ATTEND DISTRICT MEET

Local Daughters of the Confederacy attending the 11th district meeting held in Greenville, Wednesday, were: Mrs. R. H. Knott, Mrs. J. W. Parker, Mrs. T. W. Lang, and Mrs. F. M. Davis. Mrs. Parker, as chairman of the state publicity committee, U. D. C., addressed the Daughters in Greenville and in New Bern at the district meeting held there, last week.

Recent cold weather in Rockingham County has killed much of the linden trees that started growing during the winter months.

GREENSBORO COLLEGE NOTES

Miss Vernice Lang Jones, senior at Greensboro College, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. P. E. Jones has been chosen among the attendants on the May Queen, Miss Margaret Taylor, of Southport, at the annual May Day festival, to be held on the front campus of the College, Saturday afternoon, May 8. The May day festival at the Greensboro College is always a brilliant event and a number of Miss Lang's relatives and friends in Farmville are planning to attend.

GIRLS' AUXILIARY

The Girls' Auxiliary met Tuesday afternoon at the Baptist Church under the leadership of Mrs. C. C. Coppedge. The program for the afternoon was based on "People of Other Lands." A new member, Lucile Davis was welcomed into this group. After adjournment the hostesses, Mrs. Coppedge and Miss Virginia Cobb served delicious refreshments.

On the previous Tuesday afternoon this group met and enjoyed an Annie W. Armstrong program with Mrs. John D. Holmes in charge. This was a special meeting on missionaries in foreign fields and the prayers and offerings were for missions.

Dorothy Anne Skinner, Secretary-Treasurer.

U. D. C.

Daughters of the Confederacy gathered at the home of Mrs. A. C. Monk on Friday afternoon for the March meeting of the Rebecca Winbourne Chapter. The Monk home was decorated throughout with quantities of lovely spring flowers.

The year books, based on the subject, "Things of the Spirit in the Army of the Confederacy," were distributed, and the splendid report given at the district meeting in Greenville was read. The report showed all obligations paid, seven new members added during the year, and the awarding of a cup by the general convention, U. D. C., to one of the chapter members, Mrs. J. W. Parker, for her paper on John C. Calhoun. Mrs. E. A. Fountain, Sr., of Fountain, was elected to membership at this time.

Featuring the program was a paper by Mrs. J. R. Newton dealing with Robert E. Lee as a Christian soldier. Two poems by North Carolinians, "Know the U. D. C.," by Rev. A. C. D. Noe, and "The Old Confederate Story," by C. W. Brooks, were read by Mrs. J. W. Parker.

Mrs. chapter had, as guest the house guest of the hostess, Mrs. George Monk, of Shanghai, China. A delightful salad course was served after adjournment.

Recent cold weather in Rockingham County has killed much of the linden trees that started growing during the winter months.
