Farmville Women Hold Meetings of Varied Interests

Members of the Contract Club were delightfully entertained on Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Arthur F. Joyner. Decorations of lovely roses, marigolds and dahlias were used throughout the home as a setting.

Following several progressions, Mrs. C. Hubert Joyner and Mrs. Ted L. Albritton were presented with bath and guest towels as winners among the members and guests.

A delicious seafood platter was served after play. Sharing with Contract members in the pleasures of the afternoon were Mrs. Ted L. Albritton, Mrs. H. E. Bradham, Miss Hazel Monk, Mrs. J. Y. Monk, Mrs. B. S. Sheppard, Miss Elizabeth Davis and Mrs. A. C. Monk, Jr.

Mrs. Joyner's residence was the scene of a series of delightful bridge parties again on Wednesday, when she was joint hostess with Mrs. W. E. Joyner to friends for eight tables in the afternoon and evening.

Mrs. M. V. Jones won the high score prize of linen napkins in the afternoon, and Mrs. L. E. Walston received the consolation, a match holder.

In the evening, Mrs. Charles E. Fitzgerald was successful in compiling high score, the consolation prize going to Mrs. A. W. Bobbitt.

The Hallowe'en idea was effectively carried in table appointments and refreshments.

Mrs. John B. Joyner presided over the Literary Club meeting held Wednesday, with Miss Tabitha DeViventi as gracious hostess.

Announcement of the approaching district meeting of clubwomen at Elizabeth City, was made, and Mrs. Joyner was elected to represent this club at that time.

Featuring the program was an interesting discussion of "Heroines of North Carolina" by Mrs. W. C. Askew. The members joined in singing appropriate State songs.

Suggestions of Hallowe'en were noted in the lovely floral decorations of lupins, marigolds and dahlias, the color of orange and yellow being again emphasized in the delicious refreshments.

Mrs. G. E. Moore, Jr., was a gracious hostess this week, entertaining the Wednesday Afternoon Club and additional friends, Mrs. Ed Sykes, Mrs. Herbert Acton, Miss Hazel Monk and Miss Mary Friar Rouse, at bridge in the home of Mrs. G. M. Holden, in which the autumnal colors were used with pleasing effect.

Mrs. Sykes, as high score winner, was awarded a box of candy. Congealed fruit salad was served with coffee when cards were laid aside.

A lovely event of the week was the surprise birthday party given Mrs. D. R. Morgan by her husband and a number of close friends on Monday evening.

Refreshments were served from the dining room table, which was centered with a huge birthday cake, flanked by candle, bowls of lovely flowers and a novel arrangement of gift packages topped by a corsage of red roses. Dancing was enjoyed during the evening.

Among the guests, numbering forty, were Mr. and Mrs. C. Heber Forbes, of Greenville, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nelson of Washington.

SHOP OF CHARM HELD FORMAL OPENING TUESDAY

Farmville's newest business establishment, The Shop of Charm, held its formal opening on Tuesday of this week with a free demonstration of its complete "Head to Toe" beauty and health service for women and men.

This slenderizing and beauty salon is a modern establishment, offering the newest facilities and efficient service in slenderizing, conditioning and beautifying of the body, skin, hair and nails.

All guests of the salon on this occasion expressed themselves as delighted and enthusiastic over having a shop in Farmville that would be a credit to any town or city in the State.

Baskets of cut flowers and congratulatory messages were received by the owner from out-of-town friends on the occasion of the formal opening.

Extending a cordial welcome and every courtesy to guests were the owner and efficient manager, Mrs. A. Q. Roebuck, Mrs. Colvin Meadows and Miss Melva Paula Lyerly, the expert operators, and Frank Israel, hair stylist, who is also in charge of the special booth for men.

Perfect Safety Score Reported by Pamlico

New Bern, Oct. 4.—Pamlico County had a perfect record in highway safety, with no person killed or injured on the public highways by motor vehicles, during the first six months of 1939, it is reported by the State Highway Safety division.

Jones county had one reported injury, but no deaths; while Craven and Onslow each had one person killed on the highways. Injuries were 24 and one respectively. Carter reported seven deaths and 11 injuries.

Bellevue has peace until Hitler goes; reply to Goering demands "trustworthy" government.

Labor Commissioner Addresses Rotarians

Commissioner of Labor of North Carolina Forrest G. Shufford spoke to the members of the Farmville Rotary Club Tuesday night and gave a very interesting and informal talk.

Dr. R. T. Williams was received into membership of the Club by the Rotary information committee, Lightning Wellons, Bill Duke and Merritt Moore. Maynard Fletcher, of Washington, was a visitor. There were only two absentees, one of these—George Creekmore—who, we learned is in a hospital in Richmond.

Bill Wellons and Merritt Moore were the recipients of roses presented by George Davis in remembrance of their recent birthdays.

With near 100 per cent attendance and a fine program, everyone enjoyed the meeting.

Beginning next Tuesday night, the Rotary Club will meet at 6:30 P. M.

MRS. ORLA JOYNER JOINS COUNTY NURSING STAFF

It was learned last week at the Health Department that Mrs. Orla Joyner, of Asheville, N. C., had joined the nursing force of the Pitt County Health Department. She reported for duty Monday morning.

Mrs. Joyner's chief work will be in connection with the VD Control Program, the major portion of her salary coming from the State VD budget. Mrs. Joyner has had public health nursing experience in both Tennessee and Kentucky as well as in North Carolina. It is understood that she comes to the Pitt County Health Department with the highest credentials. The addition of Mrs. Joyner to the local Health Department gives the department a corps of four nurses—three white and one colored.

Mrs. Joyner will take up her work coincident with the opening of the new VD quarters which occurred today in the Health Department.

MAY "NOSE-PRINT" DOGS

Albany, N. Y. — In order to end the stealing of valuable dogs for reward money or for sale, a plan for nation-wide identification of dogs by "nose-printing" to eliminate "dog-napping" was presented to the American Humane Association at its recent meeting here.

Seed Treatment Will Control Smut in Grain

Howard R. Garriss, assistant plant pathologist of the State College Extension Service, recommends that farmers use fungicidal dusts to control smut (bunt) of wheat and other small grains if they are unable to obtain smut-resistant varieties of seed. He points out that smut diseases cost North Carolina growers thousands of dollars annually in reduced yields of
