Killing On Highway To Be Aired In Court

Snow Hill, June 25. - The June term of Greene County superior court opened here Monday morning with Judge M. V. Barnhill on the bench, and Solicitor D. M. Clark appearing for the State, A week's term will probably clear the docket of all cases now pending. One case of much interest to come up for this term is that of Elbert Jarman, white, who several weeks ago, while driving drunk ran over and killed Frank Anderson near the Greene-Lenoir county line. Jarman was released on $2,000 bail, but later was re-arrested for driving drunk and was jailed again.

Another case of interest is that of J. B. Stallings, 20-year-old youth, charged with robbing his grandfather, J. R. Stallings of Shine township of $471. Stallings still declares he is innocent of the crime.

WILLIAM J. ALLEN

Greenville, June 24.-Funeral services for William Jennings Allen, 35, who was drowned at Morehead City Sunday afternoon while out swimming with friends, were conducted Tuesday morning at eleven o'clock from his home here on Washington Streets The final rites were in charge of Rev. Warren Davis, of Washington, N. C., pastor of Mt. Pleasants Christian Church. Interment was made in Greenwood Ceme-

Mr. Allen was reared in Pitt county near Farmville and was the eldest son of F. L. and Rosa Tucker Allen. He had lived in and near Greenville for the past 15 years. At the time of his death he was employed by a contracting firm in Durham and had been to Morehead City with friends to spend the week

He is survived by his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Allen, Greenville; six brothers, A. E. Allen, Richmond, Va.; R. F. Allen of Fort Clayton Canal Zone, U. S. Army, Tucker, Dallas, and Wilfred Allen, all of Greenville; two sisters Mrs. R. G. Harris, Ayden, and Miss Doris Allen, of Greenville. He was un-

Improved Conditions in South Reported by Oil Company Official

BALTIMORE - (Special) - Improved business and industrial conditions throughout the Southeastern states were reported by C. G. Swank, general manager of the Southeastern division of the Socony-Vacuum Oil Company. Mr. Swank returned from an extensive survey trip of the Carolinas, the Virginias and Maryland, following his company's announcement of a new kind of sum-

"All lines of mercantile and industrial activity directly concerned with the farm trade have shown considerable improvement," Mr. Swank said. "This is particularly true in Virginia, where farmers were paid millions of dollars more for their 1934 crops than those of preceding years. The sale of life insurance in Virginia, always an interesting barometer, increased 34 per cent, during one month.

"Sales in departmentystores, another reliable indicator, have picked un remarkably during recent months, and merchants whom I talked with evarywhere seemed optimistic about the possibilities for further improvement. Improved conditions in the tobseco and cotton markets have also been an important factor in the unturn.
