Garden And Bridge Clubs Meet In Farmville During Week.

Mrs. Francis Marion Davis, Sr., and daughters, Miss Elizabeth Davis and Mrs. William Alexander Allen, were hostesses at a lovely tea Tuesday afternoon from four thirty to six, honoring Mrs. Charles Millard Griffin, of Wilson, a bride of the spring season, who was formerly Miss Janie Lang Davis, daughter and sister of the hostesses.

Guests were received as they arrived by Mrs. J. W. Parker and Mrs. B. S. Smith, and were introduced to the first receiving line by Miss Annie Perkins. This line, formed in the west living room, was composed of the hostesses, the honoree, Mrs. Griffin, Miss Martha Chestam, of Wilson, Mrs. Winston Smith, of Opelika, Ala., and Miss Marguerite Johnson, of Columbia, S. C.

Mrs. Frank Davis, Jr., directed guests to the reception room, where Mrs. J. Y. Monk introduced the second receiving line, in which were Miss Agnes Moore, Mrs. John D. Dixon, Mrs. W. F. Worthington, Mrs. C. Hubert Joyner, and Mrs. L. E. Walston.

Leaving the second line guests were greeted at the dining room door by Mrs. P. E. Jones, Mrs. R. H. Knott and Mrs. John T. Thorne.

A profusion of gladioli was used throughout the home in tall containers, with contrasting and harmonizing shades being observed in arrangements in the various rooms.

In the dining room, a red and white color note prevailed. White candles in silver candelabra cast a soft glow over the table, which was spread with a Venetian lace cloth and centered with American Beauty roses in a silver vase. Mrs. Plato Monk of Wilson and Mrs. C. R. Townsend served ices molded in white rose design from either end of the table, and cakes and mints were passed by Misses Hazel Bass, Bertha Lang, Frances Joyner, Ruth Hayes Turnage, Nita Lee Townsend and Meta King Moore.

Mrs. George W. Davis directed guests to the east living room where punch was served by Mrs. B. O. Turnage and Mrs. R. O. Lang, with Miss Mary Alice Beaman, Mrs. A. C. Monk, Jr., Mrs. James Wheelers, Jr., Mrs. Ted L. Albrinton and Miss Mary Friar Rouse assisting in serving punch and dainty sandwiches.

Throughout the afternoon musical numbers were rendered by Mrs. J. M. Hobgood, Mrs. M. V. Jones and Mrs. Daisy H. Smith.

About a hundred and fifty guests, including friends from Wilson, Greenville, Tarboro and Kinston, called, and goodbyes were said by Mrs. Alton W. Bobbitt and Mrs. Z. M. Whitehurst.

Mrs. Lester Turnage was hostess on Monday at an interesting meeting of the Garden Club at her country home near Farmville. Miss Bettie Joyner presided and reported as a most successful venture, the recent sponsoring of a Garden School here by this group. Miss Joyner resigned as chairman of the Club and a loving tribute was paid her by Mrs. Mary M. Patterson for four years of untiring efforts expended in behalf of the club and beautification of the community. Miss Tabitha DeVisconti, a former chairman, was elected to this office again.

The program was conducted by Miss DeVisconti, who read a poem, "God Made A Garden," and presented selections under the titles of "Garden Friends," and "Gentle Hints On The Growing of Chrysanthemums." An interesting discussion of "Flowers of the Bible," was led by Mrs. Haywood Smith.

During the business session, Mrs. A. C. Turnage, Mrs. Daisy H. Smith and Mrs. Howard Moye were welcomed as new members. A sweet course was served after adjournment. Mrs. A. B. Moore was a special guest of the hostess.

The New Deal Club was entertained on Wednesday at a lovely bridge luncheon by Mrs. Grover H. Webb, at her home in Pinetops. The national colors were carried in the floral setting and the table appointments bore motifs, suggestive of Independence Day.

Mrs. J. L. Shackelford and Mrs. Wesley R. Willis won club and guest prizes of novel glasses in basket holders. Mrs. Edmundson, a recent bride, was given a crystal water jug by the hostess.

After the usual number of progressions, a sumptuous luncheon was served in courses by the hostess, assisted by Misses Eva, Evelyn and Marjorie Webb. Mr. S. A. Roebuck, president of the club, welcomed Mrs. L. T. Reese into the group as a new member at this time.

Miss Mary Friar Rouse entertained the Lamrad Club Thursday, at her home, in which garden flowers were artistically arranged. Delicious refreshments were served after several progressions.

STEAGALL-SATTERWHITE

Henderson.—A wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Grant Satterwhite Thursday afternoon, June 25, at 5 o'clock when their niece, Miss Roslyn Satterwhite, became the bride of Henry Julian Steagall of Charlotte.

The wide hall and receiving rooms of the home were decorated in a profusion of summer flowers. In the living room an improvised altar was fashioned against a background of pine. Marking the altar were tall white candelabra and floor baskets of Queen Anne lace.

Mrs. Satterwhite and Mrs. Elbert Joyner of Farmville, aunts of the bride, greeted the guests at the door. As the guests assembled a program of nuptial music was rendered by Mrs. James P. B. Connell of Henderson. At the ceremony hour Miss Louise Roebuck of Robersonville sang "The Sweetest Story Ever Told," by Stultz. J. P. Satterwhite, cousin of the bride, lighted the tapers.

The bride and bridegroom entered together from the dining room and took their places before the improvised altar, where the Rev. Isaac Wyne Hughes, rector of the Holy Innocents Episcopal Church, heard their vows, using the ring ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Francis E. Satterwhite.

The bride was costumed in a dress of dusty pink embroidered marquisette over taffeta, with a lace hat to match. Her shoes were a contrasting purple. She wore as a shoulder corsage a single orchid.

Immediately following the ceremony the bridal party and guests were entertained at an informal reception. At one end of the table was a lovely wedding cake, which was served to the guests by Mrs. T. F. Ayue of Henderson, aunt of the bride. At the opposite end of the table Mrs. Donald Edwards presided over the punch bowl. Assisting with the serving were Miss Lila Byrd Satterwhite, Miss Louise Finch, Miss Agnes Mustain and Miss Eleanor Young.

Immediately following the reception the bridal couple left for a wedding trip and upon their return will be at home at 930 West Trade Street, Charlotte. For traveling the bride wore an ensemble of light beige alpaca and donnet accessories.

Mrs. Steagall is the daughter of Francis E. Satterwhite and the late Mrs. Satterwhite of Henderson. She is a graduate of East Carolina Teachers' College, Greenville. After graduation she taught in the high school at Jamesville, and for the past two years has been a member of the faculty of Morven High School.

Mr. Steagall is the son of Mrs. Katherine McRae and the late W. A. Steagall of Morven. He is associated with the maintenance department of Duke Power Company of Charlotte.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were M. D. Steagall, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Steagall, Mrs. B. L. Robinson, Jr., and Mrs. W. T. Buxton of Morven; Miss Catherine Flaughter of Ayden; Miss Ena Peale of Pikeville, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Moye, Misses Bertha and Verona Lee Joyner, Mrs. Nannie Smith, and Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Joyner and son, Donald, of Farmville, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Overton of Greenville, and Miss Louise Roebuck of Robersonville.

As a courtesy to Miss Satterwhite, Mrs. James P. B. Connell and Mrs. J. M. Young entertained at a bride and miscellaneous shower on Tuesday night. Mrs. David Bryan received high score prize and Miss Alice Mabry the low score. The guest of honor was given silver in her chosen pattern. Little Jimmie Connell presented the shower to Miss Satterwhite.

A salad course was served to Miss Satterwhite, Mrs. J. B. Satterwhite, Mrs. Elbert Joyner of Farmville, Miss Katharine Turner, Miss Virginia Al-

Strength During MIDDLE LIFE

Strength is extra-important for women going through the change of life. Then the body needs the very best nourishment to fortify it against the changes that are taking place. In such cases, Cardui has proved helpful to many women. It increases the appetite and aids digestion, favoring more complete transformation of food into living tissue, resulting in improved nutrition and building up and strengthening of the whole system.
