pounds sold for the same number of days. The market for this week has sold 1,492,544 pounds for $256,275.72 at an ayrage of $17.16. And for the season to date the market has sold an average of $16.11.

The records continue to disclose that the Farmville market stays on top in price averages, and in view of this fact it is now believed that we will exceed thirty million by the first of December. Farmers are urged to bring the remainder of their tobacco to this market where they will have every reason to feel that each pile of their tobacco will bring that expected top price. The warehousemen clinics. on the Farmville market are now prepared to give you a sale every day.

Two Holidays
