WAR TOUCHES US ALL

Nothing could more effectively demonstrate to everybody the fact that war or even the threat of war involving one of the major Western nations, touches the interest of every nation and of all of their people, than the excitement and concern now being exhibited in all of the world's capitals over the questions which have been raised by the advance of Italy upon Ethiopia.

Italy is more than 3,000 miles from the United States and Ethiopia is still farther away, yet the question of our own neutrality and of what our Government should do toward cooperating to prevent the war is a vital and important one. It is one thing to talk about prohibiting the sale of war supplies to one or both belligerents in a war. It is quite another thing to make such prohibition effective.

What are war supplies? Canada has announced that she will not dump her wheat reserves on the market but will hold them in the expectation of high prices, because of this war. Wheat is a war supply no less than bullets or gunpowder.

We earnestly hope that our nation will not become involved in any way that will further strain our relations with Italy and the rest of the world, but we believe it would be in the interest of every American for our State Department to lend all the moral support possible to the efforts which the other great nations are making to avert this silly and senseless war.—News, Chardon, Ohio.

"CREDIT" INJURIES

The average human is most unfair to the merchant who has given him credit, for when he finds difficulty in paying his bill he almost invariably deserts that merchant and deals (usually for cash) elsewhere. The merchant who has been kind enough to give you credit certainly deserves your cash business. If you have a bill that you can't meet in full, the decent thing to do is to talk to the merchant whom you owe, explain your position, and make such arrangements as you can for the payment of the bill. Meanwhile your cash business ought to be going to the merchant who "carried you."

Another phase of "credit" places an entirely unfair burden upon the merchant who meets his bills promptly. You have sold, as an example, three merchants bills of goods. Two of that number pay their bills promptly, the bill of the third drags along and you, fearful that you will never be paid, accept merchandise from that merchant in lieu of cash. And in so doing you penalize the merchants who paid their bills. By paying their bills they placed themselves in a position to deserve your patronage. Yet to protect yourself you had to deal with the man who had no claim upon you.—Spirit, Punxsutawney, Pa.

BOY INSURANCE

We know of no better insurance for the future than Scouting for our boys. The Scouting Program supplements the Church, School and the Home. This year Scouting celebrates its 25th Anniversary. No longer is the Movement experimenting with our youth. It's Program has long since gone thru the "trial and error" stage and today Scouts receive the benefit of the years of "growing pains" and can enjoy to the fullest the ceremonies, instruction, games, and other features of the weekly meeting that train for citizenship and develop character and leadership.

The East Carolina Council of which Farmville has long been a component part ranks not among the first but first of all Councils in the Southeast in growth. More boys have become scouts since January in this East Carolina Council than elsewhere it was reported just last week when Scout Executives of Region 5 met in their Annual Conference. Troop 25 is sponsored by the local Rotary Club. But the progress of the troop is not alone Rotary responsibility. It behooves every citizen to do his or her part in maintaining this Movement for our boys. We have adequate leadership, many boys are members. It is not these things that need your attention. It is your participation however to take a real part and here is how: Part-chase at least one share of Boyhood Preferred stock from one of the dozen workers in the scout campaign for funds for another year or leave your application for a share with this news office. In this way you will have the satisfaction of helping in a concrete way the assurance of another year of 'Good Scouting' in Farmville.

About $45,000 was distributed in rental checks to tobacco farmers of Nash county by the farm agent last week.

Eastern Carolina farm agents report that tobacco growers are signing the new contracts "very readily." Most agents estimate an 85 percent sign-up to date.

Those who are careful where they put their confidence are not so apt to lose it.

Lady's Painful Trouble Helped By Cardui

Why do so many women take Cardui for the relief of functional pains at monthly times? The answer is that they want results such as Mrs. Herbert W. Hunt, of Hallsville, Texas, describes. She writes: "My health wasn't good. I suffered from cramping. My pain would be so intense it would nauseate me. I would just drag around, so sluggish and 'do-less.' My mother decided to give me Cardui. I began to mend. That tired, sluggish feeling was gone and the pains disappeared. I can't praise Cardui too highly because I know it helped me. . . . If Cardui does not help YOU, consult a physician."
