COLORED ELKS HOLD FINE CONVENTION HERE

Upholding the fine standard set by the higher element of the colored population here, was the Elks Convention, held here recently with the local Elks organization, colored, acting as host. The parade of bands, floats, walking groups and automobiles, which featured the Convention program, as far as the public was concerned, was a credit to the directors and to the Convention as well. Though several hundred delegates and visitors were in attendance, an atmosphere of dignity and order prevailed in the colored section throughout and much commendation is due those in charge for the splendid manner in which the entire affair was conducted.

23 COWS ELECTROCUTED

Honolulu.—Twenty-three cows in a dairy barn were electrocuted at practically the same time by a short circuit in a milking machine, the current passing down the metal stanchions holding the cows. Three milkers escaped harm because they were not in the stalls.

Social Events of Week Inspired By Bride-Elect

Miss Bertha Joyner Lang Is Honored; Patriotic, Literary and Card Groups Meet

Miss Bertha Joyner Lang, bride-elect, has been the inspiration for a program of social festivities this week, and is to be honored at a tea to be given today at the Chapter House by Mrs. John B. Joyner and Mrs. R. A. Joyner. On Thursday evening Mrs. Z. M. Whitehurst and Mrs. Robert Lee Smith entertained at the largest bridge party and one of the loveliest ever given here, when they received friends in the Major May Chapter House for play at seventeen tables. The hostesses and honoree greeted and directed them to the punch bowl, where they were served by Mrs. J. LeRoy Parker, Mrs. R. LeRoy Rollins and Miss Albertine Barrett. Magnolias were used in mass arrangements on the mantels of the reception room, and bowls of shasta daisies, larkspur and sweetpeas were placed at effective points. Tallies bore the bridal motifs. Scoring high, Miss Hazel Monk was awarded a tinted glass slipper; as runner up, Mrs. Jack Smith was given stationery, and the consolation, a crystal high hat, went to Mrs. Charles E. Fitzgerald. Miss Agnes Moore won the prize at the Chinese checkers table. The honor guest was presented with a crystal cream and sugar, and Mrs. James R. Lang and Mrs. Earl Lang, of Walstonburg, recent brides, received gifts of crystal. A delicious ice cream, with decorated individual cakes, emphasized the chosen colors of green, pink and white, and sweetpeas graced each plate.

Tuesday, Miss Mary Alice Beaman was hostess at a beautifully appointed luncheon and handkerchief shower, to compliment Miss Lang. Fruit cocktails were passed in the reception room and a luncheon was served at individual tables in the living room. Personal place cards were attached to nosegays and the place of the honor guest and that of Miss Rebecca Wheelless, bride elect, were marked with corsages. The handkerchief shower was held in the dining room with an artistic chandelier-parasol arrangement over the table, the pink and white ribbons, with sweetpeas attached, falling from the parasol in shower effect to a large center reflector, around which the packages, containing white and colorful sport and sheer handkerchiefs were placed. A dainty handkerchief was presented to Miss Wheelless by the hostess. Sharing with Miss Lang in the pleasures of the occasion were: Miss Wheelless, Miss Nita Lee Townsend, Miss Cora Lee Patterson, Miss Frances Beaman, Miss Hazel Bass, Miss Virginia and Miss Louise Harris, Miss Geraldine Gardner, Miss Verona Lee and Miss Frances Joyner, Miss Sara Smith, Miss Elizabeth Lang, and Miss Margaret Lewis. Mrs. Robert Lee Smith assisted the hostess in serving.

Miss Geraldine Gardner entertained sixty friends at a buffet luncheon, honoring Miss Bertha Joyner Lang, on Monday. A profusion of lovely garden flowers were used in artistic arrangements throughout the home on North Main street. The hostess greeted the guests on the veranda as they arrived and Mrs. John B. Joyner presented the honoree at the reception room door. Miss Myrtle Sutton presented each guest with a miniature corsage and iced fruit juice was served by Miss Elizabeth Lang and Miss Margaret Lewis. Mrs. Sam Lewis directed the way to the dining room, where Mrs. T. E. Joyner and Miss Bettie Joyner received. Mrs. T. W. Lang and Miss Agnes Moore served from either end of the table, which was laid with a Madeira cloth and centered with a large silver bowl of snapdragons, roses and gypsophila. Assisting in serving were Mrs. R. A. Joyner and Mrs. D. E. Oglesby.

Following the luncheon, Videau and John Russell Joyner, small son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Joyner pulled a decorated wagon into the living room and presented the honor guest with a shower of gifts for her kitchen. Miss Lang received silver in her chosen pattern from the hostess, who also remembered Mrs. John E. King, a recent bride, with a lovely gift. The Wednesday Afternoon Club met with Mrs. A. C. Monk, Jr., as hostess, in the home of Mrs. G. M. Holden, in which decorations of gladioli and dahlias were effectively placed. Following the games, Mrs. Robert Lee Smith was presented with ash trays, as the club prize, and Mrs. C. Hubert Joyner was awarded the guest prize, bath powder. Miss Bertha Joyner Lang, bride elect, was given a Venetian glass bowl by the hostess, and Mrs. John E. King and Mrs. James R. Lang, recent brides, also received lovely gifts. A delicious ice course was served after the usual number of progressions. Mrs. M. V. Jones was hostess at a lovely contract club party this week, entertaining her card club and additional friends. Blue hydrangeas and mixed bowls of roses, larkspur, verbena and feverfew were used throughout the Jones home, adding color and artistry to the setting. The prize offered for club members, a pitcher and matching glasses, was won by Mrs. C. Hubert Joyner, and the guest trophy, a wire container of glasses, went to Mrs. James R. Lang. Mrs. Lang, and Mrs. John E. King, recent brides, and Miss Bertha Joyner Lang, bride-elect, were recipients of lovely gifts from the hostess. A delightful salad course and iced tea were served. Special guests were: Mrs. Lang, Mrs. King, Miss Lang, Mrs. Frank Davis, Jr., Mrs. W. M. Willis, Mrs. R. H. Knott, Mrs. E. R. Sykes, Jr., Miss Elizabeth Davis, Miss Margaret Lewis, Miss Elizabeth Lang, Mrs. P. E. Jones, Mrs. L. T. Pierce, Mrs. W. A. Pollard, Jr., and Mrs. Alton W. Bobbitt. Featuring the Literary Club program of Wednesday afternoon, was a review by Miss Annie Parkins of Owen and Donald Davises' dramatization of "Ethan Frome," which has been said by critics to be the most flawless of Edith Wharton's stories, and has enjoyed a great triumph. Mrs. Henrietta M. Williamson was hostess with the newly elected president, Mrs. J. W. Joyner, presiding. Mrs. B. S. Sheppard, in outlining the program for the new club year, which begins in September, stated that it would include a study of music, literature, art, North Carolina history and the laws that effect women particularly in North Carolina. Mrs. C. Hubert Joyner was welcomed as a new member at this time. After adjournment the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Mary M. Patterson and Miss Cora Lee Patterson, served a refreshing ice course, followed by salted nuts. Special guests were Mrs. and Miss Patterson, Mrs. Estelle and Mrs. Joel Moye.

Headache, Bad Breath Tell of More to Come

Just as Paul Revere's famous ride warned of the Redcoats' coming, so Nature's messengers—headaches, dizziness, bad breath—often warn of faulty elimination. Neglecting these signs may cause a host of constipation's discomforts: sour stomach, belching, no appetite or energy, mental dullness. It's so easy to walk up your legs inside. Just take spicy, all vegetable BLACK-DRAUGHT. Its natural help comes from its principal ingredients—an invigorating, mild-laxative which imparts tone to lax bowel muscles.

Novella Horton Capps JUNIOR SCHOOL GRADUATE In her story of "Commencement in Washington," in Sunday's issue of the News and Observer, Julia McNinch Slear gave an account of one, which will be of especial interest to friends here. We quote: "At Gunston Hall's Junior School two other Carolina maids were receiving certificates of graduation, clad in the sweetest white organza frocks, their young faces so glowing and bright with joy that they dazzled the mother-eyes looking on—and those of the friends gathered with them... First to receive her certificate was Novella Horton Capps, daughter of Mrs. Frank Capps, whose pleasing personality, fine leadership and high scholastic record won for her during the past year a scholarship in the school. Like her mother, Novella makes friends very readily and soon became the most popular girl of her class, joining in all of the activities of the school, yet always heading her classes. Rosebud Webb of South Carolina, attractive niece of Mrs. O. Max Gardner, received her prized certificate also that day, she, too graduating from the junior school with honor. Commencement exercises for the graduates of the preparatory school for Gunston Hall proper, were held at noon and later followed by a luncheon which included as the guests of the graduating class and the parents and relatives who had come from far and near for the occasion, among whom were Mrs. Frank Capps and Mrs. Max Gardner. Another interested onlooker at the exercises on Tuesday was Alice Harper Parker, Farmville, who is visiting her cousin, Novella Capps, the two girls being entertained widely. Last evening they were guests at the exercises at the Army and Navy Club honoring the "sweet girl graduate"... On Thursday they were dinner guests at the Army and Navy Country Club, one of the top-notch places to dine in summer. Alice Harper plans to remain in Washington until after the visit of the King and Queen, she will then be accompanied to North Carolina by Novella who will spend the summer there."
