CHRISTMAS PROGRAM DEC. 21 AT THE METHODIST CHURCH

On Thursday at 7:30 P. M., December 21st, a White Christmas program will be presented by the children and young people in the auditorium of the church. Following this exercise, gifts will be placed about the White Christmas Tree and later distributed to needy families in the community.

ADDITIONAL DONATIONS TO CHRISTMAS CHEER

The name of the Darling Dress Shop, a new Farmville firm, but one which is rapidly becoming a favorite with shoppers here, was omitted from the published list last week of merchants donating to the beautiful street decorations, which are now being enjoyed by citizens and motorists passing through.

Since the last issue of the paper, the Pollard Auto Co. has been solicited for a donation in this connection and has been added to the list of merchants providing outside cheer this season.

CHRISTMAS PAGEANT AT THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The young people of the Presbyterian Church, assisted by the Choir will present the pageant, "The Church's One Foundation", at the Church on Wednesday evening, December 20th, at 7:30 o'clock.

After the pageant there will be a social hour in honor of the young people of the Church who are away at school, and are expected home for the holidays.

It is believed that this will be a timely and interesting program, and the public is cordially invited to attend.

Correction in Wedding Copenhaver - Beaman Account of Last Week

Due to an oversight in the make-up department, the following paragraph was omitted from the Copenhaver-Beaman wedding account of last week. We are pleased to print same at this time with apologies for our error. (Ed.)

Mr. Copenhaver, the son of Robert Clark Copenhaver, of Jackson, Miss., is a native of Abingdon, Va. He attended Emory and Washington & Lee Colleges. He has been connected with the W. B. Lea Tobacco Co., for several years with headquarters in Farmville, where he has made many friends and is a popular member of the young social set.

WALSTONBURG SINGERS IN CHRISTMAS CANTATA

A large crowd is anticipated at the Walstonburg Methodist Church on Wednesday, December 20, when the Walstonburg community will have the opportunity to enjoy a Christmas cantata. This special musical program will be presented by the choir of the Methodist Church, and will feature Louise Stairs' "The Child of Bethlehem."

In addition to the soprano, alto and baritone solos, there will be duets, trios and choruses. This cantata will be one of the highlights of the Christmas celebration in Walstonburg and will be the first program of its kind in the community.

The choir is under the direction of Mrs. Carlos Walston and composed of: Mrs. Frank Shirley, Mrs. Irvin Minnow, Miss Ruby Burch, Miss Fanny Mae Smith, Mrs. Leann Rouse, Miss Madeline Smith, Sam Chandler, Allen Tucker and Rufus Beaman. The accompanist is Mrs. Ivey Smith. The service will begin promptly at 7:30 Wednesday evening, according to the pastor, Rev. E. C. Cooper, and the public is cordially invited to attend.

The Spirit of Christmas Inspires Programs and Pervades Homes

Social Occasions Marked by Festive Atmosphere and Holiday Mood

Forest greens, gaily dressed and blooming plants, red berries, lighted tapers, decorated Christmas trees. Nativity and miniature village scenes gave a festive atmosphere and holiday spirit to the varied social events of the week here. The plate decorations and favors carried the Yuletide suggestion and the tallies and table appointments at the bridge parties, all borrowed the seasonal colors and Santa motif.

The December meeting of the Major Benjamin May Chapter, D. A. R., was held in the Chapter House with Mrs. Henrietta M. Williamson presiding in the absence of the regent, Mrs. T. C. Turnage.

Mrs. Whitmore conducted the devotional, based on St. Luke's account of the Nativity.

Miss Tabitha DeVisconti, conservation chairman, made her report and was appointed chairman of a committee to provide gifts from this organization to one of the Christmas opportunities of the community. The house committees for the year were read by Mrs. Williamson.

Featuring the program was a paper on Christmas Music, read by Mrs. J. L. Shackelford, with a piano solo, "Silent Night, Holy Night," by Donald Baucom, and the singing of Christmas carols by the chapter members.

After adjournment a variety of sandwiches, sand tarts, stuffed dates and Russian tea were served.

An interesting meeting of the Woman's Club was held at the home of Mrs. C. H. Moxing with Mrs. Jack Taylor, Mrs. E. C. Carr and Mrs. O. G. Spell as joint hostesses. Mrs. B. S. Sheppard presided.

Departmental chairmen reported activities of their respective groups and plans for the winter months. Miss Annie Perkins, head of the Literary-Art department, extended an invitation to the club to attend the next meeting of her group.

The program, relating to the Yuletide, was developed by Mrs. John D. Holmes, who read a selection, "Noel, Noel," by Grace Leach, and by Miss Bettie Joyner, who read a Christmas story. Bringing the program to a close was the ensemble rendition of favorite Christmas carols by the club members.

Pineapple short cake, coffee and salted nuts were served.

The Junior Woman's Club met at the home of Miss Maxine Long with Mrs. Jack Lewis as joint hostess. The newly-elected president, Mrs. J. LeRoy Parker, presided. The resignation of Mrs. J. M. Wheelless, Jr., former president, who is leaving soon to make her home in York, Pa., was accepted with regret, and Mrs. Jesse Moye was elected to succeed her as vice president. Miss Mary Friar Rouse was elected as club parliamentarian. The club voted at this time to assist in the organization of a Junior Woman's Club in Wilson; to provide a Christmas basket, the needy, and members heard of the success of a recent venture, undertaken by the ways and means committee, of which Mrs. Jack Lewis is chairman.

Mrs. C. M. Paylor read a selection "From A Golden Harvest To A Golden Jubilee," from "The Club Woman". A splendid review of John P. Marquand's book, "Wickford Point" was given by Miss Mary Friar Rouse.

A delightful sweet course and coffee were served after the guests had arrived and prior to the meeting. Mrs. Haywood Smith and Miss Annie Perkins were gracious hostesses at the meeting of the Literary Art Department, held at the home of Mrs. J. M. Hobbgood.

Miss Hattie Parrott, of the State Department of Education, was the guest speaker. Miss Parrott, introduced by the chairman, Miss Annie Perkins, gave an interesting account of a trip made to the Scandinavian countries this year.

Other delightful program events were vocal renditions by Mrs. John D. Holmes and a Christmas reading by Mrs. S. V. Lore.

During a pleasant social hour ice cream, pie, coffee and nuts were served by the hostesses.

The Christmas theme ran throughout the program presented at the Merry Matrons meeting, held at the home of Mrs. John T. Thorne on Tuesday. A delightful reading, "The Christmas Rose" was given by Mrs. S. V. Lore and several carols were sung by the members with Mrs. B. O. Turnage at the piano.

This group voted to contribute $3 to the Community Christmas fund during the business session, and a nominating committee, composed of Mrs. Wesley R. Willis, Mrs. A. C. Monk and Mrs. W. Leslie Smith, was appointed by the presiding officer, Mrs. Alton W. Bobbitt.

At the close of the meeting, plum pudding, topped with cream, glazed apples, saltines, pickles, coffee, cheese biscuits and nuts were served.

Special guests of the hostess were Mrs. Lore, Miss Bettie Joyner, Mrs. R. A. Joyner and Mrs. C. Hubert Joyner.

The United Daughters of the Confederacy, Rebecca Winbourne chapter, studied the historical background and development of Chattanooga with Mrs. T. W. Lang as program leader of the December meeting, held in the home of Mrs. W. Leslie Smith.

Mrs. G. M. Holden presided over a business session, at which plans were laid for sending gifts to widows of Confederate veterans.

A delicious salad course was served. Mrs. Henrietta M. Williamson was hostess at a lovely club party, entertaining members of the New Deal Club and other friends for seven tables of contract. Mrs. Frank Davis, Jr., scoring high for members, was awarded a piece of yellow pottery, Mrs. W. Leslie Smith received the guest prize, a set of crystal ash trays, and the consolation, bric-a-brac, was given to Mrs. M. V. Horton.

Mrs. Louise Harris, Mrs. Joel Moye, Mrs. J. H. Faylor and Mrs. G. M. Holden assisted the hostess in serving plum pudding and cream, salted nuts and coffee.

The Progressive Bridge Club was delightfully entertained by Mrs. E. C. Beaman. Mrs. W. C. Askew, compiling high score, received a silver nut dish, and Mrs. J. H. Darden with low score, was given a potted plant. Mrs. Roy Lassiter was a special guest. A delectable salad course was served.

Mrs. David T. Harris entertained the Ace of Clubs and additional friends this week. Mrs. J. M. Wheelless, Jr., winner of club prizes and Miss Maxine Long, with top score among guests, received awards of pottery. Mrs. Wheelless, who is leaving soon to make her home in York, Pa., was remembered with a friendship motto.

Guests were invited into the dining room for refreshments. The table had a center arrangement of forest greens and silver berries, flanked by red candles in silver holders. Mrs. Wheelless, seated at one end of the table, poured tea, and Mrs. W. H. Moore, Jr., passed dainty sandwiches, cookies and salted nuts.

Sharing with members in the pleasures of the afternoon were: Mrs. A. C. Gay, of Fountain; Mrs. Clarence Moye, of Maury; Miss Maxine Long and Mrs. Ed Sykes. Mrs. W. A. Barrett was gracious hostess to the Colonel Alexander McAllister Chapter, D. A. R. Mrs. J. B. Murphy, regent, presided and introduced Rev. C. B. Mashburn, who gave an enlightening discourse on "North Carolina, Yesterday and Today."

The regent announced at this time that the scrap book of the chapter historian, Mrs. Preston Murphrey, won second prize at the State convention. The Chapter voted to send a Christmas box to Crossnore school. Angel hash and coffee were served after adjournment. Mrs. B. S. Smith was a special guest at this time.

JOYNER APPOINTED ASSISTANT CLAIM MANAGER IN CHICAGO

Roderick S. Joyner has been appointed assistant manager of the Chicago claim office of Maryland Casualty. He succeeds G. A. Olson, who was advanced to manager following the retirement of E. A. Hulburd after 26 years as head of the office.

Mr. Joyner went to the Chicago office in 1934 as supervisor, going from the Philadelphia office. He entered the insurance business in 1920 as an adjuster for Maryland Casualty in the Detroit office, resigning in 1923 to handle bonding matters for Edson & Co., rising to general sales manager for the southeastern part of the United States. He rejoined the Maryland in 1930.

Mr. Joyner is president of the Chicago Maryland Club, which is an organization of employees.—The National Underwriter.
