestions for July by Mrs. Carlton Carr. During the social hour a delicious ice course was served by the hostess assisted by her daughter, Miss Cora Lee Patterson and her sister, Mrs. Henrietta Moye Williamson.

Invited guests were: Mrs. Hugh Benson, Lenoir, N. C.; Mrs. Clyde Finch, Henderson, N. C.; Mrs. Jesse Moye, Mrs. Lester Turnage, Mrs. Alfred B. Moore and Mrs. R. A. Parker, of Farmville.

A modern food expert is one who can look at a calf and tell how many chicken sandwiches it will make.

In Lenoir County new offices have been provided for County Agent C. M. Brickhouse.

Twenty thousand compliance sheets have been prepared for Pitt County supervisors. Compliance work started this week.

MERRY MATRONS

The final meeting of the club year of the Merry Matrons, was held Tuesday afternoon at the attractive home of Mrs. J. O. Pollard on Pine street, midsummer flowers being used in artistic arrangement.

With the president, Mrs. J. W. Lovelace, presiding, there was an interesting discussion of the study for the fall and winter months, resulting in the appointment as a committee for the selection, Mrs. W. M. Willis, Mrs. M. V. Jones and Mrs. Wesley R. Willis.

Mrs. Sallie K. Horton opened the literary program with a paper on Edwin Booth, followed by "Ellen Terry's Memories," read by Mrs. Mary Friar Rouse, under the general topic of "Stars of The First Magnitude," completing the excellent study course followed this year.

Prior to adjournment, and during the usual exchange at the last meeting of the best wishes for a happy vacation, the hostess presented each one with a miniature motor car for trips over land.

After being served lime ice, topped with cream, and individual cakes, the Merry Matrons and special guests, Mrs. A. B. Moore, Mrs. John B. Lewis, Mrs. J. H. Paylor, Mrs. R. A. Parker, Mrs. Hubert Benson, of Lenoir, Mrs. Clyde Finch, of Henderson, Mrs. J. M. Christman and Mrs. Howard Moye, were invited into the dining room, lovely with its lace covered and flower centered table, where fruit punch, cookies and mints were served by Mrs. L. E. Flowers and Mrs. W. Lealie Smith.

LITERARY-ART DEPARTMENT

Mrs. Henrietta M. Williamson delightfully entertained the Literary Art Department of the Woman's club Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. M. Holden.

The hostess and chairman, Mrs. Williamson, conducted a short business session, concluding with remarks appreciation for support of the members during her years of leadership, and turning the gavel over to the recently elected chairman, Miss Annie Perkins, who spoke briefly of plans for the new club year.

The program for the afternoon consisted of a paper on "Colonial Music," by Mrs. B. S. Sheppard. After adjournment the hostess, assisted by her sister, Mrs. Mary M. Patterson, and Mrs. Holden, served frozen salad, sandwiches, pickles and tea.

Especially guests were; Mrs. Mary M. Patterson, Mrs. Louise Harris, Mrs. E. C. Carr, and house guests of Mrs. D. R. Morgan, Mrs. L. W. Lancaster, Raleigh, and Mrs. E. B. Gill, Atlanta, Ga.

In principle there is no difference between those who want to do a half week's work for a full week's pay and those who demand full pay for doing nothing.
