Each minister of the town is giving his support to make the Bible School of paramount and lasting benefit to the entire community. Mrs. J. M. Hobgood will be in charge, assisted by a well-fitting faculty, which will be announced in next week's Enterprise. All children from three to thirteen years of age will be welcome, and are urged to enroll the first day of the school.

HANDKERCHIEF SHOWER

Miss Vivian Dale Case, bride-elect of the month, was honored at a lovely handkerchief shower by her pupils, numbering forty-five, and the grade mothers, Mrs. J. H. Moore and Mrs. J. H. Bynum, on Wednesday afternoon of last week, just after the lunch hour. Miss Case was called from the room while the dainty handkerchiefs were deftly attached to a Japanese parasol, which was presented upon her return by Margaret Bynum and Johnnie Moore. Upon opening the parasol the gifts fluttered out in shower fashion to the great delight of the children as well as to Miss Case.

MERRY MATRONS

Mrs. R. O. Lang delightfully entertained the Merry Matrons on Tuesday afternoon at her home on Beicher street, with Mrs. Wesley R. Willis presiding over the business session, which preceded the program for the afternoon.

Mrs. J. W. Lovelace was in charge of the program, based on "The Ideal Citizen and The American Home," and read a splendid paper under the two topics, relating one to the other.

At the close of the program the hostess served a delicious sweet course to the members and following guests: Mrs. J. W. Bass, Mrs. John R. Joyner, Mrs. A. E. Moore, Miss Georgia Howard, Mrs. John D. Holmes, and guest, Mrs. George Holston, of Clinton; Mrs. J. Y. Monk, and guest, Mrs. A. S. Bynum, of Charlotte; Mrs. J. Seeling Gates, Miss Bettie Joyner, Mrs. W. J. MRS. BANNA J. TYSON PASSES

Mrs. Banna Joyner Tyson, 79, a well known and estimable Pitt County woman, died at her home near Farmville, Thursday morning, after suffering for some months from a dislocated hip and the infirmities of age.

Mrs. Tyson was the daughter of the late Mr. John and Mrs. Sallie Joyner Parker and the widow of the late Joel Tyson. A native of Pitt, she had lived in the county all her life, throughout which she exemplified the attributes of a Christian gentlewoman.

Funeral services will be held from her late home Friday afternoon at three o'clock, the final rites will be conducted by Rev. C. B. Mashburn of the Farmville Christian Church, and interment will be made in the family burial grounds.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Zeb Cummings, Tarboro, Mrs. Jobb Tyson and Mrs. Vernon Moxingo, Farmville; four sons, Van Tyson, Tarboro, B. Frank, Blaney J., and Seth, of Farmville, fifteen grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY

Mrs. P. E. Jones and Mrs. S. A. Roebuck were gracious hostesses to the American Legion Auxiliary on Thursday afternoon, at the home of the former.

Timely and interesting sketches, relative to Poppy Day, just observed, were read by Mrs. M. V. Jones, chairman of the successful local sale, and by Mrs. Alton W. Bobbitt.

Reports from the recent district meeting of the Legion Auxiliary, held in Rocky Mount, were given by the chairman, Mrs. W. M. Willis, and other delegates and visitors from the local Auxiliary, among whom were Mrs. R. LeRoy Rollins, Mrs. B. C. Barbee, Mrs. B. R. Fields, Mrs. Henrietta M. Williamson, Mrs. Alton W. Bobbitt, Mrs. J. W. Parker and Mrs. Elbert Joyner.

Delightful refreshments were served at the conclusion of the program. Additional guests at this time were Mrs. S. M. Jones, of Bethel, and Mrs. W. Finch, of Norfolk, Va.

CLUB PARTY

Among the lovely social affairs of the week was the club party given by Mrs. S. A. Roebuck on Wednesday afternoon, at her home on Wilson street, in which a variety of summer flowers were used in pleasing effect. Members of the New Deal Club and other friends were guests.

Mrs. R. A. Parker distributed the tallies as the guests arrived and directed the way to the dining room, where refreshing fruit punch and dainty sandwiches were served from either end of the table by Mrs. D. R. Morgan and Mrs. P. E. Jones. The table was centered with a silver bowl of mixed summer flowers and candles were in silver holders. Mrs. L. E. Satterfield and Mrs. W. Leslie Smith assisted in serving.

Contract was played at six tables, Mrs. W. E. Joyner receiving the club prize, a compact bearing the name of the Club, and Mrs. Z. M. Whitehurst, the guest award, companion decks of cards, bearing Florida scenes, which together with the tallies and other bridge appointments were reminders of the recent visit to Florida by the hostess.

Mrs. Marion Ward, Mrs. L. T. Pierce and Miss Virginia Ross assisted in serving a tempting ice course.

Often an unfortunate experience on a by-path is just what is needed to keep us on the main road.

ALTARS OF FREEDOM

A Memorial Day Tribute

Patriotism is the soul of a Nation. It inspires men to put country above life; others before self.

Today, we honor once more, those mother's sons who held in their hearts this supreme ideal of citizenship, and gave their lives for it upon the altars of our freedom.

Their glory-wreaths will be kept green, and their names will shine undimmed as long as our Nation shall last.
