FRIDAK, NOVEMBER 5, 1937.

Ky., and Washington, N. C., spent 3:30 P. M. Woman's Club meets themum garden. at the home of Mrs. J. Sterseveral days of this week with Mrs.

THE FARMYDALE ENTERPRISE, PARMYDAE, PUT COURTY, N. C. Honor Roll Ror LITERARY CLUB

Williford;

Roberson;

Sixth Grade:

Forth Grade:

A program, marked by interesting variety, was presented at the Literary Club meeting, Wednesday after

The Honor Roll statients for the noon, by Mrs. J. I. Morgan Sr., who second month of the first sen discussed the lives of Grant Wood, Thomas Benton and McReady and of the Farmville graded school are exhibited copies of their pictures, announced as follows: under the subject of "Gothic Art"; First Gradet Mary Frances Allen, Mavis Holloby Mrs. Henrietta M. Williamson, man, Edith Justice, Jane Kittrell, who read a poem, "North Carolina," Rutuh Moore, Elsle May, Joyce Perry by Annie McGhee Brady; and by Mrs. John B. Joyner, who discuss- Fannie Quinn, Jo Ann Rollins, Janet ed the life and times of the French Stansill, Evelyn Speight, Helen Thomas, Sallie Brown Tyson, Jay Flana-Queen, Catherine DeMedici. A splendid report of the recent gan; district meeting of federated clubs Second Grade: at Plymouth was given by Miss Ta-Moore, Joyce Tyson; bitha DeVisconti. Handsome chrysanthemums and Third Grade: dahlias were in pleasing arrangement in the home of the hostess, Mrs. P. 0. Jones, who served delicious re- Thorne, Sybil Barrett, Jacqueline freshments after adjournment.

GARDEN CLUB

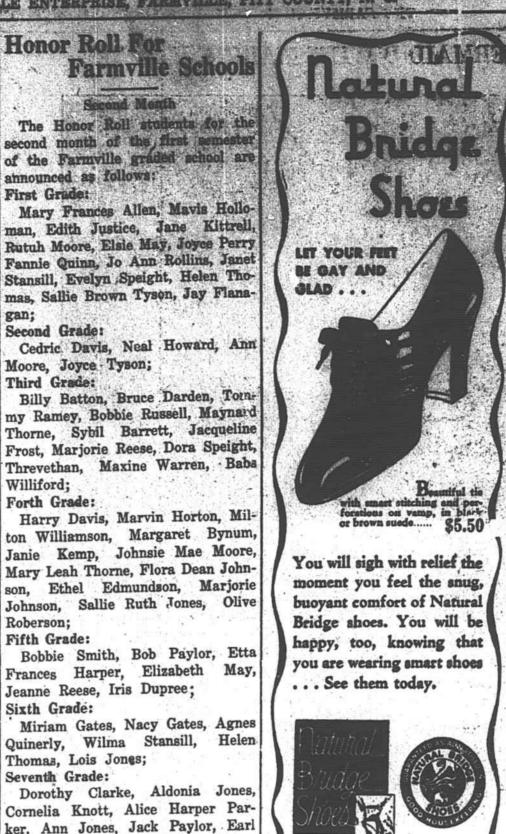

Members of the Garden Club enjoyed an interesting meeting on Mon- ton Williamson, Margaret Bynum, day afternoon of this week, with Janie Kemp, Johnsie Mae Moore, Mrs. A. C. Monk Sr., as hostess. Mary Leah Thorne, Flora Dean John-Lovely roses and chrysanthemums son, Ethel Edmundson, Marjorie were artistically arranged in the Johnson, Sallie Ruth Jones, Olive Monk home, Miss Bettie Joyner presided, re- Fifth Grade: ported the recent district meeting Bobbie Smith, Bob Paylor, Etta held in Plymouth, and announced Dr. Frances Harper, Elizabeth May, Crisbel's lecture on "Health In The Jeanne Reese, Iris Dupree; Garden Clinic," to be given at Duke University this month, and the Christmas Decoration exhibit to be held in Quinerly, Wilma Stansill, Helen Thomas, Lois Jones; Raleigh in December. The program consisted of two sel- Seventh Grade: ections, "The Surprise Package," and Dorothy Clarke, Aldonia Jones,

"Gay Winter Flowers," read by Mrs. Cornelia Knott, Alice Harper Par-W. Hodge, and an article on "Flower ker, Ann Jones, Jack Paylor, Earl Arrangement," read by Mrs. D. R. Redick, Addie Ruth Taylor, Annie Louise Wooten, Annie Laurie Skin-Morgan. A delightful sweet course with ner:

salted nuts and coffee was served by Eighth Grade: Bobby Rouse, Boots Thomas, Dorthe hostess, assisted by Mrs. J. T. Thorne, Mrs. Mary M. Patterson and othy Lewis; Ninth Grade: Mrs. Floyd Warren. Favors of seed William Pollard, Hattie Belle from her garden were presented to the members and special guest, Mrs. Turnage, Jesse Gay, Lou Nell Mor-Frank M. Davis, Sr., by Mrs. Monk. gan, Mavis Leggett; After adjournment the club mem-Tenth Grade: Ernest Lee Quinn, Robert Pierce, bers accepted the invitation of Mrs. T. E. Joyner to visit her chrysan- Blanche Bryan, Hazel Jones, Grace Humbles; Eleventh Grade:

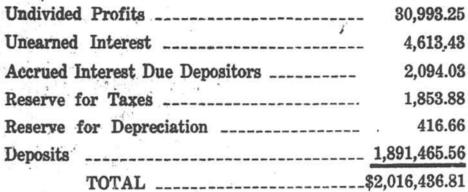

Loan

Banl

	tere frankter
STATEMENT OF THE CONDILION OF	THE
Bank of Farmy	ille
FARMVILLE, N. C.
THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1937
RESOURSES
s & Discounts =$	856,558.29
ting House	25,000.00
uture of Lixonies	2,734.33
Bonds	88,629.69
. State Bonds	112,000.00
	107,035.58
us & Bonds	600.00
& Due From Banks1,	323,883.92
TOTAL$2,	016.436.81
LIABILITIES	2 V 9

Capital Stock _____$ Surplus

MRS. BRIDGERS BURIED HERE Mrs. Melba Bridgers, wife of J. college course with a lighter heart W. Bridgers, died suddenly Friday than I had anticipated.

win first prize and to complete my FOR SALE - Cut Flowers-home morning at her home near Stantons- I hope to see each of you person- Mrs. E. F. Gaynor, Dial 220-1.

grown and green house. Attractive baskets. Funeral Designs. Call

50,000.00

35,000.00

several days of this week with Mrs.	at the home of Mrs. J. Ster-	ANNOUNCES ENGAGEMENT	Clarence Wellons, Frances New-	hurg. Mrs. Bridgers was the daugh-	ally at some time and tell you of	DIANO WE HAVE A modered
J. W. Parker.	ling Gates with Mrs. George	ANNOUNCED Interror	ton, Doris Rouse, Frances Smith.	ter of the late J. W. and Mattle E.	my great happiness and deep appre-	PIANO-WE HAVE A good used
4 5 5	W. Davis, Mrs. John D. Hol-	Mrs. D. R. Morgan was hostess at		Russell, and until a few years ago	ciation,	,
Misses Louise and Virginia Har-	mes and Mrs. E. C. Carr as	a lovely bridge party on Monday	FIRE RESULTS FROM	had made her home in Farmville.	MARTHA COBB	BE HAD FOR THE SMALL BAL-
ris students at W. C. U. N. C.,	joint hostesses.	evening, at which time she announc-	LEAK IN STOVE PIPE	Funeral rites were held Saturday		ANCE OWING ON SAME. COME
Greensboro, spent the week end at	7:00 P. MI. O. O. F.	ed the engagement of Miss Sarah	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home		IN OUR STORE AT 335 N. Queen their home here.	7:30 P. MBoy Scouts.	ed the engagement of miss baran	Firemen, answering a call on	of the Reverend P. D. Woodall of		Street, Kinston, or write ALBERT
	Saturday, 13	Elizabeth Eason, daughter of the late Gaston and Mrs. Elizabeth Peo-			Washington Court House, Chio-	F. JOHNSON, Box 603, Kinston, N.
Mrs. Howard Johnson, of Dunn,	1:00 P MMajor Benjamin Gay	late Gaston and Mrs. Elizabeth Feo-	that an amlasion had taken place in	the Stantonburg Methodist Church,	Wasnington Court House, Onto-	C. 4-tp formerly Miss Marguerite Drake and	1:00 P MMajor Benjamin day	ples Eason, to David Thurman Har-	that an explosion had taken place in	Interment was made in Hollywood	while spectators looked breatnessly	PRIMAR MANA DALA a former resident of Farmville, visit-	Chapter, D. A. R., meets at	ris, son of Mrs. Louise Dixon Harris	the oven of a kerosene range in and	Cemetery here.	on, James Knisley sightless violionist	REMEMBER YOUR DEAD- By ed friends here Thursday.	home of Mrs. T. C. Turnage	and the late William Howard Harris.	home of fed L. Albritton, as the fee	Surviving are her husband, a son,	clambered out onto the third-story	having their monuments cleaned,
B B	with Mrs. Joe H. Bynum as	Autumn foliage and lovely chry-	sult of a leak in the feed pipe. Flames	J. C. Bridgers, a daughter, Doris	ledge of a building across the street,	when weathered and stained, by
Mr. and Mrs. W. Alexander Allen	joint hostess.	santhemums made a colorful setting	were brought under control limited-	Bridgers, two sisters, Mrs. L. J.	inched his way to a distant window	men with many years experience.
Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Parker		for six tables. Mrs. W. F. Rolph	iately and damages were due largely	Williford of Farmville; Mrs. C. B.	and let himself into his room. Ques-	See WATT PARKER, Box 104, attended the Mayo-Wiggins wedding	TO HOLD BAZAAR NOVEMBER 10	compiled high score and was awarded	to a dense smoke, which filled the	Owens, of Stantonburg; two brothers	tioned the blind man admitted that	Farmville, N. C., Phone 434-6.
attended the Mayo-Wiggins wedding		a compact. Miss Eason was present-	house.	J. E. Russell, Farmville, and L. J.	he had forgotten his key and had to	4tpd.
in Tarboro Thursday evening.	The Woman's Council of the Chist-	ad with silver in her chosen pattern.	Mr. and Mrs. Albritton and son,	Russell, Eountain.	go out of a hall window and around the second secon	ian Church, of which Mrs. Henrietta	Drive to the serving of delicious	Harry, had just driven away in the		the ledge to gain admittance.	IF YOU LIKE A Real Home Cooked
Friends will be glad to learn that G. A. Jones has returned from a	M Williamson is president, announc-	refreshments, balloons were placed as	car when the explosion occured and	It is not all of Life to live,		Fruit Cake with plenty of fruit
G. A. Jones has returned from a	es that its annual bazaar will be	centerpieces on each table bearing	returning fifteen minutes later they	Ti i and all of Death to dia		and flavors. Place your order early Durnbann nospical da de	held in the basement of the church	the inscription Elizabeth-David, Nov-	found the fire out. The alarm having	The last word we can give	NEURITIS	with MRS. J. L. BAUGHAM at operation and is able to be up.	on Wednesday, November 10, with a	ember 24, announcing the approach-	been turned in by a maid, who had	Is the true but sad old word,		Belk-Tylers. 11-1-37-tf sumptious turkey dinner planned for	ing marriage date.	had the presence of mind to remove	"Good-bye." -Contributed.
mis. Louise ment			the two oil tanks from the stove and	dood-bye.	Your physician will tell you that	****
Arti, David, Allicia and a	twelve and six o'clock. A lovely col-	Guests were; Mirs, N. I. Rulling	commy the small daughter of the		your neuritis, rheumatism or sciatica	H DAVIS HOTEL H
Harris, were guests of Mr. and Mrs.	lection of handmade articles will be	Mrs. Everette James, Miss Mae An-	hangehold to a place of safety.	NOTE OF APPRECIATION
C. T. Dixon in Wilson, Sunday.	on sale.	derson, Mrs. Herbert Acton, Mrs. C.	household to a place of balloup.		is probably caused or aggravated by
	The Council invites the entire com-	L. Daniel, Mrs. Robert Lee Smith,	VICTIM, HER MOTHER	I wish to express my sincere ap-	excess uric acid or other poisons.	+ Proprietors +
Mr. and Mrs. John Lossitzer from	munity to take one or both meals	Miss Lurline Bass, Miss Vernice Lang		presistion to the many kind friends.	This being true you can get a phy-	+ Kooms-SI 25 and $1.75 +
me in initian Mr and Mrs	with it on Wednesday next, and as-	LODOG MISS MOZEL MORE, MISS MAL		1 1 1 1 mm mont and	I SICIAN'S DREACTIDEION SE SNV OFILY SLOPE	Li Drop Foot (Da I
The Lachitzers are mak-	sures patrons of a spiendid diffici,		New IOIKDeems a crond	Juning the magnet	I that will relieve you of the terrible	T CUINTELAN EDIMATING PER T ing a tour of the Southern States.	appetizing and well served.	WITE JACK LEWIS, MIS, COUCS, 44100	Silverman, curious, shouldered her	subscription contest, conducted by the	pain and agony in a few days. Just	‡ Dinner-Supper, Wk65c ‡
a tour of mic sector		Edna Foust Harris, Miss Mary Friar Rouse, Miss Natalie Vought, Mrs.	way through and saw that a woman	Farmville Enterprise, enabling me to	ask your druggist for RUMA-BAN.	Addated addated addated addated
Misses Nathalie Johnston of Wen-	HONORED BY SCHOOL	Daugo Migg Natolie Vollent, Mrs.	had been hit by all automounte. When
Misses Nathane Johnston Viga Willie	HONORED BI SCHOOL	M. V. Jones, Mrs. S. A. Garris, Mrs.	she saw the victim's face, it was her dell, and twin sister, Miss Willie,		Alton W. Bobbitt, Mrs. W. F. Rolph,	mother, left Wednesday to take a vacation	Friends of Miss Lucille Finch, of	The DI War Mine Month Borny	and the second s		RCO trip to Oklahoma, where they will	Henderson, who spends several weeks	Miss Sallie Norwood, Miss Virginia	FOR RENT DECEMBER FIRST:
visit relatives.	each summer here with her grand-	MISS Same Hornoody shand tog	Small Unfurnished House. Mrs.
	mother, Mrs. J. M. Christman, will	Spell.	Julian H. Rumley. 1tp.
Miss Thelma Jones, of Gatesville,	be interested to learn that she was	IN COMPLIMENT TO			ALL WOOL FAB	RICS IN NEWEST is spending some time here with her	na interested to rearn that she	IN COMPLEMENT TO
1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1	thistoon now members in-		Silence may be ever so wise but
Darents, Mr. and Mr.S. I.	among thirteen new members in-	MRS McCLURE	Silence may be ever so wise but		STYLES AND P
before leaving to assume duties of	among thirteen new members in- duced into the Beta Club, a national	MRS. McCLURE	is seldom answers perplexing ques-		STYLES AND P	ATTERNS
before leaving to assume duties of	among thirteen new members in- duced into the Beta Club, a national honorary society, Monday afternoon,	MRS. McCLURE Mrs. J. M. Christman was gracious	is seldom answers perplexing ques-		STYLES AND P	ATTERNS
before leaving to assume duties of an out-of-state position.	among thirteen new members in- duced into the Beta Club, a national honorary society, Monday afternoon, at a special induction service held at	MRS. McCLURE Mrs. J. M. Christman was gracious hostess at bridge on Tuesday even-	is seldom answers perplexing ques- tions.		STYLES AND P
before leaving to assume duties of an out-of-state position. * * *	among thirteen new members in- duced into the Beta Club, a national honorary society, Monday afternoon, at a special induction service held at the Henderson High School.	MRS. McCLURE Mrs. J. M. Christman was gracious hostess at bridge on Tuesday even- ing, honoring Mrs. B. F. McClure,	is seldom answers perplexing ques- tions.		STYLES AND P	ATTERNS
before leaving to assume duties of an out-of-state position.  Mr. and Mrs. C. P. McRae and	among thirteen new members in- duced into the Beta Club, a national honorary society, Monday afternoon, at a special induction service held at the Henderson High School. Students are chosen for member-	MRS. McCLURE Mrs. J. M. Christman was gracious hostess at bridge on Tuesday even- ing, honoring Mrs. B. F. McClure, of Maysville Ky. house guest of	is seldom answers perplexing ques- tions.		STYLES AND P	ATTERNS
before leaving to assume duties of an out-of-state position.  Mr. and Mrs. C. P. McRae and daughter have returned to Bruns-	among thirteen new members in- duced into the Beta Club, a national honorary society, Monday afternoon, at a special induction service held at the Henderson High School. Students are chosen for member- ship to this Chub, which is limited	MRS. McCLURE Mrs. J. M. Christman was gracious hostess at bridge on Tuesday even- ing, honoring Mrs. B. F. McClure, of Maysville, Ky., house guest of	is seldom answers perplexing ques- tions.		STYLES AND P	ATTERNS
before leaving to assume duties of an out-of-state position.  Mr. and Mrs. C. P. McRae and daughter have returned to Bruns- wick Ga. after a visit to Mrs. Mc-	among thirteen new members in- duced into the Beta Club, a national honorary society, Monday afternoon, at a special induction service held at the Henderson High School. Students are chosen for member- ship to this Chub, which is limited to 25, for their scholarship, school	MRS. McCLURE Mrs. J. M. Christman was gracious hostess at bridge on Tuesday even- ing, honoring Mrs. B. F. McClure, of Maysville, Ky., house guest of Mrs. J. W. Parker, and a popular resident of Farmville for several	is seldom answers perplexing ques- tions. PARAMOUNT THEATRE		STYLES AND P	ATTERNS
before leaving to assume duties of an out-of-state position.  Mr. and Mrs. C. P. McRae and daughter have returned to Bruns- wick, Ga., after a visit to Mrs. Mc- Rae's sister, Mrs. J. Irvan Morgan	among thirteen new members in- duced into the Beta Club, a national honorary society, Monday afternoon, at a special induction service held at the Henderson High School. Students are chosen for member- ship to this Chub, which is limited to 25, for their scholarship, school	MRS. McCLURE Mrs. J. M. Christman was gracious hostess at bridge on Tuesday even- ing, honoring Mrs. B. F. McClure, of Maysville, Ky., house guest of Mrs. J. W. Parker, and a popular resident of Farmville for several	is seldom answers perplexing ques- tions. PARAMOUNT THEATRE		STYLES AND P	ATTERNS
before leaving to assume duties of an out-of-state position.  Mr. and Mrs. C. P. McRae and daughter have returned to Bruns- wick, Ga., after a visit to Mrs. Mc- Rae's sister, Mrs. J. Irvan Morgan Jr., and Mr. Morgan.	among thirteen new members in- duced into the Beta Club, a national honorary society, Monday afternoon, at a special induction service held at the Henderson High School. Students are chosen for member- ship to this Chub, which is limited to 25, for their scholarship, school attitude, conduct, school spirit and	MRS. McCLURE Mrs. J. M. Christman was gracious hostess at bridge on Tuesday even- ing, honoring Mrs. B. F. McClure, of Maysville, Ky., house guest of Mrs. J. W. Parker, and a popular resident of Farmville for several seasons when her husband was auc-	is seldom answers perplexing ques- tions. DARAMOUNT THEATRE FARMVILLE, N. C.		STYLES AND P	ATTERNS
before leaving to assume duties of an out-of-state position.  Mr. and Mrs. C. P. McRae and daughter have returned to Bruns- wick, Ga., after a visit to Mrs. Mc- Rae's sister, Mrs. J. Irvan Morgan Jr., and Mr. Morgan.	among thirteen new members in- duced into the Beta Club, a national honorary society, Monday afternoon, at a special induction service held at the Henderson High School. Students are chosen for member- ship to this Chib, which is limited to 25, for their scholarship, school attitude, conduct, school spirit and leadership and must be approved by	MRS. McCLURE Mrs. J. M. Christman was gracious hostess at bridge on Tuesday even- ing, honoring Mrs. B. F. McClure, of Maysville, Ky., house guest of Mrs. J. W. Parker, and a popular resident of Farmville for several seasons when her husband was auc- tioneer on this market. Autumn	is seldom answers perplexing ques- tions. DARAMOUNT THEATRE FARMVILLE, N. C.		STYLES AND P	ATTERNS
before leaving to assume duties of an out-of-state position.  Mr. and Mrs. C. P. McRae and daughter have returned to Bruns- wick, Ga., after a visit to Mrs. Mc- Rae's sister, Mrs. J. Irvan Morgan Jr., and Mr. Morgan.  Reverend and Mrs. C. B. Mash-	among thirteen new members in- duced into the Beta Club, a national honorary society, Monday afternoon, at a special induction service held at the Henderson High School. Students are chosen for member- ship to this Chub, which is limited to 25, for their scholarship, school attitude, conduct, school spirit and leadership and must be approved by the faculty and old members of the	MRS. McCLURE Mrs. J. M. Christman was gracious hostess at bridge on Tuesday even- ing, honoring Mrs. B. F. McClure, of Maysville, Ky., house guest of Mrs. J. W. Parker, and a popular resident of Farmville for several seasons when her husband was auc- tioneer on this market. Autumn flowers in gay colors were used	is seldom answers perplexing ques- tions. PARAMOUNT THEATRE FARMVILLE, N. C. WEEK STARTING NOV. 7.		STYLES AND P	ATTERNS
before leaving to assume duties of an out-of-state position. " Mr. and Mrs. C. P. McRae and daughter have returned to Bruns- wick, Ga., after a visit to Mrs. Mc- Rae's sister, Mrs. J. Irvan Morgan Jr., and Mr. Morgan. Reverend and Mrs. C. B. Mash- burn and Mrs. Henrietta M. William-	among thirteen new members in- duced into the Beta Club, a national honorary society, Monday afternoon, at a special induction service held at the Henderson High School. Students are chosen for member- ship to this Chib, which is limited to 25, for their scholarship, school attitude, conduct, school spirit and leadership and must be approved by	MRS. McCLURE Mrs. J. M. Christman was gracious hostess at bridge on Tuesday even- ing, honoring Mrs. B. F. McClure, of Maysville, Ky., house guest of Mrs. J. W. Parker, and a popular resident of Farmville for several seasons when her husband was auc- tioneer on this market. Autumn flowers in gay colors were used throughout the home.	is seldom answers perplexing ques- tions. PARAMOUNT THEATRE FARMVILLE, N. C. WEEK STARTING NOV. 7.		STYLES AND P	ATTERNS
before leaving to assume duties of an out-of-state position.  Mr. and Mrs. C. P. McRae and daughter have returned to Bruns- wick, Ga., after a visit to Mrs. Mc- Rae's sister, Mrs. J. Irvan Morgan Jr., and Mr. Morgan. Reverend and Mrs. C. B. Mash- burg and Mrs. Henrietta M. William-	among thirteen new members in- duced into the Beta Club, a national honorary society, Monday afternoon, at a special induction service held at the Henderson High School. Students are chosen for member- ship to this Chib, which is limited to 25, for their scholarship, school attitude, conduct, school spirit and leadership and must be approved by the faculty and old members of the organization.	MRS. McCLURE Mrs. J. M. Christman was gracious hostess at bridge on Tuesday even- ing, honoring Mrs. B. F. McClure, of Maysville, Ky., house guest of Mrs. J. W. Parker, and a popular resident of Farmville for several seasons when her husband was auc- tioneer on this market. Autumn flowers in gay colors were used throughout the home. High score award, a vase, was won	is seldom answers perplexing ques- tions. DARAMOUNT THEATRE FARMVILLE, N. C. WEEK STARTING NOV. 7. SUNDAY - MONDAY		STYLES AND P	ATTERNS
before leaving to assume duties of an out-of-state position.  Mr. and Mrs. C. P. McRae and daughter have returned to Bruns- wick, Ga., after a visit to Mrs. Mc- Rae's sister, Mrs. J. Irvan Morgan Jr., and Mr. Morgan. Reverend and Mrs. C. B. Mash- burg and Mrs. Henrietta M. William- son, president of the Woman's Coun- cil and a large number of the con-	among thirteen new members in- duced into the Beta Club, a national honorary society, Monday afternoon, at a special induction service held at the Henderson High School. Students are chosen for member- ship to this Chub, which is limited to 25, for their scholarship, school attitude, conduct, school spirit and leadership and must be approved by the faculty and old members of the organization. MRS. ANNIE FULFORD JOYNER	MRS. McCLURE Mrs. J. M. Christman was gracious hostess at bridge on Tuesday even- ing, honoring Mrs. B. F. McClure, of Maysville, Ky., house guest of Mrs. J. W. Parker, and a popular resident of Farmville for several seasons when her husband was auc- tioneer on this market. Autumn flowers in gay colors were used throughout the home. High score award, a vase, was won by Mrs. S. V. Lore, and the honoree	is seldom answers perplexing ques- tions. DARAMOUNT THEATRE FARMVILLE, N. C. WEEK STARTING NOV. 7. SUNDAY - MONDAY Eddie Cantor in		STYLES AND P	ATTERNS
before leaving to assume duties of an out-of-state position. """ Mr. and Mrs. C. P. McRae and daughter have returned to Bruns- wick, Ga., after a visit to Mrs. Mc- Rae's sister, Mrs. J. Irvan Morgan Jr., and Mr. Morgan. "" Reverend and Mrs. C. B. Mash- burg and Mrs. Henrietta M. William- son, president of the Woman's Coun- cil and a large number of the con- gregation of the local Christian	among thirteen new members in- duced into the Beta Club, a national honorary society, Monday afternoon, at a special induction service held at the Henderson High School. Students are chosen for member- ship to this Chub, which is limited to 25, for their scholarship, school attitude, conduct, school spirit and leadership and must be approved by the faculty and old members of the organization. MRS. ANNIE FULFORD JOYNER	MRS. McCLURE Mrs. J. M. Christman was gracious hostess at bridge on Tuesday even- ing, honoring Mrs. B. F. McClure, of Maysville, Ky., house guest of Mrs. J. W. Parker, and a popular resident of Farmville for several seasons when her husband was auc- tioneer on this market. Autumn flowers in gay colors were used throughout the home. High score award, a vase, was won by Mrs. S. V. Lore, and the honoree and other out-of-town guests, Mrs.	is seldom answers perplexing ques- tions.		STYLES AND P	ATTERNS
before leaving to assume duties of an out-of-state position.  Mr. and Mrs. C. P. McRae and daughter have returned to Bruns- wick, Ga., after a visit to Mrs. Mc- Rae's sister, Mrs. J. Irvan Morgan Jr., and Mr. Morgan.  Reverend and Mrs. C. B. Mash- burg and Mrs. Henrietta M. William- son, president of the Woman's Coun- cil and a large number of the con- gregation of the local Christian Church attended the state conven-	among thirteen new members in- duced into the Beta Club, a national honorary society, Monday afternoon, at a special induction service held at the Henderson High School. Students are chosen for member- ship to this Chib, which is limited to 25, for their scholarship, school attitude, conduct, school spirit and leadership and must be approved by the faculty and old members of the organization. MRS. ANNIE FULFORD JOYNER	MRS. McCLURE Mrs. J. M. Christman was gracious hostess at bridge on Tuesday even- ing, honoring Mrs. B. F. McClure, of Maysville, Ky., house guest of Mrs. J. W. Parker, and a popular resident of Farmville for several seasons when her husband was auc- tioneer on this market. Autumn flowers in gay colors were used throughout the home. High score award, a vase, was won by Mrs. S. V. Lore, and the honoree and other out-of-town guests, Mrs. J. B. Cutchins, of Washington, and	is seldom answers perplexing ques- tions.		STYLES AND P	ATTERNS
before leaving to assume duties of an out-of-state position.  Mr. and Mrs. C. P. McRae and daughter have returned to Bruns- wick, Ga., after a visit to Mrs. Mc- Rae's sister, Mrs. J. Irvan Morgan Jr., and Mr. Morgan.  Reverend and Mrs. C. B. Mash- burg and Mrs. Henrietta M. William- son, president of the Woman's Coun- cil and a large number of the con- gregation of the local Christian Church attended the state conven-	among thirteen new members in- duced into the Beta Club, a national honorary society, Monday afternoon, at a special induction service held at the Henderson High School. Students are chosen for member- ship to this Chub, which is limited to 25, for their scholarship, school attitude, conduct, school spirit and leadership and must be approved by the faculty and old members of the organization. MRS. ANNIE FULFORD JOYNER Funeral services for Mrs. Annie	MRS. McCLURE Mrs. J. M. Christman was gracious hostess at bridge on Tuesday even- ing, honoring Mrs. B. F. McClure, of Maysville, Ky., house guest of Mrs. J. W. Parker, and a popular resident of Farmville for several seasons when her husband was auc- tioneer on this market. Autumn flowers in gay colors were used throughout the home. High score award, a vase, was won by Mrs. S. V. Lore, and the honoree and other out-of-town guests, Mrs. J. B. Cutchins, of Washington, and Mrs. Herbert Acton, of Raleigh, were	is seldom answers perplexing ques- tions.		STYLES AND P	ATTERNS
before leaving to assume duties of an out-of-state position.  Mr. and Mrs. C. P. McRae and daughter have returned to Bruns- wick, Ga., after a visit to Mrs. Mc- Rae's sister, Mrs. J. Irvan Morgan Jr., and Mr. Morgan. Reverend and Mrs. C. B. Mash- burg and Mrs. Henrietta M. William- son, president of the Woman's Coun- cil and a large number of the con- gregation of the local Christian Church attended the state conven- tion of that denomination held in	among thirteen new members in- duced into the Beta Club, a national honorary society, Monday afternoon, at a special induction service held at the Henderson High School. Students are chosen for member- ship to this Chub, which is limited to 25, for their scholarship, school attitude, conduct, school spirit and leadership and must be approved by the faculty and old members of the organization. MRS. ANNIE FULFORD JOYNER Funeral services for Mrs. Annie	MRS. McCLURE Mrs. J. M. Christman was gracious hostess at bridge on Tuesday even- ing, honoring Mrs. B. F. McClure, of Maysville, Ky., house guest of Mrs. J. W. Parker, and a popular resident of Farmville for several seasons when her husband was auc- tioneer on this market. Autumn flowers in gay colors were used throughout the home. High score award, a vase, was won by Mrs. S. V. Lore, and the honoree and other out-of-town guests, Mrs. J. B. Cutchins, of Washington, and Mrs. Herbert Acton, of Raleigh, were	is seldom answers perplexing ques- tions.		STYLES AND P	ATTERNS
before leaving to assume duties of an out-of-state position.  Mr. and Mrs. C. P. McRae and daughter have returned to Bruns- wick, Ga., after a visit to Mrs. Mc- Rae's sister, Mrs. J. Irvan Morgan Jr., and Mr. Morgan.  Reverend and Mrs. C. B. Mash- burg and Mrs. Henrietta M. William- son, president of the Woman's Coun- cil and a large number of the con- gregation of the local Christian Church attended the state conven-	among thirteen new members in- duced into the Beta Club, a national honorary society, Monday afternoon, at a special induction service held at the Henderson High School. Students are chosen for member- ship to this Chib, which is limited to 25, for their scholarship, school attitude, conduct, school spirit and leadership and must be approved by the faculty and old members of the organization. MRS. ANNIE FULFORD JOYNER Funeral services for Mrs. Annie Fulford Joyner, 62, widow of the late Jason Joyner, well known and	MRS. McCLURE Mrs. J. M. Christman was gracious hostess at bridge on Tuesday even- ing, honoring Mrs. B. F. McClure, of Maysville, Ky., house guest of Mrs. J. W. Parker, and a popular resident of Farmville for several seasons when her husband was auc- tioneer on this market. Autumn flowers in gay colors were used throughout the home. High score award, a vase, was won by Mrs. S. V. Lore, and the honoree and other out-of-town guests, Mrs. J. B. Cutchins, of Washington, and Mrs. Herbert Acton, of Raleigh, were presented with lovely framed pictur- es.	is seldom answers perplexing ques- tions. PARAMOUNT THEATRE FARMVILLE, N. C. WEEK STARTING NOV. 7. WEEK STARTING NOV. 7. SUNDAY - MONDAY Eddie Cantor in "ALI BABA GOES TO TOWN" THURSDAY Warren		STYLES AND P	ATTERNS
before leaving to assume duties of an out-of-state position.  Mr. and Mrs. C. P. McRae and daughter have returned to Bruns- wick, Ga., after a visit to Mrs. Mc- Rae's sister, Mrs. J. Irvan Morgan Jr., and Mr. Morgan.  Reverend and Mrs. C. B. Mash- burg and Mrs. Henrietta M. William- son, president of the Woman's Coun- cil and a large number of the con- gregation of the local Christian Church attended the state conven- tion of that denomination held in Goldsboro this week.	among thirteen new members in- duced into the Beta Club, a national honorary society, Monday afternoon, at a special induction service held at the Henderson High School. Students are chosen for member- ship to this Chib, which is limited to 25, for their scholarship, school attitude, conduct, school spirit and leadership and must be approved by the faculty and old members of the organization. MRS. ANNIE FULFORD JOYNER Funeral services for Mrs. Annie Fulford Joyner, 62, widow of the late Jason Joyner, well known and highly regarded in this section of	MRS. McCLURE Mrs. J. M. Christman was gracious hostess at bridge on Tuesday even- ing, honoring Mrs. B. F. McClure, of Maysville, Ky., house guest of Mrs. J. W. Parker, and a popular resident of Farmville for several seasons when her husband was auc- tioneer on this market. Autumn flowers in gay colors were used throughout the home. High score award, a vase, was won by Mrs. S. V. Lore, and the honoree and other out-of-town guests, Mrs. J. B. Cutchins, of Washington, and Mrs. Herbert Acton, of Raleigh, were presented with lovely framed pictur- es, A delectable salad course with cof-	is seldom answers perplexing ques- tions. PARAMOUNT THEATRE FARMVILLE, N. C. WEEK STARTING NOV. 7. SUNDAY - MONDAY Eddie Cantor in "ALI BABA GOES TO TOWN" THURSDAY Wynn Gibson Warren		STYLES AND P	ATTERNS
before leaving to assume duties of an out-of-state position.  Mr. and Mrs. C. P. McRae and daughter have returned to Bruns- wick, Ga., after a visit to Mrs. Mc- Rae's sister, Mrs. J. Irvan Morgan Jr., and Mr. Morgan. Reverend and Mrs. C. B. Mash- burg and Mrs. Henrietta M. William- son, president of the Woman's Coun- cil and a large number of the con- gregation of the local Christian Church attended the state conven- tion of that denomination held in	among thirteen new members in- duced into the Beta Club, a national honorary society, Monday afternoon, at a special induction service held at the Henderson High School. Students are chosen for member- ship to this Chib, which is limited to 25, for their scholarship, school attitude, conduct, school spirit and leadership and must be approved by the faculty and old members of the organization. MRS. ANNIE FULFORD JOYNER Funeral services for Mrs. Annie Fulford Joyner, 62, widow of the late Jason Joyner, well known and highly regarded in this section of	MRS. McCLURE Mrs. J. M. Christman was gracious hostess at bridge on Tuesday even- ing, honoring Mrs. B. F. McClure, of Maysville, Ky., house guest of Mrs. J. W. Parker, and a popular resident of Farmville for several seasons when her husband was auc- tioneer on this market. Autumn flowers in gay colors were used throughout the home. High score award, a vase, was won by Mrs. S. V. Lore, and the honoree and other out-of-town guests, Mrs. J. B. Cutchins, of Washington, and Mrs. Herbert Acton, of Raleigh, were presented with lovely framed pictur- es, A delectable salad course with cof-	is seldom answers perplexing ques- tions.		STYLES AND P	ATTERNS
before leaving to assume duties of an out-of-state position.  Mr. and Mrs. C. P. McRae and daughter have returned to Bruns- wick, Ga., after a visit to Mrs. Mc- Rae's sister, Mrs. J. Irvan Morgan Jr., and Mr. Morgan.  Reverend and Mrs. C. B. Mash- burg and Mrs. Henrietta M. William- son, president of the Woman's Coun- cil and a large number of the con- gregation of the local Christian Church attended the state conven- tion of that denomination held in GIRLS AUXILIARY	among thirteen new members in- duced into the Beta Club, a national honorary society, Monday afternoon, at a special induction service held at the Henderson High School. Students are chosen for member- ship to this Chub, which is limited to 25, for their scholarship, school attitude, conduct, school spirit and leadership and must be approved by the faculty and old members of the organization. MRS. ANNIE FULFORD JOYNER Funeral services for Mrs. Annie Fulford Joyner, 62, widow of the late Jason Joyner, well known and highly regarded in this section of Pitt County, were conducted from her home here. Monday afternoon, at	MRS. McCLURE Mrs. J. M. Christman was gracious hostess at bridge on Tuesday even- ing, honoring Mrs. B. F. McClure, of Maysville, Ky., house guest of Mrs. J. W. Parker, and a popular resident of Farmville for several seasons when her husband was auc- tioneer on this market. Autumn flowers in gay colors were used throughout the home. High score award, a vase, was won by Mrs. S. V. Lore, and the honoree and other out-of-town guests, Mrs. J. B. Cutchins, of Washington, and Mrs. Herbert Acton, of Raleigh, were presented with lovely framed pictur- es, A delectable salad course with cof- fee was served after the games.	is seldom answers perplexing ques- tions.		STYLES AND P	ATTERNS
before leaving to assume duties of an out-of-state position.  Mr. and Mrs. C. P. McRae and daughter have returned to Bruns- wick, Ga., after a visit to Mrs. Mc- Rae's sister, Mrs. J. Irvan Morgan Jr., and Mr. Morgan. Reverend and Mrs. C. B. Mash- burg and Mrs. Henrietta M. William- son, president of the Woman's Coun- cil and a large number of the con- gregation of the local Christian Church attended the state conven- tion of that denomination held in Goldsboro this week. GIRLS AUXILIARY The Girls Auxiliary of the Baptist	among thirteen new members in- duced into the Beta Club, a national honorary society, Monday afternoon, at a special induction service held at the Henderson High School. Students are chosen for member- ship to this Chib, which is limited to 25, for their scholarship, school attitude, conduct, school spirit and leadership and must be approved by the faculty and old members of the organization. MRS. ANNIE FULFORD JOYNER Funeral services for Mrs. Annie Fulford Joyner, 62, widow of the late Jason Joyner, well known and highly regarded in this section of Pitt County, were conducted from her home here, Monday afternoon, at three o'clock, by Elder W. B. Barnes,	MRS. McCLURE Mrs. J. M. Christman was gracious hostess at bridge on Tuesday even- ing, honoring Mrs. B. F. McClure, of Maysville, Ky., house guest of Mrs. J. W. Parker, and a popular resident of Farmville for several seasons when her husband was auc- tioneer on this market. Autumn flowers in gay colors were used throughout the home. High score award, a vase, was won by Mrs. S. V. Lore, and the honoree and other out-of-town guests, Mrs. J. B. Cutchins, of Washington, and Mrs. Herbert Acton, of Raleigh, were presented with lovely framed pictur- es, A delectable salad course with cof- fee was served after the games.	is seldom answers perplexing ques- tions.		STYLES AND P	ATTERNS
before leaving to assume duties of an out-of-state position.  Mr. and Mrs. C. P. McRae and daughter have returned to Bruns- wick, Ga., after a visit to Mrs. Mc- Rae's sister, Mrs. J. Irvan Morgan Jr., and Mr. Morgan.  Reverend and Mrs. C. B. Mash- burg and Mrs. Henrietta M. William- son, president of the Woman's Coun- cil and a large number of the con- gregation of the local Christian Church attended the state conven- tion of that denomination held in Goldsboro this week. GIRLS AUXILIARY The Girls Auxiliary of the Baptist Church will meet in the Church on	among thirteen new members in- duced into the Beta Club, a national honorary society, Monday afternoon, at a special induction service held at the Henderson High School. Students are chosen for member- ship to this Chub, which is limited to 25, for their scholarship, school attitude, conduct, school spirit and leadership and must be approved by the faculty and old members of the organization. MRS. ANNIE FULFORD JOYNER Funeral services for Mrs. Annie Eulford Joyner, 62, widow of the late Jason Joyner, well known and highly regarded in this section of Pitt County, were conducted from her home here, Monday afternoon, at three o'clock, by Elder W. B. Barnes, pastor of Tyson's Primitive Baptist	MRS. McCLURE Mrs. J. M. Christman was gracious hostess at bridge on Tuesday even- ing, honoring Mrs. B. F. McClure, of Maysville, Ky., house guest of Mrs. J. W. Parker, and a popular resident of Farmville for several seasons when her husband was auc- tioneer on this market. Autumn flowers in gay colors were used throughout the home. High score award, a vase, was won by Mrs. S. V. Lore, and the honoree and other out-of-town guests, Mrs. J. B. Cutchins, of Washington, and Mrs. Herbert Acton, of Raleigh, were presented with lovely framed pictur- es. A delectable salad course with cof- fee was served after the games. Is HeOr Is He?	is seldom answers perplexing ques- tions.		STYLES AND P	ATTERNS
before leaving to assume duties of an out-of-state position.  Mr. and Mrs. C. P. McRae and daughter have returned to Bruns- wick, Ga., after a visit to Mrs. Mc- Rae's sister, Mrs. J. Irvan Morgan Jr., and Mr. Morgan. Reverend and Mrs. C. B. Mash- burg and Mrs. Henrietta M. William- son, president of the Woman's Coun- cil and a large number of the con- gregation of the local Christian Church attended the state conven- tion of that denomination held in Goldsboro this week. GIRLS AUXILIARY The Girls Auxiliary of the Baptist	among thirteen new members in- duced into the Beta Club, a national honorary society, Monday afternoon, at a special induction service held at the Henderson High School. Students are chosen for member- ship to this Chub, which is limited to 25, for their scholarship, school attitude, conduct, school spirit and leadership and must be approved by the faculty and old members of the organization. MRS. ANNIE FULFORD JOYNER Funeral services for Mrs. Annie Eulford Joyner, 62, widow of the late Jason Joyner, well known and highly regarded in this section of Pitt County, were conducted from her home here, Monday afternoon, at three o'clock, by Elder W. B. Barnes, pastor of Tyson's Primitive Baptist Church, and burial was made in the	MRS. McCLURE Mrs. J. M. Christman was gracious hostess at bridge on Tuesday even- ing, honoring Mrs. B. F. McClure, of Maysville, Ky., house guest of Mrs. J. W. Parker, and a popular resident of Farmville for several seasons when her husband was auc- tioneer on this market. Autumn flowers in gay colors were used throughout the home. High score award, a vase, was won by Mrs. S. V. Lore, and the honoree and other out-of-town guests, Mrs. J. B. Cutchins, of Washington, and Mrs. Herbert Acton, of Raleigh, were presented with lovely framed pictur- es. A delectable salad course with cof- fee was served after the games. Is HeOr Is He?	is seldom answers perplexing ques- tions.		STYLES AND P	ATTERNS
before leaving to assume duties of an out-of-state position.  Mr. and Mrs. C. P. McRae and daughter have returned to Bruns- wick, Ga., after a visit to Mrs. Mc- Rae's sister, Mrs. J. Irvan Morgan Jr., and Mr. Morgan.  Reverend and Mrs. C. B. Mash- burg and Mrs. Henrietta M. William- son, president of the Woman's Coun- cil and a large number of the con- gregation of the local Christian Church attended the state conven- tion of that denomination held in Goldsboro this week. GIRLS AUXILIARY The Girls Auxiliary of the Baptist Church will meet in the Church on Tuesday at 3:45.	among thirteen new members in- duced into the Beta Club, a national honorary society, Monday afternoon, at a special induction service held at the Henderson High School. Students are chosen for member- ship to this Chib, which is limited to 25, for their scholarship, school attitude, conduct, school spirit and leadership and must be approved by the faculty and old members of the organization. MRS. ANNIE FULFORD JOYNER Funeral services for Mrs. Annie Eulford Joyner, 62, widow of the late Jason Joyner, well known and highly regarded in this section of Pitt County, were conducted from her home here, Monday afternoon, at three o'clock, by Elder W. B. Barnes, pastor of Tyson's Primitive Baptist Church, and burial was made in the family plot at the homestead near	MRS. McCLURE Mrs. J. M. Christman was gracious hostess at bridge on Tuesday even- ing, honoring Mrs. B. F. McClure, of Maysville, Ky., house guest of Mrs. J. W. Parker, and a popular resident of Farmville for several seasons when her husband was auc- tioneer on this market. Autumn flowers in gay colors were used throughout the home. High score award, a vase, was won by Mrs. S. V. Lore, and the honoree and other out-of-town guests, Mrs. J. B. Cutchins, of Washington, and Mrs. Herbert Acton, of Raleigh, were presented with lovely framed pictur- es, A delectable salad course with cof- fee was served after the games. Is HeOr Is He? Mr. T. B. Roberts, vice-president	is seldom answers perplexing ques- tions.		STYLES AND P	ATTERNS
before leaving to assume duties of an out-of-state position.  Mr. and Mrs. C. P. McRae and daughter have returned to Bruns- wick, Ga., after a visit to Mrs. Mc- Rae's sister, Mrs. J. Irvan Morgan Jr., and Mr. Morgan.  Reverend and Mrs. C. B. Mash- burg and Mrs. Henrietta M. William- son, president of the Woman's Coun- cil and a large number of the con- gregation of the local Christian Church attended the state conven- tion of that denomination held in Goldsboro this week. GIRLS AUXILIARY The Girls Auxiliary of the Baptist Church will meet in the Church on	among thirteen new members in- duced into the Beta Club, a national honorary society, Monday afternoon, at a special induction service held at the Henderson High School. Students are chosen for member- ship to this Chib, which is limited to 25, for their scholarship, school attitude, conduct, school spirit and leadership and must be approved by the faculty and old members of the organization. MRS. ANNIE FULFORD JOYNER Funeral services for Mrs. Annie Eulford Joyner, 62, widow of the late Jason Joyner, well known and highly regarded in this section of Pitt County, were conducted from her home here, Monday afternoon, at three o'clock, by Elder W. B. Barnes, pastor of Tyson's Primitive Baptist Church, and burial was made in the family plot at the homestead near Farmville.	MRS. McCLURE Mrs. J. M. Christman was gracious hostess at bridge on Tuesday even- ing, honoring Mrs. B. F. McClure, of Maysville, Ky., house guest of Mrs. J. W. Parker, and a popular resident of Farmville for several seasons when her husband was auc- tioneer on this market. Autumn flowers in gay colors were used throughout the home. High score award, a vase, was won by Mrs. S. V. Lore, and the honoree and other out-of-town guests, Mrs. J. B. Cutchins, of Washington, and Mrs. Herbert Acton, of Raleigh, were presented with lovely framed pictur- es, A delectable salad course with cof- fee was served after the games. Is HerOr Is He? Mr. T. B. Roberts, vice-president	is seldom answers perplexing ques- tions.		STYLES AND P	ATTERNS
before leaving to assume duties of an out-of-state position.  Mr. and Mrs. C. P. McRae and daughter have returned to Bruns- wick, Ga., after a visit to Mrs. Mc- Rae's sister, Mrs. J. Irvan Morgan Jr., and Mr. Morgan. Reverend and Mrs. C. B. Mash- burg and Mrs. Henrietta M. William- son, president of the Woman's Coun- cil and a large number of the con- gregation of the local Christian Church attended the state conven- tion of that denomination held in Goldsboro this week. GIRLS AUXILIARY The Girls Auxiliary of the Baptist Church will meet in the Church on Tuesday at 3:45. NOTE OF THANKS	among thirteen new members in- duced into the Beta Club, a national honorary society, Monday afternoon, at a special induction service held at the Henderson High School. Students are chosen for member- ship to this Chib, which is limited to 25, for their scholarship, school attitude, conduct, school spirit and leadership and must be approved by the faculty and old members of the organization. MRS. ANNIE FULFORD JOYNER Funeral services for Mrs. Annie Fulford Joyner, 62, widow of the late Jason Joyner, well known and highly regarded in this section of Pitt County, were conducted from her home here, Monday afternoon, at three o'clock, by Elder W. B. Barnes, pastor of Tyson's Primitive Baptist Church, and burial was made in the family plot at the homestead near Farmville. The death of Mrs. Joyner came as	MRS. McCLURE Mrs. J. M. Christman was gracious hostess at bridge on Tuesday even- ing, honoring Mrs. B. F. McClure, of Maysville, Ky., house guest of Mrs. J. W. Parker, and a popular resident of Farmville for several seasons when her husband was auc- tioneer on this market. Autumn flowers in gay colors were used throughout the home. High score award, a vase, was won by Mrs. S. V. Lore, and the honoree and other out-of-town guests, Mrs. J. B. Cutchins, of Washington, and Mrs. Herbert Acton, of Raleigh, were presented with lovely framed pictur- es, A delectable salad course with cof- fee was served after the games. Is HeOr Is He? Mr. T. B. Roberts, vice-president of the Farmville Tobacco Board of	is seldom answers perplexing ques- tions. DARAMOUNT THEATRE FARMVILLE, N. C. WEEK STARTING NOV. 7. WEEK STARTING NOV. 7. SUNDAY - MONDAY Eddie Cantor in "ALI BABA GOES TO TOWN" THURSDAY Wynn Gibson Warren Hull —in— "MICHAEL O'HALLORAN" WEDNESDAY Smith Bellew Heather Angel In "WEDNESDAY		STYLES AND P	ATTERNS
before leaving to assume duties of an out-of-state position.  Mr. and Mrs. C. P. McRae and daughter have returned to Bruns- wick, Ga., after a visit to Mrs. Mc- Rae's sister, Mrs. J. Irvan Morgan Jr., and Mr. Morgan. Reverend and Mrs. C. B. Mash- burg and Mrs. Henrietta M. William- son, president of the Woman's Coun- cil and a large number of the con- gregation of the local Christian Church attended the state conven- tion of that denomination held in Goldsboro this week. GIRLS AUXILIARY The Girls Auxiliary of the Baptist Church will meet in the Church on Tuesday at 3:45. NOTE OF THANKS	among thirteen new members in- duced into the Beta Club, a national honorary society, Monday afternoon, at a special induction service held at the Henderson High School. Students are chosen for member- ship to this Chib, which is limited to 25, for their scholarship, school attitude, conduct, school spirit and leadership and must be approved by the faculty and old members of the organization. MRS. ANNIE FULFORD JOYNER Funeral services for Mrs. Annie Fulford Joyner, 62, widow of the late Jason Joyner, well known and highly regarded in this section of Pitt County, were conducted from her home here, Monday afternoon, at three o'clock, by Elder W. B. Barnes, pastor of Tyson's Primitive Baptist Church, and burial was made in the family plot at the homestead near Farmville. The death of Mrs. Joyner came as	MRS. McCLURE Mrs. J. M. Christman was gracious hostess at bridge on Tuesday even- ing, honoring Mrs. B. F. McClure, of Maysville, Ky., house guest of Mrs. J. W. Parker, and a popular resident of Farmville for several seasons when her husband was auc- tioneer on this market. Autumn flowers in gay colors were used throughout the home. High score award, a vase, was won by Mrs. S. V. Lore, and the honoree and other out-of-town guests, Mrs. J. B. Cutchins, of Washington, and Mrs. Herbert Acton, of Raleigh, were presented with lovely framed pictur- es, A delectable salad course with cof- fee was served after the games. Is HeOr Is He? Mr. T. B. Roberts, vice-president of the Farmville Tobacco Board of	is seldom answers perplexing ques- tions. DARAMOUNT THEATRE FARMVILLE, N. C. WEEK STARTING NOV. 7. WEEK STARTING NOV. 7. SUNDAY - MONDAY Eddie Cantor in "ALI BABA GOES TO TOWN" THURSDAY Wynn Gibson Warren Hull —in— "MICHAEL O'HALLORAN" WEDNESDAY Smith Bellew Heather Angel In "WEDNESDAY		STYLES AND P	ATTERNS
before leaving to assume duties of an out-of-state position.  Mr. and Mrs. C. P. McRae and daughter have returned to Bruns- wick, Ga., after a visit to Mrs. Mc- Rae's sister, Mrs. J. Irvan Morgan Jr., and Mr. Morgan. Reverend and Mrs. C. B. Mash- burg and Mrs. Henrietta M. William- son, president of the Woman's Coun- cil and a large number of the con- gregation of the local Christian Church attended the state conven- tion of that denomination held in Goldsboro this week. GIRLS AUXILIARY The Girls Auxiliary of the Baptist Church will meet in the Church on Tuesday at 3:45. NOTE OF THANKS	among thirteen new members in- duced into the Beta Club, a national honorary society, Monday afternoon, at a special induction service held at the Henderson High School. Students are chosen for member- ship to this Chib, which is limited to 25, for their scholarship, school attitude, conduct, school spirit and leadership and must be approved by the faculty and old members of the organization. MRS. ANNIE FULFORD JOYNER Funeral services for Mrs. Annie Fulford Joyner, 62, widow of the late Jason Joyner, well known and highly regarded in this section of Pitt County, were conducted from her home here, Monday afternoon, at three o'clock, by Elder W. B. Barnes, pastor of Tyson's Primitive Baptist Church, and burial was made in the family plot at the homestead near Farmville. The death of Mrs. Joyner came as	MRS. McCLURE Mrs. J. M. Christman was gracious hostess at bridge on Tuesday even- ing, honoring Mrs. B. F. McClure, of Maysville, Ky., house guest of Mrs. J. W. Parker, and a popular resident of Farmville for several seasons when her husband was auc- tioneer on this market. Autumn flowers in gay colors were used throughout the home. High score award, a vase, was won by Mrs. S. V. Lore, and the honoree and other out-of-town guests, Mrs. J. B. Cutchins, of Washington, and Mrs. Herbert Acton, of Raleigh, were presented with lovely framed pictur- es. A delectable salad course with cof- fee was served after the games. Is HerOr Is He? Mr. T. B. Roberts, vice-president of the Farmville Tobacco Board of Trade and one of Farmville's most popular tobacco buyers having been	is seldom answers perplexing ques- tions. DARAMOUNT THEATRE FARMVILLE, N. C. WEEK STARTING NOV. 7. WEEK STARTING NOV. 7. SUNDAY - MONDAY Eddie Cantor in "ALI BABA GOES TO TOWN" THURSDAY Wynn Gibson Warren Hull —in— "MICHAEL O'HALLORAN" WEDNESDAY Smith Bellew Heather Angel In "WEDNESDAY		STYLES AND P	ATTERNS

