FRIDAY, JUNE 23, 1939

THE FARMVILLE ENTERPRISE, FARMVILLE, PITT COUNTY, N. C.

PAGE THREE

Bertha Joyner Lang is Bride Of Marcus Herbert Potter

Methodist Church Here Thursday Afternoon.

in the Methodist Episcopal Church. The vows were said before the altar, which was banked with greenery, a color note of delicate pink being effectively used with the traditional and white Alaska daisies were arranged in floor baskets and the church was softly lighted by cathedral candles in tall standards and on the altar The officiating minister was the

Cutler, of Snow Hill, sang, "I Love You Truly," and a quarter, composed

Eyes" and as a benediction, "The Lord Bless You and Keep You." Mrs. Smith used the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin and Mendelssohn's Wed-sional, and "Leibestraum" was played during the ceremony. Ushers were T. Eli Joyner, Jr., and Roland Edwards, V. N. Whitehurst

The bride was escorted and given in marriage by her father, Tony Ward Lang. Her wedding gown was of white marquisette over slipper satin, fashioned with a square neckline and lace girdle, and long puffed sleeves with lace insets. The full skirt fell to a train. Her veil of bridal illusion was finger-tip length, and fell from a coronet caught with orange blossoms.

Her only ornament was a diamond necklace; a gift of the bridegroom. Her bouquet was Kaiserine roses and junior groomsman.

culty this year.

th Lang.

hant of Snow Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Parker,

Potter, of Snow Hill, and Miss Eliz

brother, James Harper Potter,

Wedding Took Place In Mrs. M. V. Jones, Mrs. A. W. Bobbitt, John D. and Elbert C. Holmes. Continuing the lovely series of prenuptial parties, complimenting Miss.

Bertha Joyner Lang during the inin a ceremony characterized by tervening days between her engagebeauty and dignity, Miss Bertha Joy- ment announcement and wedding of ner Lang and Marcus Herbert Potter, Thursday afternoon, were those of of Snow Hill, were married on Thurs- the past several days, which vied with day afternoon at four thirty o'clock those gone before in variety of entertainment and beauty.

Charming in every detail was the tea given on Friday afternoon of last week, by Mrs. T. E. Joyner and daughters, Misses Verona Lee and Frances green and white decorations. Gladioli Joyner, and Miss Bettie Joyner, as a courtesy to Miss Lang.

> Welcoming the guests as they arrived was Mrs. John B. Joyner. Mrs. J. I. Morgan, Sr., introduced the receiving line composed of the hostesses, the honor guest, Miss Ber-Rev. D. A. Clarke, pastor of the bride. tha Joyner Lang and her mother, Prior to the ceremony Mrs. Hay- Mrs. T. W. Lang, and sister, Miss Elizabeth Lang, Miss Laura Smith Fleming bride elect, and her mother, Mrs. V. C. Fleming, of Greenville, Mrs. Nonie Barrett, and Miss Rebecca Wheless, bride elect.

> Mrs. J. W. Parker received in the music room, where Mrs. Haywood Smith, pianist, rendered selections throughout the afternoon. Mrs. Bertha Gardner and Mrs. R. A. Joyner received in the dining room.

Quantities of dahlias, gladioli, roses and snapdragons were used in artistic arrangements throughout the home, the dining room being particularly lovely with its table center of painted daisies in pastel shades, gypsophilia and fern, with candles in graduated style and pastel colors forming a semicircle for a miniature bride and groom. At either end of the table were punch bowls, from which sherbet, in the prevailing colors, was served by Mrs. A. Q. Roebuck and Mrs. R. H. Knott. Other floral and illumining arrangements in this room further emphasized the pastel idea, also in reflecting on the emotions inspired carried in the mints and cookies, by the Flag, and of Grace as a nawhich together with salted nuts were tural acquirement in the development who gave in turn amusing and de-lightful speeches in tribute to Miss Lang. Miss Virginia Harris presented Miss Lang silver in her chosen pattern from the hostesses. Guests of the Misses Harrises were:

Miss Bertha Joyner Lang, honoree, Mrs. T. W. Lang, Miss Elizabeth Lang. Miss Agnes Moore, Miss Sara Smith, Miss Nita Townsend, Miss Frances Beaman, Miss Cora Lee Patterson, Miss Hazel Bass.

Prominent among social activities of the week and marking the first event of this nature in the history of the Major Benjamin May Chapter, D. A. R., was the lovely luncheon given on Flag Day, to the Daughters by the Chapter House Board of Governors, composed of Mrs. A. C. Monk, Sr., chairman, Mrs. Henrietta M. Williamson, regent, Mrs. T. C. Turnage, Mrs. E. Bruce Beasley, of Fountain, Mrs. W. H. Whitmore and Mrs. U. H. Cozart, of Wilson, Mrs. T. E. Joyner, Mrs. Travis Hooker, Greenville, Mrs. J. O. Pollard and Mrs. P. E. Jones. Mrs. Monk and Mrs. Williamson extended a cordial welcome and directed members to the punch table, presided over by Mrs. Whitmore and Mrs. Cozart, of Wilson. In decorating the reception room a lovely effect was achieved by the use of blue hydrangeas on the colonial mantels and by other arrangements of gladioli, gardenias, and blue asters, which carried the national colors, again observed in the red and white mixed flowers in blue bowls, used as centers for the luncheon tables, and in the ice course.

Mrs. T. C. Turnage, program leader of the afternoon, brought much enthusiasm and inspiration to the Daughters with comments on the Scripture lesson, read by Mrs. W. H. Whitmore, relating to Esther's act of patriotism, and with her discussion of the flag; the first symbol of a nation being the awe-inspiring pillar of fire, which led the children of Israel in their march to the Promised Land, and to the rainbow, which lifts the soul aloft by its sheer beauty. Mrs. Turnage concluded by offering an acrostic of Faith, Loyalty and Awe

* * *	nere marsaay evening.
Mrs. Kathleen Moore has returned frm a visit to Richmond, Va., and the New York World's Fair.  Mayor and Mrs. George W. Davis and sons, Harry and Cedric, are at the World's Fair this week.  Lieut. Frank Umstead, of Chapel Hill, was the guest of Dr. Paul E. Jones and family Wednesday.  Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lewis, Mrs.	. Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Morgan attended the Rotary Internal Assembly at White Sulphur Sp and the Rotary Convention at C land, Ohio, during the past two w and are returning via New where they will visit the World's LIBRARY TO OPEN MORN ONLY DURING SUMMER The Farmville Library will be
Nannie Lewis and Miss Nancy Lewis were Durham visitors Wednesday.	only from eight to twelve, noon, day during the summer months ginning June 26, according to Virginia Howerton, librarian.
Miss Eva Mae Turnage has been ill at her home here for several days.	FIRST COTTON BLOSSOM
Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Morriss return- ed Houston, Texas, Thursday, after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Lath Morriss. * * *	To Mr. Alfred B. Moore goes credit for the first cotton blo turned in at this office this se Same was brought in Thursday r
Miss Malette Greene, Miss Mrytle Sutton and Geneva Dale, of Green- ville, spent Wednesday at Morehead City.	ing, June 22nd. PARTY LEAVE SUNDAY FO NEW YORK WORLD
 Mrs. J. W. Bass, Mrs. J. M. Wheless, Jr., Miss Hazel Bass and Miss Georgie Howard were Goldsboro visitors Wed- nesday.  Dr. Dennis Keel, Mrs. Sallie Keel Horton and Jack Horton have re- turned from a week's stay at Mrytle Beach, S. C.	Farmville members of the We Fair Tour, leaving Sunday and companied by Mrs. A. Q. Roebuc clude Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Joyner, Margaret Walter, Mrs. J. Frank per and daughter, Miss Etta Fr Harper. BIRTHDAY PARTY
* * * Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lang and small daughter have returned to Beaufort after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Ted L. Albritton. * * *	Mary Frances Joyner, win daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H Joyner, entertained fifteen frien Saturday, in celebration of her birthday. Games were played o

Survey in Colorada, is a home for a sented a lovely scene with its lacevacation period.

F. G. Dupree, Sr., has been critically loons were given as favors. ill at his home here since Friday, His daughter, Mrs. J. D. Shackleford, of Manta, Ga., has arrived to be at his Violinist, Orchestra

Rev. C. B. Mashburn has returned a visit to Mrs. Mashburn, who is ng the summer at their Black tain summer cottage.

. H. M. Rouse and daughter, of all, Va., and Mrs. Maude Rouse e, of Nashville, were guests of Church. es here Wednesday. ***

C. C. Joyner, Mrs. Frances er, Jim Joyner, of Norfolk, Va. Harry Harper, of Richmond, Va., Thursday at Chapel Hill. and Mrs. T. E. Joyner are ied. He directed the famous Alfarata throughout the spacious home, rings Clevechids. veeks, York, Fair.

ING

open bon. each Videau Joyner, daughter of Mr. and , be-Mrs. John B. Joyner, was junior Mrs. bri_esmaid. She wore a pink silk net s the ssom ason. frilled lace. norn-

R FAIR

Snow Hill, as best man. orld's d ack, in-Miss pink roses. Har-Following the ceremony the bridal ances ubert white orchids was taken from her ds on bridal bouquet. third n the Charles Rountree, Jr., who has been lawn prior to the serving of refreshwith the U. S. Coast and Geoditics ments in the dining room, which pre-spread table, centered with a huge birthday cake and decorated with Friends will regret to learn that, summer flowers. Multi-colored bal-

> Leader, To Play Here In Churches Sunday

Ray Weisenfluh, of Lewistown, Pa., of Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Sheppard, and aunt of the bridegroom, entertainwill play at the morning service of ed at a rehearsal party the Presbyterian Church next Sunday. and in the evening at the Baptist ader and A well known or violinist. Mr. Weisenfluh has been located in Henderson for the past three years, teaching vocal and dranatics in the Henderson school and having private pupils also. His radio experience has been var dragons and white candles, served by Miss Geraldine Gardner, valley lilies centered with white or-Miss Margaret Smith, Miss Bertha

Rae Joyner, Miss Myrtle Sutton, Miss Miss Elizabeth Lang attended her Margaret Lewis and Miss Alice Hicks sister as maid of honor. Her dress Smith, of Greenville. was of aqua embroidered net and her

Miss Agnes Moore received in the leghorn hat was trimmed with pink hall leading into the room, where flowers and agua velvet. She carried guests were registered by Mrs. Claude an arm bouquet of Briarcliffe roses L. Barrett. and delphinium, tied with pink rib-

Mrs. Mary Moye Patterson directed the way to the punch room, where ford, on behalf of the members, expunch was served by Mrs. A. B. Moore. Assisting in serving punch and dainty sandwiches were Miss over taffeta, trimmed with tiny bows Elsie Carraway, Miss Lillian White of aqua velvet. Her pink lace hat Gardner, Miss Dorothy Lewis and was trimmed with flowers and had Miss Mary Thomas Smith, of Greenchin ties of pink and agua velvet. ville. Red flowers were used in this She carried a colonial nosegay of room with artistic effect. Sweetheart roses, gypsophilia and Goodbyes were said by Miss Mary Barrow. Robert Lee Smith, Jr., son of Mr. Around two hundred guests called and Mrs. Robert Lee Smith, was between the hours of four and six o'clock. Registering from nearby The bridegroom was attended by his towns were; Mrs. J. C. Wooten, Mrs.

William Taft, Mrs. Carl Stacy, Mrs. Hugh Smith and Miss Alice Lee Keel The bride's mother wore a gown of Greenville; Mrs. Rae Chestnut, blue and white figured chiffon and Mrs. Mark Lassiter, and Mrs. James white hat, and a shoulder corsage of Potter, of Snow Hill; Mrs. Annie couple left for a motor trip to West-Mrs. J. M. Wheless, Jr., entertain-The North Carolina. The bride changed this week at an enjoyable "morned to a two piece traveling costume ing coffee" in compliment to Miss of navy crepe with white trimmings, Lang. Guests arriving at nine-thirty a white turban with blue veil and found place cards attached to mint matching accessories. Her corsage of containers with bridal motifs, that of the honor guest being marked by Bishop, of Aurora, house guest of gardenias. Mrs. Potter, who has been the in-The bride elect's table was spread spiration of many lovely social courwith a yellow cloth and this color note tesies since the announcement of ther was observed in floral and candle decengagement, is the charming daughorations throughout the home. ter of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Ward Lang. The breakfast menu consisted of She received her education at East grape fruit in baskets made of the

> Brown and Miss Mae Brown, of Pinetops.

Carolina Teachers College, and was a rind and topped with green cherries, member of the Snow Hill school faham, egg omlets, fried apples, cinnamon toast, jelly, coffee and

Mr. Potter is the son of Mrs. Emma doughnuts. Harper Potter and the late Mr. Mar-A contest, relating to a bride's first rbert Potter, of Snow Hill. He cated at Davidson and State Patterson, who was awarded a box Mrs. W. E. Joyner, and Mrs. L. E. re. He is a promising young of chocolates. The honoree was pre- Walston, sented with a set of crystal ash trays by the hostess Miss Hazel Bass, Miss Louise and the many love-used by Misses Louise and Virginia Harris being the American group. Mrs. with on Monday evening. The home on Rollins announced also that the an-Wilson Street was beautiful with nucl convention will be held this year of character. The program was brought to a close with the singing of patriotic anthems by the chapter, with Mrs. Haywood Smith as accompanist.

In a round table discussion of matters relating to the Chapter, the regent, Mrs. M. V. Jones, Miss Tabitha DeVisconti and Mrs. U. H. Cozart spoke briefly, and Mrs. J. L. Shacklepressed appreciation for the hospitality extended by the governing board at this time.

The meeting closed the door chapter activities until October. Mrs. Claude L. Barrett was hostess to the Contract Club this week, entertaining the members and additional friends, Mrs. T. W. Morriss, of Houston, Texas, and Mrs. Jack Smith, at her home on North Main street, which was inviting and colorful with effective arrangements of gladioli and Queen Anne's lace. The following young people return Mrs. M. V. Jones compiled high ed this week from Montreat, where score and was awarded dainty handthey attended the Youth Conference kerchiefs, and Mrs. T. W. Morriss was presented with a lovely corsage of the Christian Church:

by the hostess. A delectable salad course with iced ber of progressions.

Patterson. at bridge on Tuesday morning in compliment to Mrs. T. H. Morriss, of Houston, Texas, house guest of Mrs. Lath Morriss, and Mrs. Sara B.

Mrs. Elbert Joyner.

Two tables were arranged in a set ting of garden flowers. Compiling high score, Mrs. W. E. Joyner was awarded companion prints, and the honor guests were given lovely handkerchiefs.

During the morning a variety of dainty sandwiches, cookies and iced beverages were served.

Guests of the hostess were; Mrs. Morriss, Mrs. Bishop, Mrs. Lath Morreakfast, was won by Miss Cora Lee riss. Mrs. Elbert, Mrs. J. W. and Discussing "Fidac" at the June meeting of the American Legion Auxto Miss Lang, those en- fliary, the president, Mrs. R. LeRoy Mrs. Wheless' hospitality were; Rollins explained that the word was coined and taken from the French Virginia Harris, Miss Cora Lee name of the organization, Federation ss Nita Lee Townsend, Interallied Des Anciens Combattants, abeth Lang, Miss, Frances a woman's group, organized in Rome in 1925, and compos d of members from the eleven allied countries of the Miss Bertha Joy- World War, with headq arters in was a dinner party given Paris, the American Legion Auxiliary beautiful new Kelvinator elec-And remember-at a price tric refrigerator at an amazingly low price!

Mrs. Haywood Smith conducted a warded a handmade antimacassar.

After adjournment the hostesses

Mrs. W. E. Joyner and Mrs. J. L.

RETURN FROM MONTREAT

Mary Ann Townsend, Mavis Leg-

like this, it's easy to have one of these big new Kelvinators Come in today. See this new in your kitchen! Don't miss a' Kelvinator beauty. Hear the chance like this. Come intoday story of its sensational cold1 1

FARMVILLE FURNITURE CO.

25th Anniversary! And it's cold. See startling new time-your opportunity to own a andwork-saving conveniences!

ouncement was made by the presi- HAD PRIVILEGE OF CALLING dent of the annual state convention to FRIEND WHILE AT FAIR be held in Raleigh June 25-27.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Rasberry have contest relating to the flag, in which returned from a visit to the World's Mrs. B. R. Fields as winner was Fair at New York. While in the American Telephone and Telegraph Co.'s building at the Fair, Mrs. Rasberry was chosen to make one of the Creech served delicious refreshments. long distance calls, a courtesy entended at intervals by the company to visitors. She called the residence of J. H. Harris here and enjoyed a chat with Miss Louise Harris, who answered the call.

D.A.R. CHAPTER HOUSE OPEN FOR DANCING FRIDAY NITE

gett, Alice Taylor, Madge Smith, Bill The Major May Chapter House will Pollard, Bobbie Rouse, Lester Earle be open for dancing, Friday evening, Turnage, Hume Paschal and George June 23, from 8:30 to 11:00 o'clock. The usual admission fee of 25c per person will be charged.

UUOT_ ETAOIN SHRDLU SRRRR

Mrs. Robert D. Rouse attended the Adult Conference, which was in session at the same time.

tea was served after the usual num-Mrs. C. Hubert Joyner entertained

