REV. BARCLAY AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH HERE NEXT WEEK We are glad to announce to all our friends that we have secured the services of "Captain John Barclay" to lead us in a meeting next week. The services begin each evening at 7:30, and the public is cordially invited. You cannot give the old excuse, "Busy," for the markets are closed and there is no cotton to pick. So come and enjoy these fine messages. Mr. Barclay, or "Captain John," as he is commonly known, having been a Captain "over there" in the last World War, is pastor of the Christian Church in Wilson, where he has served for ten years. He is active in all civic, school and Christian work. Mr. Barclay is a graduate of Transylvania University, Lexington, Ky., and also of Columbia. He has recently returned from an eleven weeks tour of France, Germany and Russia. Meetings begin Sunday at eleven o'clock and continue through the next Sunday. Come every one and let us worship the great King. C. B. MASHBURN.

Mrs. Jack Lewis Hostess At Lovely Bridge Affair

Country Club Tournament Climaxes Benefit Events; Patriotic, Literary and Card Groups Hold Delightful Meetings

Mrs. Jack Lewis was hostess on Wednesday at one of the largest and loveliest bridge functions ever given here, entertaining ninety-five friends in the afternoon at the Major Benjamin May Chapter House, which was beautifully decorated with fall flowers. Members of the hostess's card clubs, the New Deal and Wednesday Afternoon clubs were special guests.

The autumnal colors of brown, yellow, orange, green and blue were effectively carried in table appointments, and the tables were in autumn leaf motif. Bowls of ivy were used as mantel decorations and with silver candlesticks held candles in the chosen colors. When scores were compiled, Mrs. W. R. Burke, of the New Deal Club, was presented with Congress cards as an award; and Mrs. Henrietta M. Williamson received the consolation, a peasant apron; Mrs. David Harris, of the Wednesday Afternoon Club was awarded dusting powder for high score, and Mrs. John M. Meyborn, a peasant apron for low; Mrs. H. H. Bradham and Mrs. J. H. Harrell of Greenville, scored high for guests and were presented with a hostess plate and cigarette accessories, and Mrs. M. V. Horton, with low score, received a crystal vase.

After the games, a chicken salad, ribbon sandwiches, sliced tomatoes, pickles, salsines, iced tea and chess pies were served. Mrs. W. Alexander Allen and Mrs. Claude Tyson were gracious hostesses to the Garden Club on Monday at the home of the former, which was beautifully decorated with fall flowers in harmonizing shades. Miss Tabitha DeVisconti presided and discussed the beginning of a Tree School here, a project being sponsored by the State Garden Club, as a means of educating children in the flora of North Carolina. Plans for starting the club's shrub nursery, which will be located near the power plant, were discussed by Miss Bettie Joyner.

Mrs. L. T. Pierce delightfully entertained at a bridge series on Thursday, with members of the Progressive Bridge Club playing in the afternoon, and a number of other friends in the evening. Fall flowers were artistically arranged throughout the Pierce Home on Pine Street. The high score prize for the afternoon, celophane dish covers, was won by Mrs. M. V. Jones, and the evening award, sheer handkerchiefs by Mrs. Z. M. Whitehurst. A frozen fruit salad and iced tea were served at both occasions. Mrs. R. LeRoy Rollins, President, and Mrs. W. M. Willis were joint hostesses at the September meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary, which was held in the Legion Home. Mrs. Rollins presided, and requested reports from Mrs. Louise D. Harris, Treasurer; Mrs. Joe Henry Bynum, finance chairman; Mrs. M. V. Horton, head of the membership committee, and from Mrs. A. W. Bobbitt and Mrs. W. M. Willis, who are at work in a special campaign in October.

Mrs. C. A. Tyson, leader of a splendid program on "Music," was assisted by Mrs. J. Frank Harper, who told of a recent visit to Radio City, and by Mrs. LeRoy Rollins, who read a selection relating to the 125th anniversary of "The Star Spangled Banner." Miss Anne Jones delightfully entertained the Auxiliary with an instrumental solo, "To A Waterfall," by McDowell, and the program was brought to a close by a quiz and favorite songs, conducted by Mrs. Tyson, with Mrs. Jalma Bynum scoring high. Prior to adjournment, Mrs. Rollins formally turned the gavel over to Mrs. W. E. Joyner, the incoming president.

Delightful refreshments were served by the hostesses. Members of the Junior Woman's Club enjoyed the meeting of that group, held this week at the home of Mrs. Charles Moxingo, with Mrs. C. W. Blackwood and Mrs. A. G. Caylor as hostesses. Dahlias, Marigolds and other seasonal flowers were used with pleasing effect. Mrs. Jack Lewis in a timely discussion brought Vincent Sheehan's purposes in writing his book, "Not Peace But a Sword," before the Club as deserving much thought and consideration. Mrs. Cleveland M. Paylor read a selection, "Club Responsibility Brings Its Own Reward." Reports were given during the business session by Mrs. W. Alexander Allen, Membership Chairman; Mrs. James Wheelan, Jr., Program Chairman; Mrs. Jesse Mays, head of the Point System committee; and by Mrs. Jack Lewis of the Ways and Means committee.

A training school to be conducted by Mrs. J. M. Hogwood, for new members, was discussed and Mrs. R. T. Williams was cordially received as a new addition to the Club's roster. A delicious salad course and iced tea were served at the conclusion of the business session, presided over by Mrs. William Worthington. Mrs. B. S. Sheppard, the newly-elected president of the Woman's Club was present and spoke briefly of fall plans of that group. The interesting program was developed by Mrs. J. I. Morgan, Sr., who offered suggestions for planting bulbs; by Mrs. Jack Taylor and Miss Bettie Joyner, who spoke of gardening activities for October, and by Mrs. E. B. Hodge, who recounted the legend of the golden rod. As the guests arrived, they were served delicious coconut cake and coffee, which was poured by Mrs. Frank Davis, Sr. Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Jones delightfully entertained the Couple Club at their home in which arrangements of roses, dahlias, and other fall flowers were pleasingly placed. Mrs. Lath Morris, winner of high score among the ladies, was presented with an apron as an award, and W. E. Joyner, topping the scores of the men, received socks. The guest prize of handkerchiefs went to Mrs. B. E. Vernon. A delectable salad course was served with tea after play. Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Vernon and Miss Elizabeth Davis. Mrs. T. W. Lang graciously entertained the Merry Matrons Tuesday at her home on Contentines Street, in which fall flowers made a lovely setting for the meeting. Featuring the program was a review of Archibald MacLeish's book, "Land of the Free," by Mrs. Sidney Eagles of Saratoga, a special guest. A chicken salad course was served during a pleasant social hour. Sharing with members in the pleasures of the afternoon were Mrs. T. E. Joyner, Mrs. Herbert Potter, Jr., of Snow Hill, Mrs. Bertha Gardner, and Miss Bettie Joyner. Climaxing the benefit affairs held here from the standpoint of size and success was the bridge tournament of Friday, held by the ladies of the Country Club, with Mrs. R. S. Scott as chairman. The sum of $77.00 realized, will be used in purchasing furnishings for the kitchen of the new club house. Entertainment of players for fifty-two tables had been arranged, including the games of Bridge, Rummy, Setback and Chinese Checkers. The attractively new club house was most inviting with floral decorations of handsome dahlias in flower baskets, the mantels being particularly beautiful with arrangements of French marigolds, carrying out the chosen color note of brown and gold. The decoration committee was composed of Mrs. J. I. Morgan, Sr., Mrs. E. H. Knott and Mrs. George W. Davis. The arrangements committee serving with Mrs. Scott, composed of Mrs. A. W. Bobbitt, Mrs. H. Neal Howard, Mrs. J. I. Morgan, Jr., and Miss Mary Friar Rouse, and the various committee heads, including Mrs. W. M. Willis, refreshments; Mrs. H. Neal Howard, tables; Miss Mary Friar Rouse, Mrs. James Lang, advertising, and reported the splendid cooperation of merchants in Farmville, Greenville, and Wilson, who donated the twenty-seven prizes and refreshments. Farmville Defeats New Bern Here In Golf Tournament In a matched golf tournament played on the course of the Farmville Country Club Sunday afternoon, Farmville defeated New Bern 17 to 12. The two best scores of the tournament were recorded by Wyatt Holmes and Lowell Liles, each of whom made a 75, or one over par. Others ranged from 75 to 100, with the great left-handed "Micro" bringing up the rear. Army takes title to Caribbean air base site; it is said to plan rushing first runways.

Prompt Help For A Listless Child

Scolding won't help a boy or girl who is listless, dull or cross from constipation. But, here's something that will! If sluggish bowels have your child headachy, bilious, upset, give him a little Syrup of Black-Draught - it's the original tamed BLACK-DRAUGHT. It is an all vegetable product. Its principal ingredient is an intestinal tonic-laxative. Helps impart tone to the bowel muscles. Children like the taste of Syrup of Black-Draught. It is an all vegetable product. When simple directions are followed, its action is gentle, but prompt and complete. Comes in two sizes: 50c and 25c.

Of course, many of Farmville's best payers were either out-of-town, or had previously made other engagements. The Farmville Country Club is fast becoming the most popular place of its kind in Eastern Carolina, due primarily to its beautiful fairways, well-kept greens, plenty of caddies, low green fees and, above all, the attractive and modern equipped Club House which was recently completed. A special invitation is extended traveling men to visit the Club when in this section. Subscribe To THE ENTERPRISE.
