MOTHERS HONORED

Mrs. J. B. Henson entertained at a very delightful party Friday afternoon for the G. A. Society, honoring the mothers of the members. Virginia Fields and Rachel Moye met the mothers at the door and ushered them into the living room where Mrs. Henson introduced the mothers.

HIP-HIP HOORAY BEAUTY CHORUS

The Beautiful Dancing Girls who will appear in Farmville Saturday night, May 18th with the Hip-Hip Hooray, Big Musical Show featuring America's funniest black face comedian "Cotton" Watts, "The Dusty Cloud of Joy" and "Happy" Ray, the nit-wit of fun. The company will appear here in a Big Beautiful Tent Theatre for one night only.

Darryl F. Zanuck's Production of 'The Grapes of Wrath' Fearlessly Brings Great Novel to Screen

When all had assembled the society gave a very interesting program appropriate to Mother's Day. Later in the afternoon the mothers were invited to the hall, where an exhibit of the Society's work for the current quarter was held. When they returned to the living room two small tables centered with a May-Pole, a tall white candle in the center of a white frosted cake, from near the top of the candle extended narrow ribbons in various shades of blue, red, pink, yellow, green and lavender. In the circle around the cake were placed tiny dressed dolls to match the ribbon in the May-Pole dance. Each doll held one of the ribbons. The children helped their mothers find their places.

The hostess assisted by Pauline Dixon, Ramona Rouse, Rayonal Bailey and Elizabeth Shirley served iced fruit punch sandwiches Ritz and doughnuts. The mothers present were: Mesdames Frank Shirley, I. J. Rouse, R. D. S. Dixon, G. W. Bailey, Rosa McKiel, Betsy McKeel, W. E. Moy and C. T. Hicks. The G. A. members—Emma Jean Reddick, Ethelene and Janie Bell McKeel, Rachel Moye, Elizabeth Shirley, Virginia Fields, Rayonal Bailey, Pauline and Frances Dixon and Ramona Rouse—all declared it a very enjoyable party.

Occasionally, we hear of somebody who dislikes what we write and thinks we are absolute fools. The possibility exists, we admit, that "somebody" may be right.

Most important screen news of the year is the announcement that Darryl F. Zanuck's production of "The Grapes of Wrath" will be presented by 20th Century-Fox at the Pares Theatre on Thursday and Friday.

The film version of John Steinbeck's stirring best-seller was wildly acclaimed at its world premiere run at New York's Rivoli Theatre, where it broke all records with the biggest opening attendance in the entire 222-year history of that theatre.

Under the direction of Academy Award Winner John Ford, the stirring human adventures of the Joad family are reported to have been brought to the screen with all the power, drive and humor that characterized the book.

To insure absolute fidelity to the original story, Associate Producer Nunnally Johnson, who wrote the screen play, conferred with Steinbeck over the completed script. Steinbeck heartily applauded Johnson's work and expressed particular pleasure that all the humor of the original story had been kept intact in the picture.

"MARITIME DAY"

May 22nd had been proclaimed National Maritime Day by President Roosevelt to commemorate the first successful transport oceanic voyage under steam propulsion by The Savannah, which set sail from the Georgia port in May 22nd, 1819.
