Meetings of Week Turned Into Festive Occasions

Christmas Colors And Motifs Are Observed in Home Decorations at Social Affairs

The favored combinations of the traditional colors of red and green, and the modern note of blue and silver in Yuletide decorations of Christmas trees, wreaths, plants and lights, have been used effectively in homes by hostesses here during the week, and refreshment plates have also been seasonal as to color and content.

The December meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association was held on Thursday evening in Parkin's Hall with Mrs. C. L. Barrett presiding and Rev. B. B. Fordham conducting the devotional, the theme of which was the Christmas message.

Reports of committees included that of Mrs. R. LeRoy Rollins, who reported 338 members on the roster, and announced that the membership prizes of $5, offered by the organization were won by grade 3, Miss Margaret Lewis, teacher, and Miss Russell Ward's room in the high school. Miss Lewis' room also won the room roll call prize for the month.

Mrs. R. S. Scott, finance chairman, gave a splendid report, and Mrs. T. B. Rouse, treasurer, gave as a total sum in the treasury, $192.60.

Superintendent J. H. Moore made brief remarks regarding the dedication exercises of the new gymnasium and agricultural building.

An enjoyable one-act play, "Out of the Night", was presented by the Dramatic Club, under the direction of Miss Mary Dorcas Harding and Miss D. Liles, with roles taken by Arthur Joyner, Frances Howard, Bill Pollard, Bobby Rouse and Vassar Fields.

Mrs. John B. Joyner was hostess at a delightful meeting of the Literary Club. Mrs. J. W. Joyner presided and as her contribution to the program read Ethel Wood's poems, "Invitation", "Revelation", "One Small Candle" and "Consecration."

Mrs. C. Hubert Joyner, program chairman for the afternoon, presented Mrs. Cherry Easley, guest speaker, who discussed "Christmas, Its Meaning and Legends," telling interesting stories regarding the frankincense, pines, holly, the first Christmas tree, and of Christmas customs in different lands.

Miss Annie Perkins told of Moravian customs at Salem College, and concluded with a story, "Mrs. Goosie's Christmas Tree."

The delicious refreshments consisted of turkey a la king on rosettes, cheese wafers, sandwiches in Santa and tree motifs, tea biscuits, crax, grapefruit and cranberry salad in star molds, followed by individual cakes lighted by candles and served with coffee. Assisting Mrs. Joyner in receiving and serving were her small daughter, Videau, Miss Bettie Joyner, Mrs. Daisy H. Smith, Mrs. Henrietta M. Williamson and Mrs. A. B. Moore.

Mrs. Irving Morgan, Jr., was a gracious hostess at a meeting of the Lamrad Club, entertaining members, and Mrs. Merritte Moore and Mrs. J. M. Wheelock, Jr., as special guests. Mrs. Moore was winner of the high score prize, a dainty handkerchief, and Mrs. Wheelock, who leaves next month to make her home in York, Pa., was remembered with a lovely gift. Delicious refreshments were served after play.

Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Jones delightfully entertained the Couple Club on Monday evening. W. E. Joyner topped scores of the men and received a handkerchief. Mrs. Lath Morris for high score among the ladies received cellophane dish covers, and Mrs. J. Y. Monk was awarded the guest prize. Delicious egg nog, pound cake and salted nuts were served at the conclusion of the progressions.

Special guests were Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Jones, Mrs. J. Y. Monk and Miss Elizabeth Davis.

Bringing the social events of the week to a delightful close was a lovely tea given by the Home Ec 1 girls and their teacher, Miss Verona Lee Joyner, as a holiday courtesy to the mothers of the girls, with Class 2, their mothers and members of the faculty as invited guests.

At Home Ec Cottage presented a beautiful and inviting setting with forest greens, berries, soft lights and miniature Christmas scenes.

Lucille Allen greeted guests as they arrived and Agnes Virginia Quinley introduced them to the receiving line, composed of Lois Jones, Nancy Gates, Edna Ruth Ivey and Dorothy Melton.

Wilma Stansill directed the way to the dining room. Pouring tea from a beautifully appointed and blimmed table were Blanche Rouse and Hazel Moxing, and serving Christmas cookies, sandwiches in Christmas motifs and candies and trifled dates were: Dorothy Seigler, Bonnie Belle Balders, Carley Ann Johnston, Alma Gray Lilley, Rachel Andrews, Margie Moxing, Rosebud Tyson and Frances Lewis.

Lucy May Farmer and Mildred Nannoy received at the library door and guests were registered here by Doris Turner and Nablene Allen. Grace Beaman, showing guests about the cottage, and good byes were said by Marie Gregory and Esther Rouse. Around a hundred guests called during the afternoon.

FAITH WAS BORN

Faith was born, In a bright shining star, Seen by wise men In a country afar.

Faith was born, Heavenly angels sang, While Peace on Earth, Around the world rang.

Faith was born, I did not see A babe in a manger, Born to love me. G. S. C.

ANNOUNCE MARRIAGE

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hobgood announce the marriage of their daughter, Dillard Rebecca, to Mariah Spikes of Maury. The marriage took place in Emporia, Va., on Saturday, December 16. The young couple will be at home in Maury.

BEAUTIFICATION

Residents of Roanoke Island are realizing that they can make this resort spot more attractive to visitors by beautifying the grounds of their homes and buildings.

YAMS

Yields of 250 to 400 bushels to the acre are being reported by many sweet potato growers of Martin county, as harvesting operations are started on this year's crop.

KILLED BY OWN GUN

Harvey Cedars, N. J. — After cleaning his .38-caliber pistol, William V. Becker, 46, of New York City, reached up to place it on a closet shelf. The weapon discharged as a stool slipped from under Becker's feet. The bullet pierced his heart.

When the dinner bell rings even lazy men stir themselves.
