P.-T. Council of Pitt Meets in Greenville

Greenville, Oct. 1.—A very enthusiastic meeting of the Pitt County Council of Parents and Teachers was held at Sheppard Memorial Library last Friday morning at ten-thirty o'clock. The meeting was called to order by the President, Mrs. J. C. Parker, of Fountain, and then turned over to the program committee, Mrs. Ed Batchelor, of Greenville.

The program began with a prayer by Mrs. J. H. Waldrop, followed by a very beautiful solo by Mrs. Helene Higgs Kirkpatrick. The speaker, Mrs. D. M. Clark, was then introduced to the group by Mrs. Batchelor.

Mrs. Clark's theme was, the crying need for better moral training, better play facilities, stricter attention paid to proper food for the children in the elementary grades of our schools in Pitt County. Mrs. Clark drew very aptly her illustrations of larger amounts of money spent in the city of Greenville for so many recreational and civic projects, yet not one playground has been provided for the small children through the elementary grades. She vividly portrayed the not impossible ideal of supervised playgrounds for the child through the years most important in developing foundation of fine ideals and characters. She told the group that one child out of every three children was undernourished. This was due so often to the parents not knowing or caring whether the food was suitable for the child's growth and development, rather than the inability to furnish food. Our democracy needs strong children mentally, morally, and physically. Our work as Parents and Teachers is to see that our conditions in our own community are adequate and useful.

A discussion of adequate playground space was taken up by the group. Only three schools out of the group felt that they had adequate playground space, for their children. Some were pitifully meager. All agreed that Parents' and Teachers' Organizations would do all in their power to relieve these conditions.

Another problem was discussed. Who of the children should be given free lunches from the school lunch-rooms? All schools seem to have the problem of those parents who are able financially to furnish adequate lunches, but send the child to school without providing a lunch for him. All agreed that the child must be fed. Some very good suggestions were given to relieve this situation, in our school lunchrooms.

A short business session was held, at the end of which Mrs. Fuson, our State Director of Parents and Teachers gave us helpful suggestions, and announced that the District Meeting would be held in Greenville on November thirteenth. This will bring Parents and Teachers from all of Eastern North Carolina to our town. These District Meetings are sensational in the reports each organization brings of the work accomplished each year for the good of the children. Pitt County Parents and Teachers would like to have a good number present at this meeting to greet these people, at that time.

The Pitt County Council of Parents and Teachers adjourned to meet again April 22, 1941.

Wake Lazy Insides All-Vegetable Way

Thousands turn to this way to get relief when they're lazy intestinally and it has them headachy, bilious, irritable, listless: A quarter to a half-teaspoonful of spicy, aromatic, all-vegetable BLACK-DRAUGHT on your tongue tonight, a drink of water, and there you are! Thus, it usually allows time for a night's rest; acts gently, thoroughly next morning, so relieving constipation's headaches, biliousness, bad breath.

BLACK-DRAUGHT'S main ingredient is an "intestinal tonic-laxative," which helps impart tone to lazy bowel muscles. The millions of packages used prove its merit. Economical, too: 25 to 40 doses, 25c.

J. RUFUS CARSON

Bethel.—J. Rufus Carson, 86, one of Martin County's most prominent citizens, died at his home near here Wednesday. In ill health several years, he had been confined only a few days when death came.

Funeral services were conducted from the home Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock by the Rev. M. Y. Self, pastor of Bethel Methodist Church, and the Rev. M. M. Johnson, pastor of the Bethel Baptist Church, burial was in Bethel cemetery.

Mr. Carson is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mamie Ward Carson; a daughter, Mrs. Sidney Carr of Farmville; three sons, D. C. and R. R. Carson of Bethel and Robert L. Carson, of Houston, Tex., and five grandchildren.

Life would be much better, perhaps, if pay day came ten times as fast as collection days.
