believes $30,090,000 is enough to ap-propriate now for flood control, although demands for a far greater sum are before Congress.

Asked about a statement by Senator Byrd (D-Va) that $25,000,000 could be saved by merging the Home Owners' Loan Corporation and the Federal Housing Administration, the President expressed doubt such a saving would result.

In an economy meet, the Senate appropriations committee slashed approximiately 25 per cent from a small deficiency appropriations bill It cut $403,500 from the $1,655,000 approved by the House, applying the reduction equally to the Federal Trade Commission, the rail retirement board and the bureaus of navigation and the mint. The Interstate Commerce Commission's airmail regulation allowance was boosted from $20,000 to $25,000, however

The President started the day by expressing concern to Congress over rising living cost: In a letter to Vice-President Garner, he said "the present hazard of undue advances in prices, with a resultant rise in the cost of living, makes it most untimely to legalize any competitive or marketing practice calculated to facilitate increases in the cost of numerous and important articles which American householders, and consumers generally, buy."
