Bridge Affairs Honor Out Of Town Visitors

Featuring the social calendar this week were a number of lovely parties extended out of town friends, visiting here, as courtesies.

Mrs. R. A. Parker entertained friends for four tables of bridge in compliment to her house guest, Mrs. J. B. Cutchins, of Washington, and Mrs. T. T. Grimes, of Miami, Fla., who is visiting her sister, Mrs. S. A. Roebuck. Artistic floral decorations were observed throughout the home.

The high score prize, towels, were won by Mrs. R. O. Lang, and the honoree, together with Mrs. Augustus Rogers, of Lake Alfred, Fla., house guest of her sister, Mrs. R. O. Lang, were presented with guest towels. Mrs. Grimes also received consolation prize, a piece of pottery. A variety of sandwiches, cookies and a refreshing beverage were served after play.

Mrs. Henrietta M. Williamson was hostess at bridge, honoring Mrs. J. Stanley Smith, of Virginia Beach. Pleasing flower arrangements were used throughout the home. Mrs. J. L. Shackelford, compiling high score, received bath towels and Mrs. Smith was presented with hose by the hostess. Peach ice cream and black chocolate cake were served after play.

Mrs. P. E. Jones honored Mrs. T. T. Grimes at a lovely bridge party, at which Mrs. Frank M. Davis, Jr., made high score and won a novel shaped tray, Mrs. Claude L. Barrett receiving the consolation, and the honoree and other out of town guest, Mrs. Augustus Rogers were recipients of attractive gifts. Refreshing pineapple ice, wafers and salted nuts were served. The Jones home on North Main street was beautifully decorated with summer flowers.

Mrs. D. R. Morgan entertained at bridge for Mrs. Grimes at the Country Club Monday morning, Mrs. S. A. Roebuck winning the high score award, and the honoree receiving pottery as a gift from the hostess. Delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. Roebuck and her sister, Mrs. Grimes, were luncheon guests of Mrs. Nellie James, of Greenville, on Tuesday.

One of the loveliest of the many delightful summer bridge parties being given in compliment to visitors here, was that of Wednesday afternoon, when Mrs. W. Leslie Smith entertained, honoring Mrs. T. T. Grimes, of Miami, Fla. The colors of yellow, green and white were artistically carried in the floral decorations of gladioli, marigolds, lupin and daisies, the table arrangement in the dining room being particularly lovely. Here guests were served a fruit drink and dainty sandwiches as they arrived by Mrs. James H. Smith, daughter-in-law of the hostess, and received their tallies.

Five tables were arranged for the games in which Mrs. J. L. Shackelford won the high score prize, a lemonade set, and Mrs. W. M. Willis received the consolation, bath bubbles. Mrs. T. T. Grimes, honoree, was presented bath powder by the hostess, who remembered with lovely gifts of linen other out of town guests, Mrs. Augustus Rogers, of Lake Alfred, Fla., and Mrs. J. F. Hassell, of Stratford, Conn., house guest of Mrs. J. M. Hobgood.

The chosen color note was again emphasized in the refreshment appointments for the tables, and in the ices and decorated cakes.

Mrs. C. Hubert Joyner was a gracious hostess on Thursday morning, entertaining at bridge in compliment to Mrs. J. F. Hassell and Mrs. T. T. Grimes. Mrs. W. E. Joyner scored high and was awarded an ice bucket, and Mrs. R. A. Parker was winner of the second prize, coasters, with Mrs. Arthur F. Joyner receiving the consolation, vases. The hostess presented the honor guests with embroidered guest towels. Sandwiches in card motif, cookies and a refreshing beverage were served. Lovely garden flowers were in pleasing arrangements.

Mrs. John B. Joyner entertained at a barbecue dinner at Respass' in Greenville, honoring Mrs. Grimes, on Thursday, and Mrs. S. A. Roebuck and Mrs. L. T. Pierce were joint hostesses at a large and lovely party in her honor Thursday, evening, entertaining at the Country Club.

Mrs. W. M. Willis entertained the Couple Club on Monday evening, having as special guests, Mrs. S. A. Roebuck and house guest, Mrs. Grimes. Lovely garden flowers were used in pleasing arrangements. Mrs. C. Hubert Joyner won the ladies' prize, a Madeira guest towel, and Lath Morris, the men's award, handkerchiefs. Mrs. Grimes received a lovely gift from the hostess.

A delicious ice course was served. Miss Martha Lewis and Mrs. E. Bert Banson were gracious hostesses this week at the home of the former, entertaining at a surprise birthday party in compliment to Miss Mary Barbee. Bridge was played at five tables with Miss Geraldine Gardner winning the high score award, a powder jar, and table prizes of novel flower containers, being won by Miss Mary Friar Rouse, Miss Eva Mae Turnage, Miss Mary Barbee, Mrs. H. T. Smith and Mrs. Curtis Flanagan. The honoree received a shower of lovely gifts including lingerie from the hostesses. The birthday cake was cut by Miss Barbee and served with peach ice cream.

A group of friends entertained at a birthday party for Miss Mary Barbee at the apartment of Mrs. Dora H. Keel on Saturday evening. After several progressions of bridge, peach ice cream was served and the birthday cake was cut and served by the honor guest, who received a number of lovely gifts. Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Barbee and son, B. C., Jr., of Wilson, parents and brother of Miss Barbee were special guests.

Birth Announcement

Mr. and Mrs. W. Clarence Edwards of Jacksonville, Fla., announce the birth of a son on Monday, July 22nd. Mrs. Edwards was formerly Miss Mary Wheless, of Farmville.

GINN-SKINNER

Coming as a surprise to their many friends in this section, was the marriage on Sunday evening, of Miss Annie Laurie Skinner, daughter of Roy Skinner and the late Mrs. Mary Gold Skinner, to Mr. Ed Malcolm Ginn, of Snow Hill, son of Mrs. Ed Ginn and the late Mr. Ginn, of Snow Hill. The marriage took place in Emporia, Va.

The bride wore a blue shark skin dress with a white hat and accessories. The young couple are making their home in Snow Hill, where Mr. Ginn holds a position with Quinn-Miller Furniture Co.

PASSES 68th MILESTONE

Friends of Dr. C. C. Joyner, were congratulating him on Saturday, the 20th, the occasion being his 68th birthday. Born July 20, 1872, on Saturday morning, and as he laughingly remarked, an hour before sunrise, Dr. Joyner has led a useful life and rendered a distinctive service to this community.

A veteran physician, in whom the Country Doctor is so well typified, his practice of 38 years has been wide and varied, and he is one of the best known and highly esteemed men in this section of the State.

Dr. Joyner retains the dignified bearing, rapid stride and keen eye of his youthful days, and the edge of his wit hasn't been dulled one whit by the hand of Time. Amazingly energetic, his mind is even more active, and he is generally conceded to be one of the best read men in Eastern North Carolina.

An individualist, who thinks for himself and dares to live his convictions, the physician has merited the high regard which he receives from this community, and through his humanitarian efforts has throughout the years exemplified a rare nobility of mind and soul.
