DAFFY RITZES OFF TO RACES

Damon has those Ritzes on the Runyon! In other, and more sober, words, this means that the daffy Ritz Brothers are starred in Damon Runyon's "Straight, Place and Show," which opens Thursday, Friday, Nov. 10-11, at the Paramount Theatre.

The film shows the Ritzes off (as usual) to the races, where they buy horses, sell horses, rent horses, steal horses — in fact they're a little hoarse themselves before the story reaches its 149th, and final, climax of laughter.

Based on a play by Damon Runyon and Irving Caesar, the comic story is spiced by a romantic triangle between Richard Arlen, Ethel Merman and Phyllis Brooks.

The Ritzes play a trio of down-and-out pony track operators thrust into big-time racing when Richard Arlen bestows a thoroughbred on them. In characteristic fashion they build the story up to a series of hilarious high spots topped by their having to ride the competing horses in a race so that their own entry can win.

David Butler directed the film, under the supervision of Darryl F. Zanuck. It is the latest of the Movie Quiz $250,000 contest pictures.

"OWNERS ARE AS PROUD AS THE PROUDEST OF PEACOCKS!"

...and Rightly So. Because It Has Proven the Best Investment They Ever Made

As the peacock is the most beautiful of birds, the General Electric is the most beautiful of refrigerators. General Electric refrigerators have been strikingly styled for lasting beauty by Roy Patten, one of America's foremost creative artists. They are acclaimed by women everywhere as today's most beautiful refrigerators.

But As Beautiful As It Is, Beauty Is Only Skin Deep

Thrifty, careful buyers will not be satisfied with beauty alone. Discriminating buyers want to know what lies beyond its exterior. And here General Electric also excels, for under its glistening beauty is found the heart of the refrigerator — the sealed in steel mechanism with oil cooling and pressured lubrication. Only General Electric gives you this, and with it triple thrift. Gives you greater dollar for dollar value, lower current cost and longer refrigerator life.

WORDS OF SOLACE

Just across Life's River, just across Life's Sea; Abides a bountiful Giver awaiting there for me, Some distant, unknown Serephim or dale Some day will unfold the mystic floating veil.

Back behind the wide-spread, gloomy shadows, That are pinioned down by burdens and sorrows; May burst forth like a silvery dawn-ing.

Oh! for the sparkling rays of cherished Hope The only panacea for a lonely heart that's broke!

Oh! for a friendly sigh from those we love To waft us upward to skies above! —Uncle Watt.

HAPPINESS

These make a world for me — Music, bright flowers, a tree — Some smiles, sometimes a tear — Shelter, food, loved ones near; A little work, a little play — A little prayer at close of day. G. S. C.
