Miss Mary Barbee spent the weel end with relatives in Wilson.

Mrs. Mabrey Pollard and daughter spent Friday with friends in Green-Miss Frances Joyner, teacher in the Raleigh schools, is at home for the holidays. Miss Bertha Rae Joyner, teacher in the Pink Hill school, is at home for the holidays. Mrs. Lucy Rumley, of Goldshoro, spent' Thanksgiving Day with Mrs. Pearl Johnston. Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Stansill and children spent Thanksgiving day with relatives in Speed. Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Watson, of Wilson, are spending this week with Mr.

and Mrs. J. Y. Monk. A large number of tobacconists left this week for the Kentucky and Tennessee tobacco markets. Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Wheless, of Raleigh, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wheless this week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Joyner, of Chicago, is spending the week with Mrs. Bertha Joyner and family.

Miss Margaret Smith, member of the Reidsville school faculty, is at home for the holiday season. . . .

Mrs. Albert Horton and Mrs. Kathleen Moore are spending the holidays with relatives in Richmond, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Sterling Gates and children are spending the week end with relatives at Four Oaks.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Wright, Jr., of Greensboro, are spending the week end with Mrs. J. L. Shackleford.

Dr. Tom Thurston, medical student at Harvard, spent several days of this week with Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Holmes.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Joyner and family, of Morehead City, spent Thaksgiving Day with Mrs. Bertha Joyner.

Miss Elizabeth Lang, teacher in the LaGrange school, is spending the Thanksgiving holidays at her home

Henderson school, is spending the Thanksgiving holidays with her fam-Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Holmes and children, of Hertford, are spending the week end with Mr. and Mrs. J. W.

Mrs. George Monk and children, of Shanghai, China, arrived Thanksgiving Day for a visit to Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Monk. ...

Mr. and Mrs. George Harrell and daughter, Tommie, of Kinston, spent Thanksgiving Day with Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Joyner.

The Farmville school closed at noon Wednesday to enable members of the faculty to get to their homes in time for Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. R. LeRoy Rollins and son, Robert, and Miss Russell Ward are spending the holidays with relatives in Sunbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sugg Askew and small daughter, Betty Dawson, of Wilson, spent Thanksgiving Day with Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Askew.

Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Dale and daughter, of Snow Hill, and Rev. and Mrs. Chester Pelt, of Wilson, were guests of Miss Alice Dale, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Todd and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Mattox, of Wendell, spent Thanksgiving Day with Mr. and Mrs. Elbert C. Holmes.

Miss Matilda England and niece, Dorothy Morgan, have returned to sauce, creamed potatoes, green peas, the bridegroom will be on the tobacco Washington, D. C., after a visit to cole slaw, graham muffins, 10c; lemon market for the season. Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wholess.

Priends will be glad to learn that E. Y. Beardsley, who has been con- bread, picules, 10e; apple pic, 5c.

has been critically ill, is improving. Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Davis, Sr., with cake, Sc. Charles M. Griffin, of Wilson, have creamed turnips, baked sweet pots. bar of Farmville's young social set, Nonie Barrett, Mrs. H. W. Kemp.

... Mrs. Cooper Person and daughters, biscuit, 10c; caramel pie, 5c. Mrs. Walter Crouch, of Jacksony Fin., and Miss Helens Person, of Pikeville, were guests of Mrs. J. L. Shack-

Mr. and Mrs. Ray West, Sr. and closed in the northern and western ed with A. C. Monk and Company in ed by the hostesses. Mr. and Mrs. Ray West, Jr., of Wal- National forests, reports the U. S. Parmville, and upon their return in One of the loveliest of the fall stenburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Porest Service.

...

Monday, December 2 2:30 P. M .- Spiritual Life Group, Methodist Woman's Society, meets in the Church. 3:00 P. M .- Baptist Missionary Society meets with Mrs. Davis. 3:00 P. M .- Circle No. 1, Presbyterlan Auxiliary, meets with Mrs. Frank Dupree, Jr. 3:00 P. M .- Episcopal Auxiliary meets with Mrs. J. H. Darden. 3:00 P. M .- Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service meets in the Church.

3:00 P. M .- Woman's Council the Christian Church meets in 8:00 P. M. Circle No. 2, Presbyterian Auxiliary, meets with Mrs. Garry Bergeron. 7:00 P. M .- Red Men. Tuesday, 3

2:30 P. M.-Ace of Clubs meets with Mrs. Lyman Joyner. 3:00 P. M.-Contract Club meets at the home of Mrs. G. M. Holden with Mrs. W. S. Royster as hotess.

6:30 P. M .- Rotary Club. 8:00 P. M.-Junior Order. Wednesday, 4

3:30 P. M.-Literary Club meets with Mrs. P. E. Jones. Thursday, 5

3:00 P. M.-Junior Woman's Club meets at the home of Mrs. C. S. Hotchkiss, with Mrs. Charlie Meyer as joint hostess . · Friday, 6

3:30 P. M .- U. D. C. meets with Mrs. T. W. Lang. 7:00 P. M.—American Legion.

7:30 P. M .- Boy Scouts. 8:00 P. M. - Woodmen of the

GOIN-FOWLER

At home Walstonburg.

TO GIVE PAGEANT

The Woman's Council of the Chris-Miss Nannie Smith, teacher in the invited to attend.

THANKSGIVING SERVICE

The annual, union Thanksgiving turban. services will be held this year at the The bridesmaids were Misses Eva this service.

POLICE ORDER

on the streets to greet Santa Claus ribbons. Friday night, December 6, we request that motorists leave Main street be-L. T. LUCAS, Chief,

Police Department.

SPECIAL MEETING

All members of the White Oals be served at 7 o'clock and meeting ville, Ky., Richard D. Harris and W. Mrs. E. W. May, Mrs. Joe H. Moore opens at 7:30. We are planning to A. Martin. organize a Basket Ball team. This will be discussed at the meeting; also expect new candidates to be Initiated. This meeting will be worth your time, so be sure to attend.

DECEMBER 2-6

potatoes, baked sweet potatoes, corn model, trimmed with squirrel. Her publicity; Mrs. J. W. Joyner, Ameritoes and carrots, candied yams, apple- flowers were a corsage of bride's Mrs. B. R. Fields, national defense

SUCCESSFUL

What foresters call an extraordinarrily successful fire season has just Kappe Phi fraternity. He is associate hot chocolate and wafer were serv-

Best Jones, Arthur Joyner, Jr., Just In an effort to control weeds in of Mr. and Mrs. James Yancey Monk, and Rob Vernon Fiser, son of Mrs. I E. W. Gunn, of Adairville, Ky., and the late J. B. Figer, were married five o'clock in a formal candleligh ceremony in the First Christian Church. The Rev. C. B. Mashburn was the officiating minister.

The church was decorated in ferns, which formed a background reaching to the ceiling of the pulpit, and with haskets of white chrysanthemums and myriads of burning tapers in floor candelabra. The choir stall, draped in white, was outlined in tapers interspersed with fern and chrysan themums. The pews were marked with clusters of chrysanthemums tied

"To A Evening Star" by Tannhauser. Schubert's "Serenade," "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms," "Drink To Me Only With Thine Eyes" and "Cavalier d' Rustlcana." "Liebestraum" by Liszt was softly played during the ceremony. The traditional wedding marches were used. Mrs. Jones were a gown of royal purple velvet with shoulder bouquet of Rome glory roses.

Mrs. A. Everette James, of Robersonville, sang, "Until;" Elbert C. Holmes sang "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life" and the two rendered a duet, "The Want of You." Mrs. James wore a velvet dress in one of the dark wine shades with a corsage of Briarcliffe roses.

The bride, a lovely brunette, was given in marriage by her father. She Friends will regret to learn that was gowned in a Patou model wed-Mrs. T. C. Turnage is undergoing ding dress of ivory satin with sweettreatment at Woodard-Herring hos- heart neck banded with seed pearls. pital. in Wilson. We are glad to re- The dress had long full sleeves pointport that Mrs. Turnage is improving. ed over the hand and the flowing. skirt ended in a court train. Her med with wide Alecon lace. The veil Mrs. William Thomas Fowler, of was held in place by a tiara of seed Plymouth, announces the marriage of pearls caught at the sides with orange her daughter. Martha Christine, to blossoms. She carried a bouquet of Joseph Harrison Goin, of Walston- bride's roses, lilies of the valley and burg, on November 23, in Farmville. bouvardia, tied with satin ribbon and French maline. She wore a single strand of pearls, as her only orna-

Mrs. H. L. Watson, of Wilson, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. tian Church will present a pageant, She wore a rose clover velvet in floor "In Such Times As These," at the length with short puffed sleeves and Christian Church on Sunday evening a matching halo velvet turban with at 7:30 o'clock. The community is a shoulder length veil of bridal was announced as winner of the room that it is very necessary that every nor in a brief but appropriate talk. illusion.

Miss Vernice Lang Jones, the maid of honor, were a similar model dress of French lime velvet with matching Christian Church, Thursday morning, Mae Turnage and Mary Friar Rouse. November 28, at ten o'clock. Every- They wore dresses of velvet, fashionone is invited and urged to attend ed like those of the matron of honor and maid of honor, Miss Turnage's being a linen blue shade and Miss Rouse's a nugget gold, with turbans to match. All the attendants carried In order that a safeguard may be bouquets of November bronze chryprovided for the children, who will be santhenums tied with rainbow satin third grade, Miss Margaret Lewis, good health, clear minds and strong

The flower girls were Theodora Albritton and Ellen Norris Spencer. tween Wilson and Church streets free They were dressed in blue and yellow membership campaign. from traffic and parked cars from dresses made in identical mode, with noon until nine o'clock that evening. short, full skirts and bodices. They wore nosegays of forgetmenots in their hair and crosses on gold chains, and carried baskets made of ruffled with yellow roses.

J. B. Fiser, of Adairville, Ky., was Lodge 917 W. O. W. Farmville, are his brother's best man, and the ushers hereby urged to be present Friday were James Y. Monk, Jr., brother of American Legion Auxiliary was held against tuberculosis. night at our meeting. Supper will the bride, Charles C. Baird, of Adair. Thursday in the Legion Hall with

Mrs. Monk, mother of the bride. wore a black crepe dress trimmed

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Fiser left for a motor trip through Kentucky and Tennessee. Monday-Meat loaf with tomato en route to Franklin, Tenn., where Collards with pork, Irish a moss green costume suit, Lanvin Ballew, Fidac; Mrs. J. E. Bynum, urban had a band of matching fur canism; Mrs. H. H. Benson, history and her accessories were black. Her Mrs. W. M. Willis, rehabilitation; cabbage salad, biscuit, 10c; peaches roses taken from the wedding bou- Mrs. E. F. Gaynor, legislative; Mrs.

surned from a motor trip to toes, corn bread, 10c; chocolate pie 5c. attended East Carolina Teachers Col- Mrs. R. LeRoy Rollins in charge of Priday-Salmon croquettes, string lege and Greensboro College. She the program, presented her h beans, Irish potato saind, cole slaw, made her debut at the Raleigh Debu- R. LeRoy Rollins, Legion Post Comtante Ball in 1936.

class of '31. He is a member of Pi During an enjoyable social hour

Ceremony of Wilmington; Miss Frances King, of Weldon; Mr. and Mrs. Plato Monk, and Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Weikel, and Christian Church Sat- Edward Dixon, of Wilson; Miss Esther Horner, of Durham; Mrs. Lens Mae Head, of Raleigh: Mr. and Mrs. delrville, Ky.; Miss Mary and Miss cial guests shared with the Marry marked by a round of lovely parties C. Monk, Jr., were hosts; a rehearsal House to view decorations with the and Miss Vernice Lang Jones as R. Morgan. hosts, and a luncheon tendered by her Tipsy cake was served followed by home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Monk, Mrs. Morgan, in which the meeting Rhoda Strong, Anisa Ramey; Henry Sr., with members of the bridal party was held, was attractively decorated Berry Lowrie, Bobby Rouse; Steve as guests. The bride's table was with handsome chrysanthemums. of white snapdragons and carnations. Self, Mrs. Nonie Barrett, Miss Verona maker John, runaway slave, Boots Places were marked by bouquets and Lee Joyner and Miss Edna Robinson. boutonnieres, with that of the hon- The Thanksgiving idea was effecoree's taking the form of a miniature tively carried in the decorations and bridal bouquet.

a three tiered cake, which was cut by games. Special guests were Mr. and the bride and served with bridal ices, Mrs. L. E. Walston and Mr. and placed on the plates by the bride's Mrs. John B. Lewis. mother, who was seated at one end of the table. White tapers in can- ANNUAL CHRISTMAS SEAL delabra illuminated the rooms.

The beautifully appointed luncheon hosts, was held at the Country Club on the day of the wedding with out of town guests sharing honors with DeVisconti, with other clubs and From our neighboring city of Tarthe members of the bridal party.

The regular monthly meeting of the devotional exercises.

During the business session the 4th early stages. had donated $25 of the tobacco fund of the State. from the local market for lunches for underprivileged and undernourished "There is nothing finer than putting children in the Farmville school. chairman, reported 393 members en- entirely stamped out, much can be rolled in the association, with the done to prevent it. If people have teacher, and the eighth grade, Miss bodies they are likely to make good Verona Lee Joyner, teacher, winning citizens. As more men are called have shown more interest in project the cash prizes offered in the recent into national service the need to pay ing talk on the topic, "This World of Ours."

The Dramatic Club, under the direction of Miss Ellen Lyles, presenttaffets to match each dress and filled ed the play, "The Swamp's Outlaw" which won first place for them in the recent county contest.

The November meeting of the Mrs. S. A. Garris presided and in a brief talk stressed the importance of with aqua material and jet. Her hat membership in the Auxiliary, pointwas a small black model with agus ing out that as the right hand of floral trim. Her corange was of pink the Legion it had the opportunity of serving America.

The president announced the following committee chairmen for the

Mrs. C. A. Tyson, national news; Mrs. E. A. Roebuck, music; Mrs. Louise D. Harris, child welfare; Mrs. For traveling the bride changed to J. H. Bynuth, finance; Mrs. G. E. W. E. Joyner, local employment: Christmas, Mrs. D. G. Allen, Mrs.

mander, who spoke comprehensively Mr. Fises attended Furman Cot- on the Draft, and explained the duties lege, Greenville, S. C., and was grad of the Pitt County Board No. 1, of unted from Duke University in the which he is a member.

oring the young couple will meetings of the Merry Matrons was Among the out of foren guests at Smith as hostens. Chrysanthennums Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Satterfield, winter greens were in artistic ar-

A chicken m

Mrs. J. I. Morgan, Sr., and Mrs. T.

E. Joyner were joint hostesses at a Misses Jane and Rose splendid and enjoyable meeting of Carlton, and Mrs. R. A. Bynum, of Christmas greens. Mrs. E. F. Gay- Lowrie and his band of Croatan made from evergreens.

sist in the decoration of the town for play the Farmville Dramatic Club The pre nupitals of the week prior the holidays and chose as a slogan "A won the recent Pitt County Dramati to the marriage took the form of din- Christmas light in every home." The ner party, at which Mr. and Mrs. A. Club decided to dispense with the dent of the North Carolina Dramati C. Monk, Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. A. December meeting and hold Open Association, has invited the Club to party with Dr. and Mrs. P. E. Jones tour to end at the home of Mrs. D. Spring Drama Festival in April, Also sister, Mrs. H. L. Watson and Mr. coffee, candies and cookies, the latter ville Club. The play was directed by carrying the suggestion of Christmas, Miss Ellen Lyles. The dinner party was given at the in motif and colors. The home of The characters of the play were centered with a large arrangement | Special guests were Mrs. M. Y. a slave trader, Lester Turnage; Shoe-in the refreshments served by Mr. A four course dinner was served at and Mrs. W. E. Joyner, who were Delphia Parker, and Rachel Dixon. even thirty, with covers laid for hosts to the Couple Club on Tuesday Tommy Lang and Bill Carr were in evening. Dr. W. M. Willis won the charge of the stage and the sound der a distinctive service to this comrollowing the rehearsal Friday eve- men's prize of sox, Mrs. M. V. Jones offerts ning the bridal party was entertained was awarded mixing bowls as the by Dr. and Mrs. P. E. Jones and Miss ladies' prize and Mrs. L. E. Walston Vernice Lang Jores. The dining won the guest prize. Plum pudding, room table bore a wedding scene with nuts and coffee were served after the under the leadership of Miss Tabitha the membership. on Tuesday, December 8.

The public is urged by the chairthe Parent-Teacher Association was man to buy in even larger quantities livered a talk, which brought the held Thursday at 7:30 with the presi- this year, in order that information fundamentals of Rotary closer to the dent, Mrs. R. LeRoy Rollins, presid- regarding the disease may be spread hearts of his listeners. The jokes ing. Rev. B. B. Fordham conducted | more widely and fully, as a cure may with which he flavored his speech were be effected if treatment begins in its timely and enjoyable.

grade, Miss Camille Staton, teacher, Miss Tabitha DeVisconti points out governor, introduced the new goverroll call contest; the executive com- one support this sale in order that Governor Carter referred to the mittee chairman, Mrs. L. J. Williford, the organized forces of the State may reported that this organization was continue their fight against the di- tee chairmen, called by president T. winner of the prize offered for in- sease, as the money realized from Eli Joyner and held prior to the regucrease in membership this year at the the Seal Sale is used to hasten the lar meeting hour, and remarked that recent district meeting, held in Green- eradication of this dread disease and the Farmville Club seemed to be proville, and that the Salvation Army to promote the health of the people gressing and the committees func-

Governor Hoey said recently, your heart and hand to a worthy about, in 1940, maybe you will have Mrs. R. D. Rouse, membership cause . . . if tuberculosis cannot be much to be thankful for in 1941. Mrs. E. B. Hodge made an interest- greater. A man cannot fill his place will be completed and reported, says in the line of national defense if he Assistant Farm Agent Jack Kelley. is not physically strong. The Sale of these seals will save lives and thereby help in national defense plans."

> If you have already joined the Red demand for work by the county ter-Cross, you are ready to buy some racing unit has become so great that Christmas Seals to aid the battle all calls cannot be filled, says Assist-

J. B. Piper and Charles C. Baird, of and cotree. A large number of species was North Corolina Foll play fatrons in the pleasures of the rul events of North Carolina's pe the Carden Club, presided over by Carolina's foremost playwright, Paul Dr. W. W. Keffer Mrs. John W. Holmes. Miss Tabitha Greene has made this his life work.

> nor exhibited Christmas decorations during the years of bitter conflict be-The Club voted at this time to as county and the Croatans. With this the Carolina Dramatic Association sent its congratulations to the Farm-

Lowrie, Bill Rasberry; Brant Harris,

The make-up committee was composed of Cornelia Knott, Agnes Quinnerly, Jane Greene, Frances Howard.

District Governor Carter Darrow At

Governor Carter Darrow, district 189. Rotary International, paid his official visit to the Farmville Ro-SALE BEGINS TUESDAY tary Club Tuesday evening. The visit of the district governor is al-The annual Christmas Seal Sale, ways a great event and this meeting sponsored again by the Literary Club, was a source of much inspiration to organizations, will be launched here boro, a good speaker and a fine singer, Governor made a splendid impression on the local Rotarians and de-

Irving Morgan, Jr., past district

meeting of the directors and commit-

If you had nothing to be thankful

PROJECTS

All 4-H Clubs in Onslow County work this year, and indications are more attention to health becomes that a larger percentage of projects

> As Forsyth County farmers have realized the value of terracing, the ant Farm Agent S. R. Mitchiner.

remetional Secretary of Home Mis ions in Albermarie Presbytery, will ard's Cross Roads, Sunday at 8 p. m. to speak and to show moving pictures of the Home Mission Work in Albemarle Presbytery.

A free will offering will be received for Home Missions. An interesting program is expected, and the public is cordially invited.

Opens Offices Here

Dr. W. Watson Keffer, Chiropractic physician, announced the opening of offices here this week on the second floor of the Pitt County Insurance Agency building.

Dr. Keffer, a former resident of Connellville, Pa., was graduated from Lincoln Chiropraetic College of Indianapolis, Indiana, and had two years clinic internship there. Dr. Keffer comes to Farmville highly recommended as to his training, experience and ability in his profession.

The physician is associated with his cousin, Dr. William A. Keffer, of Kinston, in their private Chiropractic Clinic in that city, but has opened offices here and established residence. having moved into the duplex home of Mrs. J. L. Shackleford at 208 W. Church street. Mrs. Keffer and their son are expected within the next few

Dr. Keffer has remarked as to his pleasure in finding Farmville to be such a clean, beautiful litle town and at the cordial reception he has received, and has expressed a desire to ren-

Now that the Presidential election is over, both parties have their eyes on the Congressional elections of Rotary Club Tuesday 1942. That is what you call unity.

THIDATTRE FARMVILLE, N. C.

WEEK OF NOV. 30th

SATURDAY (Double Feature) "COLORADO" with Roy Rogers

"CALLING All HUSBANDS" Ernest Truex and Lucille Fairbanks Plus Final Chapter "DRUMS OF FU MANCHU"

SUNDAY-MONDAY DSCAPD2 - with -Norma Shearer and Robert

Taylor

Plus Latest News Events TUESDAY. "QUARTERBACK" - with -

Wayne Morris and Virginia

Dale Plus Cartoon and Special "Cavalcade of Academy Awards" WEDNESDAY

"RANGERS of FORTUNE" - with -Fred MacMurray - Patricia Morison Plus another Chapter "JUNIOR G-MEN" & CARTOON

THURSDAY-FRIDAY KAY KYSER and His College of Musical Knowledge "You'll Find Out" Plus News and Cartoon

