

or dark-fired tobacco.

J. D. Rogers, personal representative of Governor Eugene Tal-Georgia, today stated of madge, that everyone familiar definitely situation had assumed it with the to be a fact, that Governor Talsistance. madge will not call a special session purpose the South members of Three Carolina present. upon the inclusion of Georgia.

These make it certain that Governor J. C. conference. B. Ehringhaus will not call a special session of the North Carolina Legis- one said 'I told you so' to the de-unless ture should enact the law while as- ed the crop last year, we would 1," he predicted. for some other purpose, be in a much better situation now," sembled which also seems doubtful to say he continued. the least of it, there seems little Hopes for the conference had likelihood of action by either North been based largely on an assump-Carolina or Georgia until the legis- tion. now receiving sanction from latures of those states meet in regu- no legal authority. that Congress lar sessions on January, 1937.

In any event, the compact as it now stands, and as it is expected to be passed in Virginia, where to the size of this year's crop, paranother regular session will not be ticularly in Georgia. Last year it held until 1938, will make the act was 70,000,000 pounds. This year inoperative for flue-cured tobacco estimates run as high as 100,000,000 without the assent of Georgia, and pounds, but Mr. Rogers thought 70,there seems not the remotest possi- 000,000 would be as much as will bility of seuring that.

Representatives of Kentucky went year's crop was higher in poundeven further, saying they would age than can reasonably be expectwant action by Congress first as ed again this year, but admitted well as action by such states as there would probably be some ex-Missouri, Indiana and Ohio, which pansion in acreage. grow a small amount of burley to- But it is admitted that another seed loan bill today brought a speech bacco.

tered largely around Georgia, which crop, will be disastrous. J. B. Hut- actment. Mr. Rogers himself described as the son, chief tobacco authority in the "fly in the ointment."

gia governor said that the growers the crop should not exceed 640,- taken it into consideration, and that of his state were just as anxious 000,000 pounds. Annual consump- Congress had failed to provide for action of some kind as the tion is 640,000,000 pounds and stocks revenue for the additional drain on growers of other states and that are now slightly above normal. they would co-operate in any plan.

even to the extent of forming a corporation and entering into contracts not to exceed production, but that state action in his state was impossible.

He dwelt on the "honesty" of Georgia farmers to a point where Representative Harold D. Cooley became exasperated.

"Why should your growers be un- club lecturer from the University of nevertheless, on a vote to override, der a honor system and those of North Carolina, will speak at the because "the need for the where, but there is little hope of of Raleight effective action by the Federal gov- A permanent organization will be cies of the Daughters of the Ameri- market committee of the Federal ernment or the states, although the set up after the various county Bu- can Revolution, United Daughters Reserve system, general belief is that the soil con- reaus are established. Presidents of of the Confederacy, and the Ameri- While details were lacking, he servation act will be of some as- the various county Bureaus will can Legion Auxiliary. Mrs. W. B. was understood to have outlined form the directorate of the State Murphy was chairman of the com- the character of the new securities "I do not feel that the two days organization, and the temporary mittee in charge.

of the Georgia Legislature for any have been wasted, but I have found organizing committee will continue no lawyer here who is willing to in office until enough of the counsay that Congress can control states ties have perfected organizations to stone.

Legislature who were which do not enter a compact, and go ahead with a permanent Bureau. said that their legislature, Georgia is now on record as de- Mr. Brockway, who was "loaned" which is also in session, might fol- clining to go in this year; and the to the North Carolina Bureau by law in the county. example of the Virginia thing our growers must decide is the National organization, express-Legislature, but would also insist wheather they will go in under ed delight with the cooperative ing, "and high purpose of the law- an "absolute necessity" for raising

"Everyone co-operated and no organization. lature for that purpose. Therefore, partment, but if they had followed Carolina will have one of the largest could control interstate shipments of non-compacting states. There was much speculation as be raised. He pointed out that last have been ordered to date.

MR. HUNT TO LECTURE

IN GREENVILLE FEB. 28

Seed Loan Veto Arouses Threat of Senate Revolt

President Said Congress this charge in the courts of our quoted above, the Congress by this Failed to Provide Revenue For Additional Drain on Treasury

Washington, Feb. 26 .- Threat of a flue-cured tobacco crop of 800,000,- from Majority Leader Robinson ad-But the discussions today cen- 000 pounds, the size of the 1935 vising against efforts toward re-en-

The executive declined to sign Department of Agriculture, who sat the measure, with an explanation The representatives of the Geor- in on all the conferences, thinks that his financial program had not the treasury.

On Mr. Roosevelt's assurance In starting the new broiler project however, that he would order in Craven County, 5,200 baby chicks transfer of work relief funds to aid farmers still in distress from "unforeseen disasters." Robinson. who had hoped for Presidential approval. advised against further action.

But the bill's author, Chairman Smith (D-SC), of the agriculture William Lanier Hunt, a garden committee, said he would insist, Farmville Officials

money

building was laid under the auspi- may be needed-with the open

A transcrip of the day's proceed- tee, formerly composed of goverings will be placed in the corner nors of the Reserve banks, will be superceded March 1 by a commit-

Judge Frizzelle traced the history tee dominated by the Reserve of Greene county and the history of Board.

"The chief duty," he said in end- er (R.-N. Y.) asserted there was those two conditions," said Gover- spirit being manifested by all farm- yers who may try cases at this bar taxes, adding that "never in all hisdevelopments appear to nor Ehringhaus at the close of the ers, extension workers and business is not to engage in a game of chance; tory has there been a situation men in the establishment of the in which skill and learning are where the President has so failed matched against skill and learning, to meet his responsibilities. "I sincerely believe that North but to engage in an earnest, tire- In his reminder on extra-budget less search after the truth, and so appropriations, Mr. Roosevelt said:

the North Carolina Legisla- the plea made to them and reduc- state Burdaus in America by June long as these walls shall stand let "In my budget message, transmitevery one who enters these portals ting the 1937 budget, I stated: seeking redress of grievance bring ""'If the Congress enacts legislahis cause with the assurance that tion at the coming session which equal and exact justice shall be will impose additional charges upon meted out to all men applicable the Treasury for which provision alike to the poor and defenceless is not already made in this budget, and to the rich and powerful." I strongly urge that additional taxes

Hits Drunken Driving.

"I think the time has come to "No provision was made in the firealize that the drunken driver, no nancial program for the fiscal year matter who he is, whether he be 1936, or the fiscal year 1937, for adrich or poor, deserves to be sent ditional crop loans, and notwithto the roads on being convicted of standing my budget statement,

State," Judge J. Paul Frizzelle, of bill authorizes an additional draft Snow Hill, told the first grand jury upon the Treasury for $50,000.000 ever to sit in the new courthouse, for new crop loans, without making "The drunken driver should be provision for any revenue to cover made to realize," said Jurge Friz- such loans." zelle, that this crime is not to be rerevolt in the Senate over President garded lightly." He spoke in com-Roosevelt's veto of the $50,000,000 plimentary manner of the new courthouse and told the jurors that they > should deem it an honor to sit as the first grand jury in the new Greene county home of justice.

Calling particular mention in his Frizzelle said that he couldn't will be held at N. C. State College imagine a greater menace to a com- from July 22 to 27. munity than an intoxicated driver of an automobile.

limb in this State on the highways and women, will open and continue during the last few years," he said, through July 31, according to an an-"have reached alarming proportions, It is incumbannt upon you and me to of State College. see that the law on drunken driving and other laws having to do with Farm and Home Week were canthe safety of people on the high- celled on account of the outbreak of ways is enforced.

Seeking Rural Lines

we get to it," was the reply of Governor Ehringhaus to a query on the subject from newspapermen. Some members of the delegation were known to have expressed rather forceful opinions that the time which will be issued. The commitfor action has already arrived, but they followed in the main the attitude of Senator Josiah W. Bailey that the question was solely one for the Governor to decide. However, Mr. Doughton, one

In the House, Representative Tabthe authors of the act, and several other members of the delegation are known to hold the view that the state should take advantage of the act; and those opinions are understood to have been stated, some of them with considerable emphasis. Governor Ehringhaus explained the financial situation of the state to the delegation in great detail, but gave no indication as to when there would be action on social security, although other matters that would constitute a charge on the treasury of the state, such as higher Fumio Goto, designed the new actsalaries for teachers, were pointed ing premier, handed resignations out.

The possibility that revenue for Emperor Hirohito. be provided to cover such charges.' also discussed by the Governor.

ters, he held no conferences of any Curious, well-behaved crowds sort with members or officials of shuffled the icy pavements, pressthe National Social Security Board, ing close to the principal scenes of that purpose. man for the meeting.

DEWARD JOYNER

Funeral services were held for which is co-operating with the govof the Snow Hill church, assisting. Interment was made in the family city district.

cemetery.

Of a genial nature, Mr. Joyner, who had been ill with tuberculosis the venerable Prince Saionji early for nine months, will be greatly missed in his neighborhood. He was the Villa Okitsu near Shizuoka and twenty-five years of age.

mer Miss Louise Fussell, a small daughter, Joyce Ann, his father, C.

First reports of actual rioting in the military insurgence described the siege of the police headquarters by a considerable force of infantry which moved on the building at dawn Wednesday under cover of a swirling snowstorm.

Police Chief Kazuo Oguri was believed to have been killed at first. but later was reported to have fled from the building and set up temporary headquarters in another section of the city.

Police guards patrolled grounds of the imperial palace where, the Domei (Japanese) news agency reported, a solemn council of venerable statesmen and government officials was in session in an attempt to solve the government crisis.

The first attempt to form a new cabinet after the assassination of Premier Keisuke Okada ended in failure when Home Ministers for himself and his ministers to old-age pensions would have to In the capital thousands of citicome from a real estate tax was zens worked to clear the streets of the heavy snowfall as the police pa-Perhaps the best indication of the trols diverted traffic from the main present attitude of the Governor highways and many residents moved was that although he was in Wash- to and from their occupations by ington for two days on other mat- regular means of transportation.

though several governors have yesterday's putsch. A far-flung made special trips to Washington for cordon of guards kept them moving and military authorities de-

Senator Bailey acted as spokes- clared their intention of preventing any neutral citizens from entering the conflict zones,

> Military authorities said the headquarters of the Tokyo garrison,

Deward O. Joyner, Sunday afternoon ernment, had declared a state of at 3:30, from the home of his fa- emergency as a precaution to mainther, C. L. Joyner, near Farmville, tain peace and order. Later. an with Rev. L. R. Ennis, Baptist minis- imperial ordinance, signed by the ter of Farmville, in charge, and Rev. Emperor and counter-signer by all J. C. Moye, Free Will Baptist pastor members of the Goto cabinet, spread martial law over the entire Dispatches to the newspaper Hochi from Shizuka said that yesterday fled by automobile from went into hiding at the residence Surviving are his widow, the for- of the chief of police after taking a ciruitous route to avoid an attack.

The guns of the military in-L. Joyner, two sisters, Dora and Lot- surgents took the lives of Premier

Gives Dates For Short Course, Farm and Home Week at State College

The annual b-H club short course, a week of fun, fellowship, and incharge to drunken driving Judge struction for rural boys and girls.

"Injuries and the loss of life and educational vacation for farm men nouncement by Dean I. O. Schaub

Last year the short course and

As the short course, is brought to a close, Farm and Home Week, an paralysis over the State. This year it is hoped that the programs will make up for the disappointment expressed by rural people who had planned to attend these events last summer, the dean faid.

Department of Agriculture she was sitting in on the meeting with Mir. Noters at the latter's request. There was also arree was also arree to see the intervence of a coupt the confer- by taxes to raise the intervence. There was also arree to accept the confer- by taxes to raise the intervence.	whe are Geo olin as do ing s 1 the mai mai woo pos Du	r. Cooley pressed his inquiries to just why Georgia would not what other states were propos- to demand and finally received hore direct answer than those of governor's representative. Georgia is controlled by a one- illust government," said Congress- to government," said Congress- to government," said Congress- to go along with anything pro- those of at Washington," said Honer then, an employe of the Federal artment of Agriculture who was ing in on the meeting with Mr. 2,400	afternoon, February 28. Mr. parts 's program will be divided in sections; at one o'clock the House will be open for those, want to study and make notes he various posters "and garden a tealk on Southern Gardens how to have continuous bloom. In this he will show colored slides, and the will show colored slides, the Woman's Club will charge in help pay expenses of the lec- the Woman's Club will charge in all registration fee of 25c to be in attendance. Women of the te county are invited to attend.	ast." Robinson's speech generally was garded as killing any chances for asage over the veto. The Arkan- as Senator also expressed hope that deeral expenditures and loans for il forms of emergency relief would on be ended. Action on the conference report djusting differences between Sen- te and House on the $500,000,000 oil conservation-subsidy bill was end up until tomorrow to permit rinting of the conference agree- tent. The House, which today com- leted general debate on the $161, $147 supply bill for the agricul- ure department, will act first on he bill. Then the Senate will de-	Raleigh, Feb. 26.—A delegation of Farmville officials called on the state rural electrification authorities today to secure aid in making sur- veys of prospective rural power lines in Pitt county. ence report. No strong opposition was in sight in either branch. Funds to defray the half-billion- dollar cost of the subsidy program to replace the AAA will be raised through new axes. A conference with House leaders on the tax pro- gram has been tentatively set for the White House tomorrow night. In his seed loan yeto message, the Preident again adminished Con- grass that appropriations outside budget limitations should be followed	CHRISTIAN SOCIETY MEETS Macclesfield, Feb. 27,—The Mis- sionary Society of the Christian Church met Monday evening in the home of the president, Mrs. C. K. Griffin. Mrs. B. B. Phillips, lead the devotional using verses from the 4th chapter of Hebrew. Other num- bers on the program were "A Mexi- can Minister" by Mrs. D. L. Felton, "Tasks of The Church" by Mrs. Paul Flowers, "Latin American Religion" by Mrs. B. F. Glover and "Efficiency of Prayer" by Mrs. R. M. Lewis. After a business session a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served to twenty guests, in- cluding Mrs. Robert Warren of Bailey and Mrs. Dabbie Narron of	TO GIVE LECTURES Rev. R. L. Isbell of Lenoir, N. C., will speak on his travels through the Holy land at the Farmville Christian church Sunday, March 8th at 7:80 p. m. He will also speak at the Farmville Presbyterian church Mon- day, March 9th at 7:80 p. m., on his travels through Egypt. The public is cordially invited to hear this wide- ly traveled evangelist. With the "power dome" head, the engine in the 1986 Terreplane has	Makoto Satio, former premier and at his death Lord Keeper of the Privy Seal, and General Jotaro Watanabe, chief of military educa- tion. F. D. Duncan Mamed To Succeed Spilman Raleigh, Feb. 26.—F. D. Duncan, accountant of the State Department of Education, has resigned to be- come treasurer and business mana- ger of East Carolina Teachers Col- lege at Greenville, and will be suc- ceeded by Clement A. Davis of Hills- boro.
---	--	---	---	---	--	---	--	--	--