> Much was made of the secrecy with which the French were attempting to secure airplanes. One sympathetic explanation is that the French did not want to inform competitors of their purpose and, for domestic reasons, did not wish to advertise the purchase of planes in this country.

Previously the English Government had openly ordered American airplanes. There is nothing illegal in the sale by American manufacturers of airplanes to foreign nations. The rumpus in the Senate, however, was apparently caused by suspicions in the minds of some senators that the facilitating the French air mission.

Readers should understand that there is a militant group in Congress determined to keep this country from doing anything whatever that might entangle it in a European war. Insurgent Demands for Unconditional Surrender Are Rejected By Hard - Pushed Government.

London, Feb. 7. - The Spanish Loyalists government tonight rejected Insurgent demands, turned its back on Anglo-French pleas for peace and announced it will return to Valencia to carry on the war in southern

The Spanish embassy in London announced that Premier Juan Negrin was determined to fight to the finish in the Madrid-Valencia zone nine provinces and about 47,000 square miles of rich territory-with the central army of General Jose

The embassy announcement followed diplomatic information that Negrin and his foreign minister, Julio Alvarez Del Vayo, had rejected all following the collapse of Loyalist resistance in Catalonia.

It was announced that Del Vave had telephoned his ambassador in London, Pablo de Azarate, to say that the Loyalist government would settle the problem created by the Catalonian route and the flight of tens of thousands of soldiers and refugees to France before flying to Valencia to carry on the war.

Morale Reported High. Negrin, it was said, intends to leave one or two ministers on the French side of the frontier to deal with the refugee situation.

The embassy said it had reports from Valencia indicating that the morale of both troops and civilians in the central zone remained high. The projected return of the government to Valencia indicated that the 30-months-old war with its toll of 2. 000,000 casualties will continue for weeks if not for months. Miaja has nearly 400,000 well-trained troops under his command for the denfense of such important cities as Madrid, Valencia, Cartagena and Alicante.
