

Progress Noted In Seven Churches Here

Membership Comprises Majority of Citizenship — Ministerial Board a Live Organization.

Handsome churches of the strongest denominations in the South, represent the church life in Farmville, the Protestant churches being directed as a whole by a ministerial board, of which Rev. L. R. Ennis, Baptist minister, is president and Rev. J. C. Wooten, Methodist pastor, is secretary. A fine spirit of co-operation exists here among the religious bodies.

Each of the seven churches of the town, listed below, with the date of establishment, has experienced notable progress under the consecrated leadership of the pastors, also recorded, during the past year. The total membership of the seven churches comprise an overwhelming majority of the citizens of this community.

First Christian Church, 1854, Rev. C. B. Mashburn, pastor; Emmanuel Episcopal, 1888, Rev. Jack Rountree, rector; Primitive Baptist, 1900, Rev. J. B. Roberts, pastor; Methodist Episcopal, 1901, Rev. J. C. Wooten, pastor; Missionary Baptist, 1903, Rev. L. R. Ennis, pastor; Presbyterian, 1917, Rev. H. M. Wilson, pastor; St. Elizabeth's Catholic, 1931, Father Michael J. Begley, priest in charge.

BOY SCOUTS REPORT INCREASED ACTIVITY

The local Boy Scout Troop, sponsored by the Rotary Club and under the leadership of Ed Nash Warren, Scoutmaster, reports an increase in membership, co-operative spirit and activities during the year.

The summer scouting program included a camp, held at Camp Charles, and swimming contests, in which the following boys won the first seven places and the second in the other of the eight events of the recent district-wide area meet held here: Ras Jones, Graydon Liles, Edward Harris, Billy Willis, Horton Rountree and Roland Modlin.

In the annual meet of the entire district held a week later in Tarboro, Farmville Scouts won third position for their troop, which was regarded as a splendid showing, considering the advantage in age and training of many of the competing groups.

Farmville Business Firms Boosting Tobacco Market

Pollard Auto Co.
The home of the FORD in Farmville, the largest and most modern automobile plant here, is situated at the intersection of the Greenville highway and Main street, with the dealers, W. A. Pollard, Sr., and J. O. Pollard being distinguished as pioneers in the auto selling industry. Watch the FORDS go by and pay this agency a visit in order to learn just why so many people buy FORDS.

Associated with J. O. Pollard in the sales division of the business are: C. H. Mozingo and J. C. Sawyer. L. E. Flowers has charge of the repair department; G. R. Smith is stock clerk and H. A. Gardner, bookkeeper.

Davis Hotel

Attracted by the homelike and restful atmosphere the well cooked and wholesome food, the clean, cool and comfortable rooms and the cordial welcome of the proprietors, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Mewborn, traveling men, tobaccoists, growers and buyers bring their families and friends to the DAVIS HOTEL and make it their headquarters while in Farmville.

Paint Contractor

J. L. Shackelford, paint and roof contractor, offers you maximum quality paint products and service at minimum prices.

From manufacturer to consumer is one advantage he gives customers who purchase paint and roofing material, the other—a job worthy of one of the best lines sold in America today, that of the SOUTHERN COTTON OIL CO.

ville Market; R. J. Reynolds, Liggett-Myers, Export, Imperial, W. B. Lea and A. C. Monk & Co.

Extensive improvements of their plant here have been made during the past few weeks by A. C. Monk and Company, one of the large domestic companies, which has one of the largest and most up-to-date plants in East Carolina, situated here in Farmville. Recent improvements include a new blending room and an addition, which will permit the employment of 500 workers when the plant is running full capacity.

The remodeled and air conditioned interior of the office division, provides a handsome walnut-paneled office for the president and treasurer, A. C. Monk; a large general office, a lobby and three private offices for other officials of the company. The comfort of a semi-indirect lighting system and drinking fountain was also considered by A. C. Monk, Jr., who had charge of the renovation. A. C., Jr., is second vice-president and assistant treasurer.

Mr. R. L. Davis is vice-president, and R. S. Scott, of Danville, Va. and Louisville, Ky., recently accepted the position of secretary with this company.

B. S. & R. L. Smith

Filling an important place in the community and serving one of its greatest needs are the stock stables of B. S. AND R. L. SMITH, where the buying, selling and exchange of farm animals goes on throughout the entire year. This business, one of the oldest in the town of Farmville, is run by B. S. Smith, an experienced stock dealer, and his son, Robert Lee, who is an aggressive and successful young business man.

B. S. AND R. L. SMITH always have a large and dependable lot of mules and horses on their yards and are ready to assist you at any time in selecting the most necessary part of your farm equipment, first-class stock.

Farmville Bonded Warehouse Co., Inc.

Offering this community the very best storage facilities obtainable, the Farmville Bonded Warehouse, of which G. S. Williams, a local man, is acting assistant manager, is located opposite the Imperial plant on Church street.

A spacious brick building, with a cement floor, metal frame roof and other modern construction to make it thoroughly fireproof, it has a 3175 bale capacity and gives citizens of this section ideal cotton storage conditions.

Fields Jewelry Co.

A varied and up-to-date stock of diamonds, silverware, crystal, novel and staple articles in jewelry and gift goods is carried by FIELDS JEWELRY CO., which is managed by a skilled watchmaker, repairer and engraver, Fields.

Edgecombe County farmers whose tobacco and cotton crops were badly hurt by a recent hail storm have been urged to make the maximum diversion to soil-conserving crops. They still have time to plant conserving crops, the County Agent said.

Keep a Good Laxative always in your home

Among the necessities of home is a good, reliable laxative. Don't be without one! Do your best to prevent constipation. Don't neglect it when you feel any of its disagreeable symptoms coming on. "We have used Theford's Black-Draught for 21 years and have found it a very useful medicine that every family ought to have in their home," writes Mrs. Perry Hicks, of Belton, Texas. "I take Black-Draught for biliousness, constipation and other ills where a good laxative or purgative is needed. I have always found Black-Draught gives good results." Sold in 25-cent packages.
