CONTRACT CLUB

An enjoyable meeting of the Contract Club was held on Tuesday afternoon, with Mrs. J. W. Joyner as hostess. Bridge was played at three tables with Mrs. W. C. Askew, mother of the hostess, as a special guest. Mrs. C. T. Dixon, winner of top score, was awarded the attractive prize of bric-a-brac. The decorations, and refreshments, served in two courses, were seasonal and delightful.

CELEBRATED GOLDEN WEDDING SUNDAY

Mr. and Mrs. John Daniel Owens celebrated their Golden Wedding anniversary on Sunday, January 5, with a family dinner, at which their four daughters, Miss Neva Owens, Farmville, Mrs. W. T. Ellis, Macclesfield, Mrs. J. T. Skinner, Greenville, Mrs. J. R. Tugwell, Jr., Walstonburg, and husbands, the twelve grandchildren and four great grandchildren were present.

In the afternoon "open house" was kept for their neighbors and friends, at which time Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, of Greenville, assisted in receiving.

JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB

A splendid program on Andrew Jackson, with discussions of his birthplace, administration, home and tomb, was conducted by Mrs. Julian H. Rumley at the meeting of the Junior Woman's Club, on Saturday, the first of the New Year, which was held at the home of Mrs. Curtis Flanagan.

Miss Mary Friar Rouse presided, and a report of Christmas activities, in relation to the relief program arranged by this group, was given by Miss Selma Johnson.

Delicious angel cake, cream, coffee and cheese crackers were served after adjournment. Mrs. Samuel Cheek and Misses Margaret and Dorothy Smith were special guests of the hostess.

KEEP INFANT LEFT ON STEPS

The bright eyed smiling boy of four or five month, left on the steps of Jesse Baker, filling station operator of the Langs Cross Road section, has won the hearts of his benefactors and though Mr. Baker has several children of his own and his means are very limited, it is reported that he has announced his intentions of keeping the youngster.

Awakened early Christmas morning by the lusty cries of an infant, Mr. Baker went to his front door to find that Santa Claus had left a baby on his door steps. The parties abandoning the child left no clues or means of identification, the dress being of cheap material and its only wrap an old bedspread.

Lack of fuel in 12 eastern North Carolina counties has caused a serious situation which is receiving the attention of extension workers, farmers, bankers, and others.

SCHOOL REOPENS HERE FOLLOWING HOLIDAY SEASON

After the Christmas holidays, which brought more fun and merriment than usual with the deep snow and ice making sledding, snow balling and the erecting of images a recreation rarely enjoyed here and never before experienced by the kiddies at Christmas time, they trooped back to school Monday morning of this week for the second semester of the session.

Superintendent J. H. Moore and the faculty members had the opening schedule prearranged and in spite of the unusually damp, foggy and rainy weather, attendance has been good throughout the week, and the school has readily slipped back into its routine of work.

DAVIS-CREECH

Announcements have been received here this week of the marriage of Miss Leah Jessica Creech and Mr. Fred Ellwood Davis, which took place on Friday at six o'clock, in a private ceremony at the home of the bride in Ahoskie.

The ceremony was performed by the bride's father, Rev. Oscar Creech, who is pastor of the Ahoskie Baptist church, in the presence of relatives and a few friends.

The young couple, unattended, entered the living room together, where the marriage vows were spoken. The bride wore a modish black and white going away costume, with white accessories. Her flowers were a shoulder corsage of gardenias.

Mrs. Davis is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Oscar Creech, of Ahoskie. She was educated in the Ahoskie high school and is a graduate of Meredith College, Raleigh. She taught in The Spring Hope school last year and is a member of the Farmville high school faculty at present.
