Non-Military Projects To Be Shelved While Huge Rearmament Drive Is In Progress; Thinks Defense Program Will Absorb Part of Religion Food

Washington, Nov. 28. — President Roosevelt today projekted a rigid govremental economy program under which the regular federal budget would be cut to the bone and expenditures for rearmament field to ential items.

Outlining the program at his semiweekly press conference, Mr. Roosevelt said he would enunciate such a policy in the forthcoming budget and establish a strict rule that all national defense projects must be free

This means, he said, that the administration will shelve many types of programs which hitherto have taken large slices of the regular federal budget.
